Castles and Chateaux of Old Navarre and the Basque Provinces Milburg Francisco Mansfield, 2020-09-28 THIS book is no record of exploitation or discovery it is simply a review of many things seen and heard anent that marvellous and comparatively little known region vaguely described as the Pyrenees of which the old French provinces and before them the independent kingdoms countships and dukedoms of B arn Navarre Foix and Roussillon are the chief and most familiar The region has been known as a touring ground for long years and mountain climbers who have tired of the monotony of the Alps have found much here to quicken their jaded appetites Besides this there is a wealth of historic fact and a quaintness of men and manners throughout all this wonderful country of infinite variety which has been little worked as yet by any but the guide book makers who deal with only the driest of details and with little approach to completeness The monuments of the region the historic and ecclesiastical shrines are numerous enough to warrant a very extended review but they have only been hinted at once and again by travellers who have usually made the round of the resorts like Biarritz Pau Luchon and Lourdes their chief reason for coming here at all Delightful as are these places and a half a dozen others whose names are less familiar the little known townlets with their historic sites such as Maz res with its Ch teau de Henri Quatre Navarreux Maul on Morlaas Nay and Bruges peopled originally by Flamands make up an itinerary quite as important as one composed of the names of places writ large in the guide books and in black type on the railway maps The region of the Pyrenees is most accessible granted it is off the regular beaten travel track The tide of Mediterranean travel is breaking hard upon its shores to day but few who are washed ashore by it go inland from Barcelona and Perpignan and so on to the old time little kingdoms of the Pyrenees Fewer still among those who go to southern France via Marseilles ever think of turning westward instead of eastward the attraction of Monte Carlo and its satellite resorts is too great The same is true of those about to do the Spanish tour which usually means Holy Week at Seville a day in the Prado and another at the Alhambra and Grenada Toledo of course and back again north to Paris or to take ship at Gibraltar En route they may have stopped at Biarritz in France or San Sebastian in Spain because it is the vogue just at present but that is all It was thus that we had known the Pyrenees We knew Pau and its ancestral ch teau of Henri Quatre had had a look at Biarritz had been to Lourdes Luchon and Tarbes and even to Cauterets and Bigorre and to Foix Carcassonne and Toulouse but those were reminiscences of days of railway travel Since that time the automobile has come to make travel in out of the way places easy and instead of having to bargain for a sorry hack to take us through the Gorges de Pierre Lys or from Perpignan to Prats de Mollo we found an even greater pleasure in finding our own way and setting our own pace This is the way to best know a country not one's own and whether we were contemplating the spot where Charlemagne and his followers met defeat at the hands of the Mountaineers or stood where the Romans erected their great trophy high above Bellegarde we were sure that we were always on the trail we would follow and were not being driven hither and thither by a cocher who classed all strangers as mere tourists and pointed out a cavern with gigantic stalagmites or a profile rock as being the chief sights of his neighbourhood when near by may have been a famous battle ground or the chateau where was born the gallant Gaston Phébus Really tourists using the word in its overworked sense are themselves responsible for much that is banal in the way of sights they won't follow out their own predilections but walk blindly in the trail of others whose tastes may not be their own New York Magazine, 1987-10-05

New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Castles and Chateaux of Old Navarre and the Basque Provinces Francis Miltoun, 1907 Superhobby Investing Peter Temple, 2004 What is superhobby investing Superhobby Investing is at the intersection of investing collecting and other serious hobbies It's about examining how you can ratchet up a hobby or a collecting passion into an investment option If you are a stock market investor this book will show how you can use the tangible assets that are normally part and parcel of collecting as a means of diversifying your portfolio Or maybe you already own or have inherited some superhobby assets a stamp collection or a set of first editions say but never thought of them as potential investments Using this book you can find out how to assess their value and how to convert them into a durable and profitable portfolio This book shows you why developing one or more superhobbies can be a good idea and looks at various forms this tangible asset investing can take In each case the book explains how the markets operate what the risks are what returns can be expected and what knowledge and skills are required Each asset profile includes The history of investment in the asset The basic characteristics and features of the market The examination of long term returns with detailed figures The tax angles if applicable The major issues How to buy and sell including major dealers and auctioneers Sources of information Best and Worst Travels Ramon Carver, 2007-04 Carver writes in a style not unlike Bill Bryson candidly regaling readers with tales of his worst experiences Some of the worst were worse than others as well as the best I enjoyed a great Abercrombie Kent trip to China because it was a great adventure a great itinerary a great tour group with a great tour director great hotels except for a noisy Sheraton in Guilin great weather and great tour management Seven greats out of seven ain't bad He says Great expectations when traveling are usually the source of my greatest disappointments I'm like the guy in a New Yorker cartoon studying a brochure telling his travel agent I am so looking forward to this I can't wait to be disappointed He writes How to Survive Disasters like Theft Accidents etc and at the risk of seeming disingenuously obvious he provides an exhaustive list covering every possible thing that can go wrong Getting Sick Getting Killed Getting Lost etc offering suggestions for solving dilemmas He concludes with Did I fail to mention Getting Bored to Death He describes trips with Yale Exes and travels to Italy China and Romania where he taught English with Global Volunteers
