500 Tips On Assessment:

500 Tips on Assessment Sally Brown, Phil Race, Brenda Smith, Professor Brenda Smith, 2004-08-02 An invaluable dip in aid for hard pressed lecturers and teachers in further and higher education It should be read enjoyed and seriously considered by all those concerned about the quality and appropriateness of their assessment methods 500 Tips on Assessment Sally Brown, Philip Race, Brenda M. Smith, 1996 In the highly successful 500 Tips format the authors look at the questions and problems that teachers face and provide them with practical guidance Their advice is down to earth jargon free and digestible covering such key issues as developing strategies and structures assessment quality control traditional exams vivas multiple choice questions assessing independent learning self peer and group assessment and assessing competence and transferable skills 500 Tips on Assessment is an invaluable dip in aid for hard pressed lecturers and teachers in further and higher education It should be read enjoyed and seriously considered by anyone concerned about the quality and appropriateness of their assessment methods The Trainee Teacher's Handbook Carol Thompson, Peter Wolstencroft, 2021-03-03 If you are training to teach The Trainee Teacher's Handbook is your essential training tool This is exactly the book I needed when I was a trainee It's full of practical advice it offers great suggestions for reflection and it gives you lots of ideas for developing as a teacher Sue Cowley Author and Educator This book helps you to build skills and focus on developing your professional practice through understanding reflection and experimentation Its practical structure and learning features help you to recognise your own learning needs and set your own targets This new edition has been updated to include A new chapter curriculum design including decolonising the curriculum A new chapter on What they don't teach you in training More support on mental health and wellbeing Assessing Students' Written Work Catherine Haines, 2021-06-21 Assessment is one of the most powerful tools in teaching yet it is rarely measured in effort time and effectiveness and is often done alone against the clock and with minimal training This practical and realistic book is designed to help practitioners who wish to improve their impact in assessing a large and diverse range of students This second edition has been fully updated to include the views of students and recent developments in remote assessment plagiarism grading and feedback tools The second half of the book considers the main assessment methods with advice addressing common challenges It will help newer assessors to clarify their role and make the best use of time and technology gain confidence with assessment terms and processes give motivating feedback and support student writing tailor their approach and learn from practitioners within their discipline to extend their current range of solutions consider in more depth essays reports and projects practicals and fieldwork mathematically based learning and exams Both newly appointed and more experienced lecturers in further and higher education postgraduate students part time staff and graduate teaching assistants will find this an invaluable guide and reference tool Realising Critical HRD Jamie L. Callahan, Clare Rigg, Sally Sambrook, 2015-10-19 This book contends that the project of Critical Human Resource Development CHRD is to effect change transformation and that as such critical scholars must expose the injustices and inequities associated with the neoliberal narrative which forms the dominant rationality of current mainstream HRD practice In other words those that would change must first recognise that there is a problem worthy of being transformed It is here that much of the CHRD project has plateaued there is much theorising on dominant ideology hegemony power structures and other artefacts of a critical agenda yet there are comparatively few empirical explorations of the CHRD project that would facilitate practical engagement This book offers a means to help progress CHRD from its current concern with problem recognition to a champion of meaningful change This book offers a series of chapters that provide examples of different approaches to engaging in interventions that allow CHRD professionals to challenge power structures and in turn begin to effect change for organisations and employees alike The chapters are clustered in three distinct approaches to thinking about talking about and doing critical practice thus the sections of the book are titled Reflecting Voicing and Enacting
