Between The State And Islam:

Between the State and Islam Charles E. Butterworth, I. William Zartman, 2001-01-15 How Middle Eastern peoples in the past two centuries lived outside the region's politico religious structures Between Islam and the State Berna Turam, 2007 Examines how shifting power dynamics between the state and Islamic forces during the 1990s have transformed both Islam and the Turkish state Islam, State and Society in Indonesia Yanwar Pribadi, 2018-06-13 Islamic powers in secular countries have presented a challenge for states around the world including Indonesia home to the largest Muslim population as well as the third largest democracy in the world This book explores the history of the relationships between Islam state and society in Indonesia with a focus on local politics in Madura It identifies and explains factors that have shaped and characterized the development of contemporary Islam and politics in Madura and recognizes and elucidates forms and aspects of the relationships between Islam and politics between state and society between conflicts and accommodations between piety tradition and violence in that area and the forms and characters of democratization and decentralization processes in local politics This book shows how the area's experience in dealing with Islam and politics may illuminate the socio political trajectory of other developing Muslim countries at present living through comparable democratic transformations Madura was chosen because it has one of the most complex relationships between Islam and politics during the last years of the New Order and the first years of the post New Order in Indonesia and because it is a strong Muslim area with a history of a very strong religious as well as cultural tradition than is commonly understood and is largely ignored in literature on Islam and politics Based on extensive sets of anthropological fieldwork and historical research this book makes an important contribution to the analysis of Islam and politics in Indonesia and future socio political trajectory of other developing Muslim countries experiencing comparable democratic transformations It will be of interest to academics in the field of Religion and Politics and Southeast Asian Studies in particular Southeast Asian politics anthropology and history Between Feminism and Islam Zakia Salime, 2011-07-05 How feminists and Islamists have constituted each other's agendas in Morocco Managing Politics and Islam in Indonesia Donald J. Porter, 2013-08-21 First published in 2004 This text examines the politics of Islam and the state of Indonesia over recent decades during which time there has been a notable resurgence of Islamic political movements It argues that after the state had consistently worked to restrict and exclude political Islam from power in the late 1980s and 1990s there was a change whereby Suharto courted the support and began to incorporate Muslim interests within the political system Islam, IS and the Fragmented State Anoushiravan Ehteshami, Amjed Rasheed, Juline Beaujouan, 2020-07-02 This book provides a pioneering and original study of the regional effects of political Islam It sets out the multifaceted interactions between Islam and politics in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region focussing in particular on the so called Islamic State IS organization in its broad discussion of political Islam Utilizing a trans disciplinary perspective the book interacts with social constructivism and complex realism theories to analyse the clash between the modern notion of the state and that of identity in the region Looking at issues such as the rise of IS and its attempts to establish a caliphate the book offers three different yet complementary levels of analysis for its discussion These being Regional dis order the erosion of state power and its boundaries and the role of non state actors in shaping the politics of the MENA region Each of these levels are addressed in detail in turn in order to build a comprehensive picture of state and political Islam in the Arab core of the MENA region What emerges is a comprehensive analysis of the interlinked relationships between political and Islamic elements of Arab polities and societies As such this book will be of great interest to academics and policymakers focusing on matters relating to the study of Islam Islam and politics study of religion more broadly and security studies and area studies particularly in the MENA region

Handbook of Political Islam in Europe Thomas Jäger, Ralph Thiele, 2024-03-31 This book approaches the field of Political Islam from a European security perspective Featuring various case studies and country surveys written by respected experts in the field it offers a comparative perspective and comprehensive overview of the ideology and prevalence of Political Islam and its actors in more than 20 European states The respective contributions identify key actors of Political Islam and reveal the activities means and strategies they pursue and employ across the continent They also discuss if and how Political Islam could undermine the Western liberal democratic order and its associated values By doing so the volume offers approaches to analyzing Political Islam and thereby strengthening the resilience of liberal democratic societies while also protecting Muslims from the radical ideology and agenda of Political Islam Chapter Hybridizing Islam in the Balkans The Rise of Salafi Hanafism in Bulgaria is licensed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/> For further details see license information in the chapter div

Politics and Cultures of Islamization in Southeast Asia Georg Stauth, 2015-07-15 This book is about cultural and political figures institutions and ideas in a period of transition in two Muslim countries in Southeast Asia Malaysia and Indonesia It also addresses some of the permutations of civilizing processes in Singapore and the city state s image moving across its borders into the region and representing a miracle of modernity beyond ideas The central theme is the way in which Islam was re constructed as an intellectual and socio political tradition in Southeast Asia in the nineteen nineties Scholars who approach Islam both as a textual and local tradition students who take the heartlands of Islam as imaginative landscapes for cultural transformation and politicians and institutions which have been concerned with transmitting the idea of Islamization are the subjects of this inquiry into different patterns of modernity in a tropical region still bearing the signature of a colonial past Constitutionalism in Islamic Countries: Between Upheaval and Continuity Rainer Grote, Tilmann J.

Röder, 2012-02-16 Constitutionalism in Islamic Countries Between Upheaval and Continuity offers a comprehensive analysis of the issues associated with the theory and practice of constitutionalism in Islamic countries This collection of essays is written by leading constitutional and comparative law scholars and constitutional practitioners and essays provide readers with an overview of the constitutional developments in countries in the Islamic world an understanding of the potential and actual impact of Islam and Sharia on the notion of modern constitutionalism and insight into the ways in which Western ideals may be reconciled with Islamic tradition

Islamic Public Law - Islamic Law in Theory and Practice Ahmed Akgunduz, 2011-11-01

Islamic law contains explications and divisions that imply a classification in terms of public and private law In this book we will explain the outlines of Islamic public law e g First Chapter Islamic constitutional law al siy sah al shar iyyah and administrative law al siy sah al shar iyyah Second Chapter penal law al uq b t Third Chapter financial law zak t ushr ar j and other taxes Fourth Chapter trial law qa and Fifth Chapter international public law al siyar The fields of especially Islamic constitutional law administrative law financial law ta z r penalties and arrangements concerning military law based on the restricted legislative authority vested by Shar ah rules and those jurisprudential decrees based on secondary sources like customs and traditions and the public good maslahah all fell under what was variously called public law al siy sah al shar iyyah Shar ah policy q n n legal code q n nn mah orf uq q etc Since these laws could not go beyond Shar ah principles either at least in theory they should not be regarded as a legal system outside of Islamic law But Islamic penal law financial law trial law and international law depend mostly on rules that are based directly on the Qur an and the Sunnah and codified in books of fiqh Islamic law called Shar ah rules Shar i shar f or Shar ah law Such rules formed 85% of the legal system In this book we will focus on some controversial problems in the Muslim world today such as the form of government in Islamic law and the relation between Islam and democracy Islamic law does not stipulate a certain method of state government nonetheless we may say that the principles it decrees and its concept of sovereignty suggest a religious republic As a matter of fact ulaf al R shid n the Rightly Guided Caliphs were both caliphs and religious republican presidents We could say that this book has three main characteristics i We have tried to base our explanations directly on the primary Islamic law sources For example after reading some articles on the caliphate or t m r system in articles or books by some Western scholars and even by some Muslim scholars one might conclude that there are different views on these subjects among Muslim scholars This is not true Muslims have agreed on the basic rules on legal subjects but there are some conflicts regarding nuances and interpretations If one reads works by Im m Gazzali Ibn Taymiyyah al M wardi and al Farr one will not find any disagreement on the main rules but there are some different interpretations of some concepts We have tried to discover where they agreed and we have sometimes pointed to where they differed ii We have researched practices of Islamic law especially legal documents in the Ottoman archives For example we explain add i sariqa but also mention some legal articles from the Ottoman legal codes q nunn mes and some Shar ah court decisions like legal decrees i l m t i shar iyyah It is well known that nobody can understand any legal system without implementing and practicing it That also holds for Islamic law because theory alone does not yield a complete understanding of Shar ah rules iii We have worked hard to correct some misconceptions and misunderstandings about Islamic law That is why we appeal to the primary sources For example some scholars claim that the anaf jurist Im m Sara s did not accept the idea of punishment for apostasy We have studied his work al Mabs t and found this claim to be unfounded The comparison between t m r and fief is another example because the t m r system is different from the fief system Some scholars confuse the concept of sovereignty and governance The Islamic state is not a theocratic state in the sense in which Europeans understand the term

Islam in the Era of Globalization Johan Meuleman,2005-09-30 Globalization modernity and identity are fundamental issues in contemporary Islam and Islamic Studies This collection of essays reflects the wide diversity that characterises contemporary Islamic Studies The case studies cover regions stretching from China and Southeast Asia to diaspora communities in the Caribbean and Tajikistan There is significant participation of intellectual voices from all areas concerned providing a real contribution to the academic exchange between the Muslim and the Euro American worlds

Islamic Education in Indonesia and Malaysia Azmil Tayeb,2018-03-13 Despite their close geographic and cultural ties Indonesia and Malaysia have dramatically different Islamic education with that in Indonesia being relatively decentralized and discursively diverse while that in Malaysia is centralized and discursively restricted The book explores the nature of the Islamic education systems in Indonesia and Malaysia and the different approaches taken by these states in managing these systems The book argues that the post colonial state in Malaysia has been more successful in centralising its control over Islamic education and more concerned with promoting a restrictive orthodoxy compared to the post colonial state in Indonesia This is due to three factors the ideological makeup of the state institutions that oversee Islamic education patterns of societal Islamisation that have prompted different responses from the states and control of resources by the central government that influences centre periphery relations Informed by the theoretical works of state in society relations and historical institutionalism this book shows that the three aforementioned factors can help a state to minimize influence from the society and exert its dominance in this case by centralising control over Islamic education Specifically they help us understand the markedly different landscapes of Islamic education in Malaysia and Indonesia It will be of interest to academics in the field of Southeast Asian Studies Asian Education and Comparative Education

Political Islam, Citizenship, and Minorities Andrea Zaki Stephanous,2012-07-10 Political Islam Citizenship and Minorities discusses the relationship between religion and politics in the Middle East and the future of political Christianity The emergence of political Islam and the recent changes in political Christianity in the region have both contributed to a new perception of the role of Arab Christians Political Christianity is a part of the political discourse in the Middle East it makes a major contribution to the political life of the region This book explores Arab political participation in general and particularly examines the role of minorities The author considers both the impact of political Islam on politics and the concept of a political system based on religious principles The Copts of Egypt and the Maronites of Lebanon are compared in order to examine the nature of political participation by Arab Christians and to consider the political theologies behind both communities Arabism as a broad concept that includes Islam and other faiths is our concern A new vocabulary and fresh concepts for the effective political participation of Arab Christians are introduced in this book and a new concept of dynamic citizenship that is based on the development of civil society and learns from the problems of the past is developed State and Islam Cornelis Dijk,1995 Islam and Statecraft Jon Hoffman,2025-01-23 Instead of religion influencing political outcomes this analysis examines how politics influences religious outcomes Dominant analyses examining the utilization of religion as a tool of statecraft in the Middle East remain overwhelmingly fixated on how Islam influences the foreign policies of different state actors not how political considerations often influence the forms Islam assumes and how religion itself is often molded according to strategic considerations of political elites That Islam due to its unique or exceptional relationship with politics drives political outcomes at the international level in the Middle East is a myth this book shatters by demonstrating how the political considerations of ruling elites specifically the intersection of domestic and foreign threats influence and constrain the kinds of religious soft power strategies adopted by states in the region This book develops a comprehensive analytical framework for the notion of religious soft power capable of incorporating power based identity based and ideational variables to examine how states couple religion with their broader foreign policy conduct This framework is applied to the Middle East through the specific examination of three countries Saudi Arabia Qatar and the United Arab Emirates in the period following the Arab Uprisings to demonstrate how specific religious narratives identities histories and ideologies are constructed by political elites in the Middle East for the advancement of what are inherently political objectives namely the imperatives of regime preservation and power projection

Transnational Law Miguel Maduro,Kaarlo Tuori,Suvi Sankari,2014-05 This book examines the effects of law s de nationalisation by placing European law in the context of transnational law Religious Minorities, Islam and the Law Al Khanif,2020-09-03 This book examines the legal conundrum of reconciling international human rights law in a Muslim majority country and identifies a trajectory for negotiating the protection of religious minorities within Islam The work explores the history of religious minorities within Islam in Indonesia which contains the world s largest Muslim population as well as the present day ways by which the government may address issues through reconciling international human rights law and Islamic law Given the context of multiple sets of religious norms in Indonesia this is a complicated endeavour In addition to amending and enacting human rights norms the government is also negotiating with the long history of Islamisation in Indonesia Particularly relevant is the practice of customary law which puts the rights of community over individualism This practice directly affects the rights of religious minorities within Islam Readers especially those conducting research will also be provided with information and references which are relevant to the field of human rights especially in relation to religious minorities and international law The book will be a valuable resource for academics and researchers in the fields of International Human Rights Law Law and Religion and Islamic Studies Between Europe and Islam Almut H[Ux945f]fert,Armando Salvatore,2000 In the last two decades of the 20th century theorising on modernity has entered a new stage The former dichotomy between an active West exporting its successful model of modernity on a global scale and passive non Westerners gratefully implementing this model in their own societies has been challenged by critical anthropology and postcolonial studies and further elaborated upon within social theory This volume focuses on Europe and the Islamic world as two historically constructed geo civilisational domains and shows that modernity was not achieved in splendid isolation in Europe but in the tensions and conflicts within the transcultural space between Europe and Islam The impact of Islam as a complex civilising tradition on the making of Europe and vice versa impinged on the building of political religious and scientific institutions and discourses These sustained a continuous process of drawing adjusting and transgressing symbolic and geo political boundaries between the two civilisational realms from medieval rivalries to present day migration related conflicts This volume assembles seven contributions by historians and sociologists covering the whole of the modern era and focusing on the notion of a transcultural space and the discussion of revised concepts concerning the genesis and shape of modernity In so doing they try to escape both the apories of cultural relativism and the militancy of the clash of civilizations

Islam and Democracy in Indonesia Jeremy Menchik, 2016-01-11 This book explains how the leaders of the world's largest Islamic organizations understand tolerance explicating how politics works in a Muslim majority democracy
