Performance Literacy Through Storytelling Nile Stanley, Brett Dillingham, 2009. Make storytelling a part of your daily curriculum. This practical guide from Nile Stanley and Brett Dillingham shows busy K-8 teachers how to use storytelling to motivate and engage all readers and writers while supporting the standards. Mini-lessons at beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels help teachers weave storytelling into the fabric of today's standards-based classroom and construct their own skillful literacy lessons. Reluctant and striving readers and writers, English language learners, and even more advanced storytellers will love the confidence they gain as they move from developing to delivering a variety of stories for a variety of audiences. Teachers will love the many benefits of performance literacy or teaching children how to write and perform stories. Develop literacy skills: language vocabulary, comprehension, writing process, speaking and listening, along with performance skills and self-expression. Easily integrate learning across the content areas. Deepen the connection between home, school, and community. Promote students' creativity and activate their prior knowledge.
