

A photograph of an elderly couple on a swing set in an autumn setting. The woman, on the left, has short white hair, wears glasses, a red scarf, and a grey jacket. She is smiling and looking up. The man, on the right, is wearing a dark blue quilted jacket and is holding the chain of the swing. The background shows trees with yellow and orange leaves and a brick building. A blue banner with white text is overlaid on the top half of the image.

Back cover The Nine Pillars of History Gunnar G. Sevelius,2013-10-08 Human society as we know it goes back some 200 000 years to a time when we learned to speak and communicate our thoughts The Nine Pillars of History are defined from nine basic requirements for a healthy and prosperous society during the following 190 000 years of Hunting and Gathering Sexuality a fundamental human need that goes even further back in history than society had to be mitigated with a social rule The Golden Rule The Nine Pillars of History are used as non political common denominators to judge the political evolution of some thirty major countries or cultures In addition the Pillars are partnered with the Golden

Rule to explore five world religions Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity and Islam The relevance of The Nine Pillars of History is proven by the fact that they exist intergraded across multiple societies since the dawn of time and are still relevant for our modern world This historical review reveals that dogmatic religions and harsh politics have caused 10 000 years of war by challenging the relevance of The Nine Pillars of History Dr Sevelius gives his views as nonpolitical nonreligious thoughts Each paragraph has been numbered to offer an easy to use reference system for community discussion of specific statements The Nine Pillars of History gives you Dear Friend and Reader a vision for peace As Dr Sevelius respectfully borrows President Lincolns enduring truth that governments of the people by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth
