Alzheimers Hard Questions:

Alzheimer's James Lindemann Nelson, Hilde Lindemann Nelson, 2010-04-14 Caring for a loved one who is terminally ill can be tremendously stressful under any circumstances. If that person has a degenerative and dementing disease such as Alzheimer's and is unable to participate in decisions regarding his or her care, the stress is that much greater. When it comes to making those difficult moral and ethical decisions which will preserve the dignity and integrity of the patient while also maintaining the caregiver's own selfhood, this is the book that can help. How much should the patient be told? How strongly should he be urged to plan for his own future? Is it ever right to lie to the patient about her condition? When is it right to place your loved one in a nursing home and not feel guilty about it? How do different family members arrive at agreement among themselves in each of these situations? Authors and bioethicists James and Hilde Lindemann Nelson have written an invaluable step by step guide to tackling these and other difficult decisions. Using their extensive research on moral issues in health care, the Nelsons create hypothetical scenarios that demonstrate some of the most common situations caregivers will have to face during every stage of the illness and show by example how they can make the right choices for themselves, the patient, and the rest of the family. This invaluable information, combined with a state by state and city by city guide to agencies and support groups offering practical assistance, as well as a list of suggested reading on the subject, make this book unique and the most complete source of advice available. The 10 Best Questions for Living with Alzheimer's Dede Bonner, 2008-11-04 A good mind knows the right answers, but a great mind knows the right questions. And never are the 10 Best Questions more important than after the life altering diagnosis of Alzheimer's disease. Drawing on cutting edge research and advice given by experts from the Alzheimer's Association, Mayo Clinic, and UCLA's Memory Clinic and Center for Aging, as well as personal stories from caretakers including television star and activist Linda Dano and nationally syndicated columnist Harriet Cole, The 10 Best Questions for Living with Alzheimer's is a guide you'll take with you to your doctor's office and keep close at hand as your loved one progresses from the initial diagnosis through all the stages of the disease. In addition to the medical questions you'll also learn what you need to ask your spouse or parent, questions to assess home safety issues, driving skills, and home care, and how to care for your own emotional, legal, and financial health. With a wealth of resources and up to the minute information, The 10 Best Questions for Living with Alzheimer's shows you and your family how to move past a scary diagnosis and use the power of questions to become your own best health advocate for yourself and for your loved one. Illuminating the Alzheimer's Path Donna Brown Benton, 2025-04-14 Dementia diagnoses continue to rise as researchers strive for a cure The sobering truth is that we all either have been or can expect to be personally affected by dementia in our lifetime In Illuminating the Alzheimer's Path author Donna Brown Benton through a collection of stories shares her lived experience of journeying with and caring for her husband Doug for sixteen years Donna's writing is marked by transparency as she transforms the particulars of their lived experience into universal themes that resonate on a deep emotional level Not intended to be a how to manual it's meant to raise awareness of how we view respond to companion and care for loved ones with dementia The author is hopeful that others facing the path she and her husband traveled will find wisdom support and solace in its pages

Alzheimer's Dementia Vijaya L. Melnick, Nancy N. Dubler, 2012-12-06 The National Institute on Aging NIA has historically been concerned with the protection of human subjects In July 1977 the NIA sponsored a meeting to update and supplement guide lines for protecting those participating in Federal research projects Although the basic guidelines had been in effect since 1966 it had been neglected to include the elderly as a vulnerable population In November 1981 the NIA organized a conference on the ethical and legal issues related to informed consent in senile dementia cases The present volume offers the latest and best thinking on Alzheimer's Dementia to have emerged from the dialog that was first embarked upon at the NIA meeting Indeed the issues and concerns it treats now seem even more relevant than they appeared historically because of the vastly greater awareness in the community of the entire spectrum of problems Alzheimer's disease confronts us all with Our interest and concern is both humanitarian and self serving Clearly older people must be protected from in appropriate research and careful attention must be paid to the circumstances under which research is conducted on those older persons who have given anything less than full consent It is equally necessary however for the research enterprise to be protected so that today s elderly and those of the future can benefit from the fruits of research
