The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Homes through World History James M. Steele, 2009-03-30 The house throughout history in every place in the world has been built to provide shelter from the elements The dwellings that have resulted are as different as the people that have built them the social norms that prevailed at the time and place in which they were built and the natural environment that they adapted to Studying them now in a comprehensive way allows us to understand the social political economic and religious conditions that existed for their inhabitants They are a three dimensional record of culture Twenty four pages of color images along with black and white images through three volumes illustrate the homes of people throughout the world The volumes cover ancient times to the late Middle Ages the Renaissance to the Industrial Revolution and the Post Industrial Revolution to the Present Writing Design Grace Lees-Maffei, 2012-01-17 Explains how important language is to understanding design how a range of texts from design criticism to instructions and labels shape the appreciation and use of design Constructing Identity in Contemporary Architecture Peter Herrle, Stephanus Schmitz, 2009 The global spread of uniform modes of production and cultural values has been accompanied by a dissemination of stereotypes of modern architecture styles almost everywhere around the globe Paradoxically the reverse process has also emerged In some countries the elites feel the necessity to counterbalance the loss of identity and defend their own cultures against the intruding forces of globalization What started as a defensive notion has developed into a more progressive attempt to re create what has allegedly been lost This trend is being strongly expressed in discourses about architecture in countries of the South Who are the actors feeling compelled to construct new identities How are these new identities in architecture created in various parts of the world And which are the ingredients borrowed from various historical and ethnic traditions and other sources These and other questions are discussed in five case studies from different parts of the world written by renowned scholars from Brazil Mexico Egypt India and Singapore A History of Western Architecture David Watkin, 2005 The history of Western architecture from the earliest times in Mesopotamia and Egypt to the dramatic impact of CAD on architectural practice at the beginning of the 21st century Piranesi and the Modern Age Victor Plahte Tschudi, 2022-11-01 The complex appropriation of Piranesi by modern literature photography art film and architecture The etchings of the Italian printmaker architect and antiquarian Giovanni Battista Piranesi 1720 78 have long mesmerized viewers But as Victor Plahte Tschudi shows artists and writers of the modern era found in these works Piranesi's visions of contradictory space endless vistas and self perpetuating architecture a formulation of the modern In Piranesi and the Modern Age Tschudi explores the complex appropriation and continual rediscoveries of Piranesi by modern literature photography art film and architecture Tracing the ways that the modern age constructed itself and its origin through Piranesi across genres he shows for example how Piranesi's work formulates the ideas of contrast in photography abstraction in painting and montage in cinema Piranesi's modern day comeback Tschudi argues relied on new dimensions found within his work that inspired attempts to inscribe within them a world that was very modern For more than a century these interpretations have helped legitimize new forms theories technologies and movements Tschudi examines among other things how Piranesi's disturbing prison interiors the Carceri became modern metaphors for the mind how Alfred H Barr and the Museum of Modern Art made the case for Piranesi's alleged abstraction in the 1930s and how Sergei Eisenstein reinvented Piranesi as a progenitor of his own innovative filmmaking techniques Tschudi's exploration of Piranesi's influence on modern architectural discourse includes interviews with such distinguished architects as Peter Eisenman Bernard Tschumi Steven Holl and Rem Koolhaas Generously illustrated Piranesi and the Modern Age offers an entirely new reading of Piranesi's work Different Repetitions Branimir Medić, Pero Puljiz, Arthur Wortmann, Theo Deutinger, 2009 The Croatian Dutch architect duo of Branimir

Medic and Pero Puljiz have a working method that could be described as cleverly linking and rearranging elements that just fall short of being identical. By these means they convincingly create new forms and surprising spaces. It is a method that yields buildings that are minimalist and at the same time dynamic. Indeed, their body of work can best be described as dynamic minimalist. Educated as architects at Zagreb University, the two continued their studies at the Berlage Institute in the Netherlands. After winning first and second prize in the Dutch Prix de Rome in the mid 1990s, the two decided not to establish their own office as was customary but instead to become partners at de Architekten Cie in Amsterdam. From one day to the next, they went from being fledgling architects to co-directors of a major architectural firm. Medic and Puljiz often follow a similarly individual path in their designs. Different Repetitions shows in words and images the versatility but most of all their cohesion from the Acanthus office building in Amsterdam to the Cultural Centre in Tianjin, China.
