Archival Sources for the Study of Finnish Canadians Edward W. Laine, National Archives of Canada, 1989 Archival Sources for the Study of Finnish Canadians National Archives of Canada, 1989 Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers

Between a Rock and a Hard Place Oiva W. Saarinen, 2006-01-01 Where else can that well known phrase be better applied than to a study of the Finns in Sudbury Rock defines the physical reality of the Sudbury setting rugged hills mines farms and forests set in the Precambrian Shield Hard defines the human setting Finnish immigrants having to contend with the problems and stresses of relocating to a new culture with livelihoods that required great endurance as well as a tolerance for hazardous conditions Since 1883 Finnish immigrants in Sudbury men and women alike have striven to improve their lot through the options available to them Despite great obstacles the Finns never flagged in their unwavering fight for workers rights and the union movement And as agricultural settlers labour reformers builders of churches halls saunas and athletic fields Finns left an indelible imprint on the physical and human landscape In the process they have played an integral part in the transformation of Sudbury from a small struggling rail town to its present role as regional capital of northwestern Ontario This penetrating study of the cultural geography of the Finns in the Sudbury region provides an international national and local framework for analysis a model for future studies of other cultural groups Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies Joseph Jones, 2005-01-01 Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies offers the first full scale bibliography of writing on and in the field of Canadian literary studies Approximately one thousand annotated entries are arranged by reference genre with sub groupings related to literary genre Under the northern lights Nelma Sillanpaa, 1994-01-01 What was it like for young immigrant girls growing up in the lumber camps and mining towns of northern Ontario in the 1920s How did teenagers in Canada cope with the Great Depression of the Dirty Thirties What did young women on the home front do during World War II while their menfolk were overseas with the Canadian Forces This autobiography shows us what ordinary life has been like for many women in Canada over the last 75 years and it illuminates a largely unknown chapter of Canada's diverse multicultural heritage Published in English Canadiana, 1990 Hard Work Conquers All Michel S. Beaulieu, David K. Ratz, Ronald N. Harpelle, 2017-11-15 Above the entrance to the Finnish Labour Temple in what was once Port Arthur in northern Ontario is the motto labor omnia vincit hard work conquers all Since 1910 these words have reflected the dedication of the Finnish community in Canada Hard Work Conquers All is a social history of Finnish immigration and community building in Canada during the twentieth century Each successive wave of immigration imbued the relationship between people homeland and host country with the politics ideologies and cultural expressions of its time The story of Finns in Canada dovetails with the larger literature on Canadian immigration and enriches the history of socialism and ethnic repression in this country Hard Work Conquers All explores the nuanced cultural identities of Finnish Canadians their continued ties to Finland intergenerational cultural transfer and the community's connections with socialism and labour movements It offers new interpretations of the lasting influence of Finnish immigration on Canadian politics and society Index to the Ontario Genealogical Society's Bulletin, 1962-1970 and Families, 1971-1997 Roger William Gaffield Reid, Ontario Genealogical Society, 2000 The Bulletin changed its title to Families beginning with vol 10 1971 Sources for the Study of Migration and Ethnicity Francis X. Blouin, Robert Mark Warner, 1979 Government of Canada Publications, Quarterly Catalogue, 1990 Ethnicity and Culture in Canada John W. Berry, J. A. Laponce, 1994 Ethnicity write J W Berry and J A Laponce in their introduction to this volume is likely to be to the twenty first century what class was to the twentieth that is a major source of tension and political conflict However ethnicity is also increasingly likely to be a source of inspiration and diversification within society Because of the rapidly developing importance of ethnicity and culture in Canada the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council and the Ministry of Multiculturalism and Citizenship undertook in 1991 a project to review research on the subject This volume in nineteen chapters is the record of the findings Papers cover such topics as demography political philosophy history anthropology sociology media studies literature language learning education and ethnic and multicultural attitudes Looking back to the Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism mandated in 1963 the editors point out that the terminology has changed radically and that the evolution from biculturalism to multiculturalism has clarified not only the political agenda but the research agenda as well An insistent theme recurs throughout this volume multiculturalism is taken increasingly as being a characteristic of Canadian society as a whole rather than a concept focused exclusively on new Canadians While the Canadian population has always been ethnically diverse only recently has the diversity been systematically analysed Ethnic and multicultural studies are remarkably well developed in Canada the editors conclude However they point out one shortcoming more apparent in some fields than others we often know quite well how the dominant group views a minority

but we often lack knowledge of the reverse attitudes and opinions Berry and Laponce recommend that we replace one way mirrors with windows preferably open windows BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Canadian Library Journal ,1990 The Impact of Digital Technology on Contemporary and Historic Newspapers Hartmut Walravens,2009-02-02 The papers brought together in this highly actual book are grouped around three themes Not only the physical and digital preservation of newspapers are treated but also the service and access models that are currently under development examples are provided with a focus on Southeast Asia Moreover the dynamism of online newspapers is discussed This volume contains cutting edge information which is indispensable for the modern newspaper librarian Also researchers educators and journalists may benefit from the introduction to current aspects of the important medium Catalogues, Guides and Inventories to the Archives of Alberta, British Columbia, Northwest Territories and the Yukon Territory David Mattison,Archives Association of British Columbia,1991 Canadian-American Slavic Studies ,1990 A quarterly journal devoted to Russia and East Europe Migration ,1997 Microlog, Canadian Research Index ,1990 An indexing abstracting and document delivery service that covers current Canadian report literature of reference value from government and institutional sources Canadian Slavonic Papers ,1990 The American Archivist ,1994 Includes sections Reviews of books and Abstracts of archive publications Western and Eastern Europe
