Archetypal Process Self Divine In:

The Archetypal Process David Griffin, 1989 Archetypal Process is a pioneering study linking the ideas of process philosophy as developed by Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne with the archetypal psychology of C G Jung and James Hillman This is the first work to examine the interconnections of these two modes of thought Archetypal Process examines the importance of cosmological thinking and the need to ground archetypal psychology in a metaphysical philosophical framework It treats the necessity for symbol and myth the nature of the spirit and language as a metaphorical vehicle of thought and finally it adds a much needed feminist perspective to the debate

A Process Spirituality Sheri D. Kling, 2020-07-08 American culture is in a state of critical fragmentation The author argues that we will solve neither the ecological crisis nor our social estrangement from each until we transform our perception of life as embodied and interconnected and rediscover what is sacred through transformative lived experiences of wholeness Using an embodied theological framework supported by comparative hermeneutical and constructive methodologies A Process Spirituality synthesizes theoretical empirical and practical resources to construct a hopeful and holistic understanding of God the world and the self Interweaving Alfred North Whitehead's vision of a relational cosmos with Carl Gustav Jung's integrated relational psyche and a powerful spiritual praxis of dream work creates a generative matrix through which to perceive a God world reality characterized by value relationality and transformation in which individuals matter belong and can experience positive change Such a Christian and transreligious vision of hope offers individuals the possibility and capacity to move from a state of fragmentation to one of psycho spiritual wholeness and flourishing

Faithful to the Earth J. Thomas Howe, 2003 Faithful to the Earth winner of the Bross Prize for Christian Scholarship that is awarded only once every 10 years goes way beyond contrasting the theist with the atheist J Thomas Howe argues that Alfred North Whitehead's understanding of God lays the foundation for a religious life strikingly similar to that described in Friedrich Nietzsche's tragic but affirmative philosophy

Laws of Inheritance Elizabeth Brodersen, 2015-08-14 Instilled in interdisciplinary cross cultural perspectives of mythical socio-economic literary pedagogic and psychoanalytic representations two archetypal creative inheritance laws interact as twins Eros fusion containment safety and Thanatos division separation risk Hypothesising these twin laws as matrilineal Eros and patrilineal Thanatos this book explores why cross cultural forms including gender traits are not fixed but are instead influenced by earlier flexible matrilineal forms Through a study of twins on macro and micro levels Elizabeth Brodersen argues that a psychological twin dilemma is implicit in inheritance laws and offers a unique forum to show how each law competes for primacy as the first and other Chapters begin by looking at twins in creation myths and the historical background to the laws of inheritance as well as literary representations The book then moves on to the developmental structures imbued in twin research and educational systems to explore how past cultural forms have been re-defined to fit a modern landscape and the subsequent movement away from the importance of patrilineal primogeniture Laws of Inheritance will be of key value to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of psychoanalysis psychotherapy archetypal theory cross cultural depth psychology cultural anthropology sociology gender studies and twin research The book will also be of interest to practicing psychoanalysts and psychotherapists

Underworlds: Philosophies of the Unconscious from Psychoanalysis to Metaphysics Jon Mills, 2014-03-21 The first book of its kind to provide a detailed analysis of the history of the unconscious from the underworlds of Greek and Egyptian mythology to psychoanalysis and metaphysics Jon Mills presents here a unique study of differing philosophies of the unconscious Mills examines how three major philosophical systems on the nature of the unconscious emerge after modern philosophy finding their most celebrated elaborations in Freud Lacan and Jung These three psychoanalytic traditions quite separate from one another in terms of their emphasis and philosophical presuppositions are scrutinised alongside contemporaneous movements in existential phenomenology semiotics epistemology transcendental psychology and Western metaphysics in the texts of Hegel Heidegger Sartre and Whitehead Underworlds provides a scholarly exegesis and critique of the main philosophies of the unconscious to have transpired in the history of ideas Exploring the unconscious from its philosophical beginnings in antiquity to its systematic articulation brought about by the rise of psychoanalysis Underworlds is ideal for practicing psychoanalysts academics of Freud Jung and Lacan and scholars of psychology philosophy and the humanities Whitehead's Radically Different Postmodern Philosophy David Ray Griffin, 2012-02-01 Postmodern philosophy is often dismissed as unintelligible self contradictory and as a passing fad with no contribution to make to the problems faced by philosophers in our time While this characterization may be true of the type of philosophy labeled postmodern in the 1980s and 1990s David Ray Griffin argues that Alfred North Whitehead had formulated a radically different type of postmodern philosophy to which these criticisms do not apply Griffin shows the power of Whitehead's philosophy in dealing with a range of contemporary issues the mind body relation ecological ethics truth as correspondence the relation of time in physics to the irreversible time of our lives and the reality of moral norms He also defends a distinctive dimension of Whitehead's postmodernism his theism against various criticisms including the charge that it is incompatible with relativity theory Postmodern Theologies Terrence W. Tilley, John Christopher Edwards, Tami England, H. Frederick Felice, Stuart Kendall, 2005-06-30 An introduction and evaluation of contemporary approaches to theology Postmodern Theologies sets out to discern movements shaping the postmodern study of religion in a unique collaborative venture born of a postgraduate seminar at Florida State University While some might say that theology after the death of God is like biology after the end of life a discipline without a subject Postmodern Theologies identifies four general patterns of postmodernisms in theology today constructive theologies with Helmut Peukert David Ray Griffin and David Tracy cited as examples postmodernisms of dissolution Thomas J J Altizer Mark C Taylor and Edith Wyschogrod postliberal theologies George Lindbeck and communal praxis exemplified by Gustavo Gutierrez and other Latin American theologians and James Wm McClendon and Sharon Welch among North Americans These theologies eschew debates on traditional religious foundations to define true religion as the result of rather than the impetus to living one's beliefs As these disparate approaches to theology are not directly comparable the final chapter of Postmodern Theologies instead analyzes how each one accounts for the plurality of religions Exploring the postmodern strategies for coping with one of the most difficult questions in any theological age offers a fascinating way to assess their inherent strengths and weaknesses Jung on Synchronicity and Yijing Young Woon Ko, 2011-01-18 Jung's understanding of Yijing for supporting the synchronistic principle reveals the key issues of his archetypal theory Jung's archetypal theory which is the basic motif of his understanding of Yijing illuminates the religious significance of Yijing Jung defines the human experience of the divine as an archetypal process by way of which the unconscious conveys the human religious experience In this way the divine and the unconscious mind are inseparable from each other For the human experience of the divine Jung's archetypal theory developed in a theistic tradition is encountered with the religious character of the non theistic tradition of Yijing From Jung's partial adaptation of Yijing however we notice the differences between Jung's archetypal psychology and the Yijing cosmological view This difference represents the difference between the Western and the East Asian tradition This aspect is well shown in the fact that Jung's theoretical assumption for the definition of archetype is deeply associated with Plato's Idea and the Kantian a priori category Accordingly Jung brings their timeless spaceless realm of archetype into the synchronistic phenomenon of the psyche and identifies the Yijing text with the readable archetype Yet the synchronistic moment that Jung presents is the phenomenon always involved in subjective experience and intuition which are developed in the duration of time The synchronistic phenomenon is not transcendent or the objective flowing of time in itself regardless of our subjective experience

Metaphor and Imaginal Psychology Marc Slavin, 2017-08-04 Metaphor and Imaginal Psychology A Hermetic Reflection provides the first full length exploration of the significance of metaphor in post Jungian psychology Its portrayal of the mythological figure of Hermes as a personification of metaphor marks an original contribution to the field of metaphor studies After a 2 500 year exile from philosophy and related areas of study beginning with Plato's ejection of the poets from the ideal city state metaphor is today experiencing a season of renewal Among the fields where its significance as a way of seeing thinking and feeling has been especially prominent is archetypal psychology perhaps the most philosophically attuned of psychological disciplines Approaching the work of James Hillman and other key archetypal psychologists from a poststructuralist perspective Metaphor and Imaginal Psychology draws insightful comparisons between archetypal psychology and the deconstructive philosophy of Jacques Derrida a principle theorist of metaphor's philosophical resurgence By linking two disciplines that might at first appear as strange bedfellows Metaphor and Imaginal Psychology underscores the influence of metaphor in reason and emotion and makes a compelling case for the Mercurial ethos of our postmodern world Aside from representing essential reading for therapists and theorists working in post Jungian studies the book will appeal to readers students and scholars of literary criticism psychology philosophy and mythology

Shadowing the Anthropocene: Eco-Realism for Turbulent Times Adrian Ivakhiv, 2018 A spectre is haunting humanity the spectre of a reality that will outwit and in the end bury us The Anthropocene or The Human Era is an attempt to name our geological fate that we will one day disappear into the layer cake of Earth's geology while highlighting humanity in the starring role of today's Earthly drama In Shadowing the Anthropocene Adrian Ivakhiv proposes an ecological realism that takes as its starting point humanity's eventual demise The only question for a realist today he suggests is what to do now and what quality of compost to leave behind with our burial The book engages with the challenges of the Anthropocene and with a series of philosophical efforts to address them including those of Slavoj Žižek and Charles Taylor Graham Harman and Timothy Morton Isabelle

Stengers and Bruno Latour and William Connolly and Jane Bennett Along the way there are volcanic eruptions and revolutions ant cities and dog parks data clouds and space junk pagan gods and sacrificial altars dark flow souls of things and jazz Ivakhiv draws from centuries old process relational thinking that hearkens back to Daoist and Buddhist sages but gains incisive re invigoration in the philosophies of Charles Sanders Peirce and Alfred North Whitehead He translates those insights into practices of engaged Anthropocenic bodymindfulness aesthetic ethical and ecological practices for living in the shadow of the Anthropocene *Exploring the Work of Edward S. Roger Brooke, 2003-09-02 In Pathways into the Jungian World contributors from the disciplines of medicine psychology and philosophy look at the central issues of commonality and difference between phenomenology and analytical psychology The major theme of the book is how existential phenomenology and analytical psychology have been involved in the same fundamental cultural and therapeutic project both legitimize the subtlety complexity and depth of experience in an age when the meaning of experience has been abandoned to the dictates of pharmaceutical technology economics and medical psychiatry The contributors reveal how Jung s relationship to the phenomenological tradition can be and is being developed and rigorously show that the psychological resonance of the world is immediately available for phenomenological description

The Roar of Awakening George Derfer, Zhihe Wang, Michel Weber, 2013-05-02 The primary goal of this volume is to describe the contemporary state of affairs in Western psychotherapy and to do so in a Whiteheadian spirit with genuine openness to the relative ways in which creativity beauty truth and peace manifest themselves in various cultural traditions This Whiteheadian Dialogue explores afresh an important cross elucidatory path what have we and what can be learned from a dialogue with Eastern worldviews In order to generate meaningful contrasts between these different systems of thought all the papers address common core issues On one hand how does the given system understand the interaction of the individual society and nature or cosmos On the other hand what is the paradigm of all pathology and what is its typical or curative pattern
