Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, 1965 National Register Bulletin , 1994 From Where We Stand Deborah Tall, 2016-05-05 Why does a particular landscape move us What is it that attaches us to a particular place Tall s From Where We Stand is an eloquent exploration of the connections we have with places and the loss to us if there are no such connections A typically rootless child of several American suburbs Tall set out to make a true home for herself in the landscape that circumstance had brought her the Finger Lakes region of upstate New York In a mosaic of personal anecdotes historical sketches and lyrical meditations she interweaves her own story with the story of this place and its people from the Seneca Nation of the Iroquois to European settlers to the many utopians who sensed and were inspired by a spiritual resonance here This edition includes an introduction by William Kittredge and a foreword by Stephen Kuusisto both highlighting the book s significance and Tall s exquisite skill in tracing the relationship between homelands and storytelling

National Arts and Humanities Foundations United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare. Special Subcommittee on Arts and Humanities, 1965 Houses from Books Daniel D. Reiff, 2010-11-01 Many homes across America have designs based on plans taken from pattern books or mail order catalogs In Houses from Books Daniel D Reiff traces the history of published plans and offers the first comprehensive survey of their influence on the structure and the style of American houses from 1738 to 1950 Houses from Books shows that architectural publications from Palladio s I Quattro Libri to Aladdin s Ready Cut Homes played a decisive role in every aspect of American domestic building Reiff discusses the people and the firms who produced the books as well as the ways in which builders and architects adapted the designs in communities throughout the country His book also offers a wide ranging analysis of the economic and social conditions shaping American building practices As architectural publication developed and grew more sophisticated it played an increasingly prominent part in the design and the construction of domestic buildings In villages and small towns which often did not have professional architects the publications became basic resources for carpenters and builders at all levels of expertise Through the use of published designs they were able to choose among a variety of plans styles and individual motifs and engage in a fruitful dialogue with past and present architects Houses from Books reconstructs this dialogue by examining the links between the published designs and the houses themselves Reiff s book will be indispensable to architectural historians architects preservationists and regional historians Realtors and homeowners will also find it of great interest A catalog at the end of the book can function as a guide for those attempting to locate a model and a date for a particular design Houses from Books contains a wealth of photographs many by the author that enhance its importance as a history and guide Architectural Surveys James C. Massey,1965 Hearings United States. Congress Senate,1965

Nineteenth-Century Houses in Western New York Jewel H. Conover,1966-06-01 The author confesses that she became interested in doing this pictorial study just because she likes nineteenth century architecture And for this very reason she has composed a scholarly appreciation rather than a cumbersome technical analysis that all can read with enjoyment whatever one s acquaintance with the formal study of architecture In the introductory chapters she recounts the history of the region and the economic and social background of its people as well as the relevant architectural history This book helps one appreciate why after years of neglect and abuse nineteenth century architecture has finally been recognized as integral and valuable to the American cultural heritage Here is a collection of photographs which capture the charm and often stately demeanor typical of private nineteenth century dwellings in the northeastern United States National Arts and
