Bernardo Bertolucci's Last Tango in Paris Bernardo Bertolucci, Franco Arcalli, 1989-09-01 Last Tango in Paris Bernardo Bertolucci, Franco Arcalli, 1976 The Celluloid Atlantic Saverio Giovacchini, 2025-02-01 Offers a fresh look at American and Italian cinema in the postwar period The Celluloid Atlantic changes the way we look at American and Italian cinema in the postwar period In the thirty years following World War II American and Italian film industries came to be an integrated transnational unit rather than two separate nation based entities Written in jargon free prose and based on previously unexplored archival sources this book revisits the history of Neorealism World War II combat cinema the Western all Italiana and the career of John Kitzmiller the African American star who made Italy his home and was the first person of color to win the Best Actor Award at the Cannes Film Festival The Celluloid Atlantic makes the trailblazing argument that culturally hybrid genres like the so called spaghetti Western were less the exceptions than the norm Giovacchini argues that the waning of the Celluloid Atlantic in the early 1970s was due to the economic policies of the first Nixon administration specifically its important but largely neglected Revenue Act of 1971 as well as to the ideological debates between Europeans and Americans that intensified during the American intervention in Vietnam Screenwriting Andrew Horton, Julian Hoxter, 2014-08-23 Screenwriters often joke that no one ever paid a dollar at a movie theater to watch a screenplay Yet the screenplay is where a movie begins determining whether a production gets the green light from its financial backers and wins approval from its audience This innovative volume gives readers a comprehensive portrait of the art and business of screenwriting while showing how the role of the screenwriter has evolved over the years Reaching back to the early days of Hollywood when moonlighting novelists playwrights and journalists were first hired to write scenarios and photoplays Screenwriting illuminates the profound ways that screenwriters have contributed to the films we love This book explores the social political and economic implications of the changing craft of American screenwriting from the silent screen through the classical Hollywood years the rise of independent cinema and on to the contemporary global multi media marketplace From The Birth of a Nation 1915 Gone With the Wind 1939 and Gentleman s Agreement 1947 to Chinatown 1974 American Beauty 1999 and Lost in Translation 2003 each project began as writers with pen and ink typewriters or computers captured the hopes and dreams the nightmares and concerns of the periods in which they were writing As the contributors take us behind the silver screen to chronicle the history of screenwriting they spotlight a range of key screenplays that changed the game in Hollywood and beyond With original essays from both distinguished film scholars and accomplished screenwriters Screenwriting is sure to fascinate anyone with an interest in Hollywood from movie buffs to industry professionals Last Tango in Paris David Thompson, 1998 No Marketing Blurbs Focus On: 100 Most Popular French-language Films Wikipedia contributors, Bernardo Bertolucci Bernardo Bertolucci, 2000 Forty years of collected interviews with the influential filmmaker of The Last Emperor Last Tango in Paris and Little Buddha Censorship Derek Jones, 2001-12-01
