

ADVERTISING STRATEGIES

Celebrity Endorsements

Consider the admirable qualities of a particular celebrity and encourage the audience to transfer their admiration for the particular actor, musician or sports star to the product.

Funny

Make the audience laugh so that when they remember the ad they associate positive feelings with the product.

Individuality

Encourage the audience to celebrate their own style or rebel against what others are doing. This strategy is useful when you want to persuade the audience that the product is cool, stylish or unique.

Band Wagon

Pick words that persuade the audience to buy the product because everybody else does. The audience might buy the product because they want to fit in.

Comparison

Compare your product to an inferior option.

Emotions

Use words that make the audience feel certain emotions, such as excitement, sadness or fear.

Glitter

Use words that have a positive meaning for the audience, they may associate the words with the product.
