Aelfrician Homilies and Varia Aelfric (Abbot of Eynsham), 2022 First modern edition and translation of the homilies of one of the most important religious figures of his time. Aelfric of Eynsham stands supreme as a distinguished homilist, translator, and moralist, one whose writings were sought by the most powerful churchmen and landed warlords of his day. In his sermons, the dead are raised to life, innocents are betrayed, civilizations come to ruin, prophecies are finally fulfilled, and sorrow is swallowed up in salvation. He offers guidance regarding sex, financial counsel, botanical excursions, etymological asides, lions cowed by roosters, arch heretics disemboweled, and seemingly inconsequential figures receiving everlasting crowns. He also considers the origin of Antichrist, recounts supernatural visions of damnation and deliverance, teases out the tension between predestination and free will, explores the multifarious nature of the soul, seeks to categorize creation, and presses the boundaries of conceptual capacity in describing the divine nature. Treatises take up such subjects as the Holy Spirit, cognition, penitence, and proper comportment. Private prayers appear alongside public declarations of the Christian faith found in the Paternoster and the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds. The thirty-one texts presented here, with facing translations, span the course of his career. Old English and Latin, ordinary and alliterative prose, pithy prayers and exhaustive exegesis. Nine appear in print for the first time; others for the first time in well over 100 years. Introductions to the texts offer overviews of the content, composition, and circulation of each work, using the fruits of the latest research to envision real-world contexts for their use in specific places among particular groups and by certain individuals. Meanwhile, the commentary traces Aelfric's role in the history of ideas, examining his relationship to over 100 sources, 200 other Aelfrician works, and over 1,000 biblical passages. It seeks to clarify Aelfric's compositional aims and further to establish the authorship and date of these remarkable writings from early England.

Inhabited Spaces Nicole Guenther Disenza, 2017-01-18 We tend to think of early medieval people as unsophisticated about geography because their understandings of space and place often differed from ours yet theirs were no less complex Anglo Saxons conceived of themselves as living at the centre of a cosmos that combined order and plenitude two principles in a constant state of tension In Inhabited Spaces Nicole Guenther Disenza examines a variety of Anglo Latin and Old English texts to shed light on Anglo Saxon understandings of space Anglo Saxon models of the universe featured a spherical earth at the centre of a spherical universe ordered by God They sought to shape the universe into knowable places from where the earth stood in the cosmos to the kingdoms of different peoples and to the intimacy of the hall Disenza argues that Anglo Saxon works both construct orderly place and illuminate the limits of human spatial control
