Mulvihill, Raji Swaminathan, 2019-11-04 Awarded QRSIG s Honorable Mention for 2021 2020 AESA Critics Choice Book Award Winner Arts Based Educational Research and Qualitative Inquiry introduces novice qualitative researchers within education and related fields to arts based educational research ABER Abundant prompts and exercises are provided to help readers apply the concepts and experiment with various applications of the ideas presented The authors walk the path with novice researchers offering a variety of approaches to the practice of arts based methods while providing a guided overview of ABER and include pedagogical features in each chapter Exercises are designed to assist educational researchers who wish to expand their repertoire of methodologies The authors also weave into the discussion the possibilities and limitations of many types of arts based methods while introducing readers to the growing methodological literature By offering a tapestry of ways to engage the novice researcher the book illustrates that it is not always possible to separate cognitive findings from aesthetic knowing This book will help qualitative researchers to expand their methodologies to include arts based approaches to their projects and by doing so reshape their identities as qualitative researchers It also offers some evaluative criteria and tool kits for experimenting with various arts and educational research

The Realistic Spirit Cora Diamond, 1995-03-02 The realistic spirit a nonmetaphysical approach to philosophical thought concerned with the character of philosophy itself informs all of the discussions in these essays by philosopher Cora Diamond Diamond explains Wittgenstein s notoriously elusive later writings explores the background to his thought in the work of Frege and discusses ethics in a way that reflects his influence Diamond s new reading of Wittgenstein challenges currently accepted interpretations and shows what it means to look without mythology at the coherence commitments and connections that are distinctive of the mind Representation and Mind series Wisconsin Reading Circles , 1928 Walt Disney, from Reader to Storyteller Kathy Merlock Jackson, Mark I. West, 2014-12-03 Walt Disney best known as a filmmaker had perhaps a greater skill as a reader While many would have regarded Felix Salten s Bambi and Carlo Collodi s Pinocchio as too somber for family oriented films he saw their possibilities He appealed to his audience by selecting but then transforming familiar stories Many of the tales he chose to adapt to film became some of the most read books in America Although much published research has addressed his adaptation process often criticizing his films for being too saccharine or not true to their literary sources little has been written on him as a reader what he read what he liked his reading experiences and the books that influenced him This collection of 15 fresh essays and one classic addresses Disney as a reader and shows how his responses to literature fueled his success Essays discuss the books he read the ones he adapted to film and the ways in which he demonstrated his narrative ability Exploring his literary connections to films nature documentaries theme park creations and overall creative vision the contributors provide insight into Walt Disney s relationships with authors his animation staff and his audience

Reading the Odyssey Seth L. Schein, 2020-06-16 This wide ranging collection makes available to specialists and nonspecialists alike important critical work on the Odyssey produced during the last half century The ten essays address five major concerns the poem s programmatic representation of social and religious institutions and values its transformation of folktales and traditional stories into epic adventures its representation of gender roles and in particular of Penelope its narrative strategies and form and its relation to the Iliad especially to that epic s distinctive conception of heroism In the introduction Seth L Schein describes the poetic background to the work and suggests a variety of interpretive approaches some of which are developed in the essays that follow These essays include previously published work by Jean Pierre Vernant Pierre Vidal Naquet Pietro Pucci and Charles P Segal There also are a new essay by Laura M Slatkin two revised and expanded ones by Nancy Felson Rubin and Michael N Nagler and three appearing in English for the first time by Uvo Hlscher Karl Reinhardt and Vernant The result is a collection that juxtaposes older often hard to find articles with significant newer pieces in a way that allows for a fruitful dialogue among them
