Mechili, 2025-05-14 The recent unprecedented societal challenges along with the COVID 19 pandemic have opened the door to a new era for mental health at work Today more than ever provides an opportunity to highlight the mental health challenges that employees are facing due to their working conditions and occupational environments Around the globe it is well documented that promoting and establishing mentally healthy workplaces is a focal point However according to the literature individuals of diverse identities and backgrounds e g racial or ethnic minorities LGBTQ community migrants refugees the Roma community religiously diverse individuals people of lower economic social status pregnant women etc are presenting an increased risk of discrimination and stigma leading to major adverse effects on their mental health Where mental health conditions can begin and worsen in the workplace due to occupational conditions and behaviors the impact of this continues outside of the workplace and can severely impact an individual s overall quality of life This Research Topic aims to offer a holistic insight into the current state of mental health conditions disorders among employees of diverse or minority groups before during and post the COVID 19 pandemic This collection not only aims to capture the extent of the mental health impact and report on common work related mental health disorders e g depression stress distress anxiety burnout low well being poor quality of life etc amongst these populations but to open the discussion towards addressing and tackling the inequalities and stigma associated with protected characteristics in workplace environments and to propose preventive measures interventions to enhance workplace resilience and ensure that mental health is upheld for all both in and outside of the workplace In addition mapping out the current issues and needs by providing data and policy measures is crucial in meeting the United Nations 3 4 Universal Health Coverage goal regarding promoting populations mental health and well being 2030 Mauro F. Guillén, 2025-09-23 AN INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER Wall Street Journal Bestseller A Porchlight Book Bestseller Financial Times Best Books of 2020 Yahoo Finance Favorite Business Books of 2020 JP Morgan NextList 2021 selection Bold provocative illuminates why we re having fewer babies the middle class is stagnating unemployment is shifting and new powers are rising ADAM GRANT The world is changing drastically before our eyes will you be prepared for what comes next A groundbreaking analysis from one of the world s foremost experts on global trends including analysis on how COVID 19 will amplify and accelerate each of these changes Once upon a time the world was neatly divided into prosperous and backward economies Babies were plentiful workers outnumbered retirees and people aspiring towards the middle class yearned to own homes and cars Companies didn

t need to see any further than Europe and the United States to do well Printed money was legal tender for all debts public and private We grew up learning how to play the game and we expected the rules to remain the same as we took our first job started a family saw our children grow up and went into retirement with our finances secure That world and those rules are over By 2030 a new reality will take hold and before you know it There will be more grandparents than grandchildren The middle class in Asia and Sub Saharan Africa will outnumber the US and Europe combined The global economy will be driven by the non Western consumer for the first time in modern history There will be more global wealth owned by women than men There will be more robots than workers There will be more computers than human brains There will be more currencies than countries All these trends currently underway will converge in the year 2030 and change everything you know about culture the economy and the world According to Mauro F Guillen the only way to truly understand the global transformations underway and their impacts is to think laterally That is using peripheral vision or approaching problems creatively and from unorthodox points of view Rather than focusing on a single trend climate change or the rise of illiberal regimes for example Guillen encourages us to consider the dynamic inter play between a range of forces that will converge on a single tipping point 2030 that will be for better or worse the point of no return 2030 is both a remarkable guide to the coming changes and an exercise in the power of lateral thinking thereby revolutionizing the way you think about cataclysmic change and its consequences
