Hanciles, 2019-03-07 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations Volume IV examines the globalization of dissenting traditions in the twentieth century During this period

Protestant Dissent achieved not only its widest geographical reach but also the greatest genealogical distance from its point of origin Covering Africa Asia the Middle East America Europe Latin America and the Pacific this collection provides detailed examination of Protestant Dissent as a globalizing movement Contributors probe the radical shifts and complex reconstruction that took place as dissenting traditions encountered diverse cultures and took root in a multitude of contexts many of which were experiencing major historical change at the same time This authoritative overview unambiguously reveals that Dissent was transformed as it travelled

Historical Bibliography as an Essential Source for Historiography Bernadette Cunningham,Václava Horčáková,Kristina Rexová,2015-10-05 This volume brings together papers presented at the Fifth International Conference of the European Historical Bibliographies Project held in Prague on November 7 8 2013 under the auspices of the Department of Historical Bibliography of the Institute of History of the Academy of Science of the Czech Republic The conference attracted bibliographers historians and librarians from Denmark France Ireland Lithuania Germany Switzerland and from a number of Czech institutions and libraries who gathered to discuss a wide range of topics The main theme of the conference was the significance of historical bibliography for historical science Given the diversity of professional focus among the conference participants this topic was approached and examined from a variety of viewpoints The most important outcomes of these meetings were firstly explaining the way individual participating organisations dealt with historical bibliography and secondly providing a comparison of different methodological and technological approaches for processing specialized bibliographies in various European countries This book introduces the wider public to the current shape and prospects of historical bibliography projects across a range of European countries Obviously such projects must reflect the needs of their users which mainly comprise historians and librarians The ongoing development of historical bibliography does not only involve a technical challenge but also a methodological one as well as a societal one when interpreted in a broader context Mutual communication helps form the future direction of historical bibliography which will undoubtedly face many new tasks and challenges they are available Extensive cross referencing and a detailed index that includes authors subjects and titles enhance the book
