Her Journey Darlene E. Jones, 2001 Her Journey is a book about a phenomenon in the workforce that has caught the attention of many women in North America entrepreneurship For as many reasons as there are women who are becoming entrepreneurs this practice currently enjoys a great deal of popularity You may already be one of the many contributors to this way of doing business Perhaps you are considering joining the ranks of the entrepreneur Or maybe you are just curious about the reasons women seem drawn towards this idea of heading up their own businesses You will meet four women entrepreneurs Although their names have been changed these are real women with real lives and real experiences While each of their stories is different similar patterns weave in and out of each of their tales as owner operator of their own businesses The warp and woof of their entrepreneurial lives creates an existence for each of them that can best be described as a metaphorical journey The use of the journey metaphor was a natural result of listening to these women recounting anecdotes about their lives as female entrepreneurs For centuries we have used metaphors to tell stories to create visual explanations In Her Journey the metaphor of a journey describes entrepreneurship in terms of the patterns observed at the outset of the entrepreneurial journey en route and at the probable termination of the journey Taking the Journey Kelvin Cruickshank, 2015-03-25 Kelvin Cruickshank s most uplifting book yet looks at how connecting with spirit can help you in your everyday life Nothing hurts quite like the pain of losing someone you love But what if I told you it s possible to visit this incredible place called heaven and hang out with those you ve lost Heaven or the afterlife is right here at the end of our fingertips It s all around us and that s where our loved ones are all around us Smile laugh and cry with Kelvin Cruickshank celebrity psychic medium and author of bestsellers Walking in Light Bridging the Gap Finding the Path and Inside the Medium as he sheds light on what he has learned from spirit about the journey each and every one of us is on Life and death what s it all about Why do bad things happen to good people What happens when someone has a near death experience What are the important lessons we re here to learn Kelvin answers these questions and more as he shows that connecting with

Lesley,2002-08-06 I have searched for the truth of our very existence to find it quite simple I have studied many religions including Darwin s theory Through the years I have read and studied many thoughts and beliefs of others I have found my own thoughts true for me that help me find the world more reasonable in a spiritual way of existence I believe that God does reside in our heart and gives us many guides and Angels to help us along the way A simple request of them and God is all that is needed I reveal ways that you will find quite simple to believe in and that will not ruin your faith in God but enhance it I offer you an alternative way of living happily within yourself and knowing the God source resides in you through life death and beyond Let me take you on a journey of my life You will see how my God source has shown me the way of living a fruitful life of love I invite you to share my thoughts of love and come away with a better understanding of our Universe I impart my love to you Computational Science and Its Applications - ICCSA 2020 Osvaldo Gervasi,Beniamino Murgante,Sanjay

Merriweather, 2022-01-01 Trauma in Adult and Higher Education Conversations and Critical Reflections invites readers to think deeply about the experiences of trauma they witness in and outside of the classroom because trauma alters adult learners experience by disrupting identity and interfering with memory relationships and creativity Through essays narratives and cultural critiques the reader is invited to rethink education as more than upskilling and content mastery education is a space where dialogue has the potential to unlock an individual's sense of power and self mastery that enables them to make sense of violence tragedy and trauma Trauma in Adult and Higher Education Conversations and Critical Reflections reveals the lived experiences of educators struggling to integrate those who have experienced trauma into their classrooms whether this is in prison a yoga class or higher education As discourses and programming to support diversity intensifies it is central that educators acknowledge and respond to the realities of the students before them Advocates of trauma-sensitive curriculum acknowledge that trauma shows up as a result of the disproportionate amount of violence and persistent insecurity that specific groups face Race gender sexual orientation ability and immigration are all factors that expose individuals to higher levels of potential trauma Trauma has changed the conversations about what education is and how it should happen These conversations are resulting in new approaches to teaching and learning that address the lived experiences of pain and trauma that our adult learners bring into the classroom and the workforce This collection includes a discussion of salient implications and practices for adult and higher education administrators and faculty who desire to create an environment that includes individuals who have experienced trauma and perhaps prevents the cycle of violence

Where the Mountain Casts Its Shadow Maria Coffey, 2005-04 Maria Coffey's Where the Mountain Casts Its Shadow is a powerful affecting and important book that exposes the far reaching personal costs of extreme adventure Without risk say mountaineers there would be none of the self knowledge that comes from pushing life to its extremes For them perhaps it is worth the cost But when tragedy strikes what happens to the people left behind Why would anyone choose to invest in a future with a high altitude risk taker What is life like in the shadow of the mountain Such questions have long been taboo in the world of mountaineering Now the spouses parents and children of internationally renowned climbers finally break their silence speaking out about the dark side of adventure Maria Coffey confronted one of the harshest realities of mountaineering when her partner Joe Tasker disappeared on the Northeast Ridge of Everest in 1982 In Where the Mountain Casts Its Shadow Coffey offers an intimate portrait of adventure and the conflicting beauty passion and devastation of this

Church in an Age of Global Migration Susanna

Snyder, Agnes M. Brazal, Joshua Ralston, 2016-04-29 Migration has become a defining feature of the contemporary age. It has brought about significant changes in political, economic, social, and religious landscapes. This volume explores a question that has been little considered to date: how are churches being transformed in the face of global migration? The book features contributors from diverse national, denominational, cultural, professional, and linguistic backgrounds. Their essays reveal the ways in which migrants and the phenomenon of migration expose longstanding gaps and failings within Christian communities. However, the prevalence of migration and migrants simultaneously opens up fresh possibilities for churches to grow, renew, become more authentic, dynamic, and diverse. Church in an Age of Global Migration presents a collage of embodied ecclesial practices, understandings, and realities that have emerged and are continuing to develop in the face of global migration. Committed to transnational and ecumenical dialogue and to integrating practical and theoretical perspectives, this volume is the first to offer an in-depth analysis of the ways in which churches are being changed by migrants.
