The Book of Football Quotations Phil Shaw, 2011-04-30 The greatest football quotations collection ever now in its ninth edition This compilation includes quotes from everyone Shakespeare to Suarez Camus to Cantona Busby to Beckham who has made an apt pithy or comical comment about football And not just footballers and managers either fans pundits groundsmen directors and wives all get to have their say too Every subject is covered from tactical debates to changing lifestyles to produce a sometimes hilarious and always thought provoking commentary on the game My players are always the best players in the world even if they aren't Jos Mourinho He was a quiet man Eric Cantona but he was a man of few words David Beckham Sometimes when you aim for the stars you hit the moon Ian Holloway

Jurisdiction in Deleuze: The Expression and Representation of Law Edward Mussawir, 2011-03-03 Jurisdiction in Deleuze The Expression and Representation of Law explores an affinity between the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze and jurisprudence as a tradition of technical legal thought The author addresses and reopens a central aesthetic problem in jurisprudence the difference between the expression and the representation of law Deleuze is taken as offering not just an important methodological recovery of an expressionism in philosophy specifically through Nietzsche and Spinoza but also a surprisingly practical jurisprudence which recasts the major technical terms of jurisdiction persons things and actions in terms of their distinctively expressive or performative modalities In paying attention to law's expression Deleuze is thus shown to offer an account of how meaning may attach to the instrument and medium of law and how legal desire may be registered within the texture and technology of jurisdiction Contributing both to a renewed transposition of Deleuze into contemporary legal theory as well as to an emerging interest in law's technology institution and instrumentality in critical legal studies Jurisdiction in Deleuze will be of considerable interest
