Aliens R Us:

Aliens George Edgar Slusser, 1987 How and when does there come to be an anthropology of the alien This set of essays written for the eighth J Lloyd Eaton Conference on Fantasy and Science Fiction is concerned with the significance of that question Anthropology is the science that must designate the alien if it is to redefine a place for itself in the universe according to the Introduction The idea of the alien is not new In the Renaissance Montaigne's purpose in describing an alien encounter was excorporation man kind was the savage because the artificial devices of nature controlled him Shakespeare's version of the alien encounter was incorporation his character of Caliban is brought to the artificial political world of man and incorporated into the body politic The essays in this volume show in their general orientation that the tribe of Shakespeare still in literary studies at least outnumbers that of Montaigne These essays show the interrelation of the excorporating possibilities to the internal soundings of the alien encounter within the human mind and form This book is divided into three parts Searchings The Quest for the Alien includes The Aliens in Our Mind by Larry Niven Effing the Ineffable by Gregory Benford Border Patrols by Michael Beehler Alien Aliens by Pascal Ducommun and Metamorphoses of the Dragon by George E Slusser Sightings The Aliens among Us includes Discriminating among Friends by John Huntington Sex Superman Sociobiology by Joseph D Miller Cowboys and Telepaths by Eric S Rabkin Robots by Noel Perrin Aliens in the Supermarket by George R Guffey and Aliens R U S by Zoe Sofia Soundings Man as the Alien includes H G Wells Familiar Aliens by John R Reed Inspiration and Possession by Clayton Koelb Cybernauts in Cyberspace by David Porush The Human Alien by Leighton Brett Cooke From Astarte to Barbie by Frank McConnell and An Indication of Monsters by Colin Greenland

Aliens R Us Ziauddin Sardar, Sean Cubitt, 2002-02-20 This book explores the global culture of science fiction cinema and in particular its presentation of contemporary images of the Other Taking as a starting point the popularity of international forms such as Japanese anime and Hong Kong sci fi in addition to the success of films such as The Matrix and television series such as Deep Space Nine the contributors examine the science fiction genre as an international populist form of social analysis In doing so they discuss issues such as Orientalism technology apocalyptic futures xenophobia militarism and the role of women Most contemporary studies look at the generic characteristics of science fiction with its allegorical rendering of contemporary life usually in relation to America Case studies include Independence Day Star Trek First Contact and Until the End of the World in addition to chapters on Eco Apocalypse and new French sci fi and New Manchester Ecstasy sci fi

Alien Constructions Patricia Melzer, 2010-01-01 An incisive critical work that looks at Octavia Butler's writing the movies of the Matrix and Alien series and more through a feminist lens Femspec Feminist thinkers and writers are increasingly recognizing science fiction's potential to shatter patriarchal and heterosexual norms while the creators of science fiction are bringing new depth and complexity to the genre by engaging with feminist theories and politics This book maps the intersection of feminism and science fiction through close readings of science fiction literature by Octavia E Butler Richard

Calder and Melissa Scott and the movies The Matrix and the Alien series Patricia Melzer analyzes how these authors and films represent debates and concepts in three areas of feminist thought identity and difference feminist critiques of science and technology and the relationship among gender identity body and desire including the new gender politics of queer desires transgender and intersexed bodies and identities She demonstrates that key political elements shape these debates including global capitalism and exploitative class relations within a growing international system the impact of computer industrial and medical technologies on women s lives and reproductive rights and posthuman embodiment as expressed through biotechnologies the body machine interface and the commodification of desire Melzer s investigation makes it clear that feminist writings and readings of science fiction are part of a feminist critique of existing power relations and that the alien constructions cyborgs clones androids aliens and hybrids that populate postmodern science fiction are as potentially empowering as they are threatening U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens ,1996 Accommodating Broccoli in the Cemetery

Travels in Time Astrid Erll,2025-05-08 Human beings are time travelers Incessantly we traverse past present and future through a process called collective memory In Travels in Time Astrid Erll addresses the question of how collective memory emerges through motion the movements of people media forms and practices Grounded in literary cultural and media memory studies this collection of essays undertakes forays into various dimensions of collective memory as traveling memory It discusses the ways in which families and generations shape and are shaped by the past how media such as literature film and photography make and remake collective memory or how trauma flashbulb memories and implicit memory are interwoven with culture The essays consider repercussions of recent historical events as well as long term mnemonic processes ranging from Greek antiquity to British colonialism in India and from the First and Second World Wars to migration in Europe 9 11 and the coronavirus pandemic Developing a broad perspective on collective memory this book outlines the horizons of interdisciplinary memory research The American Blockbuster Benjamin Crace,2022-10-18

Providing an indispensable resource for students and general readers this book serves as an entry point for a conversation on America's favorite pastime focusing in on generational differences and the evolution of American identity In an age marked by tension and division Americans of all ages and backgrounds have turned to film to escape the pressures of everyday life Yet beyond escapism popular cinema is both a mirror and microscope for our collective psyche Examining the films that have made billions of dollars through a new lens reveals that popular culture is a vital source for understanding what it means to be an American This book is divided into four sections each associated with a different generation Featuring such era defining hits as Jaws Back to the Future Avatar and The Avengers each section presents detailed film analyses that showcase the consistency of certain American values throughout generations as well as the constant renegotiation of others Ideal for any cinephile The American Blockbuster demonstrates how complex and meaningful even the summer blockbuster can be

Temporary Alien Workers In The United States Sidney Weintraub, Stanley R Ross, 2019-07-11 The most controversial and significant aspect of U S immigration policy concerns those persons who enter the country illegally in order to seek employment It is known that a significant proportion of the temporary immigrants remain authorities estimate that between three and six million undocumented aliens live permanently in the U S a figure that grows by the hundreds of thousands each year but other aspects of the issue are less clear There is no consensus about how the importation of foreign workers affects the U S labor market nor about the desirability of some system to identify temporary workers living legally in the U S Neither is there agreement about the effect of curtailing the flow of workers from Mexico on that country's internal political structure This book brings together current knowledge about temporary workers in the U S and examines the various issues that are likely to shape future policy The authors place particular emphasis on recent proposals made by the Reagan administration and on other recommendations now under consideration by Congress The book is not political in the sense of being for or against any particular program rather it seeks to clarify the many issues by setting forth what is known and by critically analyzing the options

Otherness in Hollywood Cinema Michael Richardson, 2010-06-17 In Otherness in Hollywood Cinema Michael Richardson argues that the Hollywood system has been the only national cinema with the resources and inclination to explore images of others through stories set in exotic and faraway places He traces many of the ways in which Hollywood has constructed otherness and discusses the extent to which those images have persisted and conditioned today's understanding Hollywood was from the beginning teeming with people who had experienced cultural displacement Coaxing the finest talents from around the world and needing to produce films with an almost universal appeal Hollywood confounded American insularity while simultaneously presenting a vision of America to the world The book examines a range of genres from the perspective of otherness including the Western film noir and zombie movies Films discussed include Birth of a Nation The New World The Searchers King Kong Apocalypse Now Blade Runner Jaws and Dead Man Erudite and highly informed this is a sweeping survey of how the American film industry has portrayed the foreign and the exotic
