

Best When Broken

Back arching like a tree branch,
Take me and break me
As if snapping twigs with your hands.

Body brittle like a china doll,
Rip me and chip me
And watch me shine through the cracks.

Skin white like a new pearl,
Save me, engrave me
With your teeth, your fingers.

I want to be broken just so you can put me back together.
Fix me,
Love me,
Claim me as yours.

The Broken World Marcus Cafagña, 1996 The Broken World the powerful debut of a poet of great depth and maturity begins with narratives of individuals caught up in circumstance a distressed girl on a Detroit overpass a boy shooting baskets at a crisis center By the end of the slim volume Marcus Cafagna had led us through the postwar New York of Jewish Holocaust survivors to his native Michigan where his marriage ended tragically with his wife's suicide a death that has come to symbolize for Cafagna the confusion and madness of the twentieth century

Hart Crane's Poetry John T. Irwin, 2011-11-17 In one of his letters Hart Crane wrote Appollinaire lived in Paris I live in Cleveland Ohio comparing misspelling and all the great French poet's cosmopolitan roots to his own more modest ones in the midwestern United States Rebellious against the notion that his work should relate to some European school of thought Crane defiantly asserted his freedom to be himself a true American writer John T Irwin long a passionate and brilliant critic of Crane gives readers the first major interpretation of the poet's work in decades Irwin aims to show that Hart Crane's epic The Bridge is the best twentieth century long poem in English Irwin convincingly argues that compared to other long poems of the century The Bridge is the richest and most wide ranging in its mythic and historical resonances the most inventive in its combination of literary and visual structures the most subtle and compelling in its psychological underpinnings Irwin brings a wealth of new and varied scholarship to bear on his critical reading of the work from art history to biography to classical literature to philosophy revealing The Bridge to be the near perfect synthesis of American myth and history that Crane intended Irwin contends that the most successful entryway to Crane's notoriously difficult shorter poems is through a close reading of The Bridge Having admirably accomplished this Irwin analyzes Crane's poems in White Buildings and his last poem The Broken Tower through the larger context of his epic showing how Crane in the best of these worked out the structures and images that were fully developed in The Bridge Thoughtful deliberate and extraordinarily learned this is the most complete and careful reading of Crane's poetry available Hart Crane may have lived in Cleveland Ohio but as Irwin masterfully shows his poems stand among the greatest written in the English language

Crazy, Beautiful, Broken World Laura Taylor, 2018-02-14 Poetry about the world and the crazy Beautiful and broken parts of it

The Creative Crone Sylvia Henneberg, 2010 Henneberg shows how these writers offer radically different but richly complementary strategies for breaking the silence surrounding age Rich provides an approach to aging so strongly intertwined with other political issues that its complexity may keep us from immediately identifying age as one of her chief concerns On the other hand Sartre's direct treatment of aging sensitizes us to its importance and helps us see its significance in such writings as Rich's Meanwhile Rich's efforts to politicize age create stimulating contexts for Sartre's work Henneberg explores elements of these writers' individual poems that develop themes of aging including imagery and symbol the construction of a persona and the uses of rhythms to reinforce the themes She also includes analyses of their fiction and nonfiction works and draws ideas from age studies by scholars such as Margaret Morganroth Gullette Kathleen Woodward and Thomas Cole From publisher description Paranormal Poetry Beyond Boundaries Darren J

Lamb, 2017-11-22 No longer fearful to search for what lies beyond the known beyond religious and ignorant boundaries I'm embracing my own mind my own spirituality and my own very out there ideas Planting little weird seeds for those who like the dark unloved thorny flowers Attracting those with one foot in the world of the paranormal Those that are not scared to think for themselves and love beyond man-made rules Those that skip through the imaginary mists of time and those that baptise themselves in the rain The light bearers the shadow dancers both sides of the same page The lovers of poetry and hidden thoughts desires and feelings Those who are not afraid to look beyond boundaries The Art of Preaching Old

Testament Poetry Steven D. Mathewson, 2024-11-05 Preachers often struggle with preaching Old Testament poetry They are uncertain how to preach the highly emotive poems in Psalms the one liners in Proverbs the tedious conversations in Job the esoteric observations about life in Ecclesiastes and the confusing love poems in the Song of Songs Here leading pastor theologian Steven Mathewson instructs and inspires preachers to preach some of the most challenging and some of the richest material in the Old Testament This companion to his successful The Art of Preaching Old Testament Narrative guides readers through preaching the oft neglected Old Testament poetic books Mathewson introduces foundational issues and offers basic methodology and preaching strategies that are faithful to the text and sensitive to its listeners Highlighting Mathewson's skill at bringing the riches of the Old Testament to bear on the life of the church this book makes scholarship on the poetic books accessible for pastors and pastors in training It also includes sample sermons Poetry and Prose for work of A R Ammons Wendell Berry W S Merwin and Gary Snyder author Leonard Scigaj shows that just as a sustainable society does not depreciate its resource base so a sustainable poetry does not restrict interest to language Over the past thirty years many poets have shown an increasing sensitivity to ecological thinking But critics trained in poststructuralist language theory often fail to explore the substance of ecopoetry Scigaj is the first to define ecopoetry as separate and distinct from nature or environmental poetry marked by its concern with balancing the interests of human beings with the needs of nature Just as science learned that the earth was not the center of the universe ecopoetry insists on the recognition that humans are not at the center of the natural world Introduction to Poetry , English Poetry of the Nineteenth

Strange Good Fortune: Essays on Contemporary Poetry (p) , 2001 The Poetry of Hart Crane Richard Warrington Baldwin Lewis, 2015-12-08 One of the leading critics of our time R W B Lewis charts the career of Hart Crane s imagination of his vision his rhetoric and his craft Crane who has heretofore been assigned a relatively minor place in American letters emerges from this rich dense book as one of the finest poets in our language Mr Lewis traces the development of the theme which runs through all of Crane s poetry the need for the visionary and loving transfiguration of the actual world and claims that it is this theme which gives Crane s poetry its extraordinary consistency Mr Lewis also relates Crane s development as poet to the Anglo American Romantic tradition and argues that Blake Wordsworth Keats and Emerson are vital to an
