Brownings Duke:

Browning's Beginnings Herbert F. Tucker Jr., 1980-12-31 Browning's Beginnings was first published in 1980 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Browning's Beginnings offers a fresh approach to the poet who among major Victorians has proved at once the most congenial and most inscrutable to modern readers Drawing on recent developments in literary theory and in the criticism of romantic poetry Herbert F Tucker Jr argues that Browning's stylistic obscurity is the result of a principled poetics of evasion This art of disclosure in deferring formal and semantic finalities constitutes an aesthetic counterpart to his open ended moral philosophy of incompleteness Browning's poems like his enormously productive career find their motivation and sustenance in his optimistic love of the future a love that is indistinguishable from his lifelong fear that there will be nothing left to say The opening chapters trace the workings of Browning's art of disclosure with extensive and original interpretations of the unduly neglected early poems Pauline Paracelsus and Sordello and place special emphasis on Browning's attitudes toward poetic tradition and language A chapter on Browning's attitudes toward poetic tradition and language A chapter on Browning's plays identifies dynamics of representation in Pippa Passes Strafford and King Victor and King Charles Tucker discusses the pervasive analogy between Browning's ideas about poetic representation and about representation in its erotic and religious aspects and shows how the early poems and plays illustrate correlative developments in poetics and in the exploration and dramatic rendering of human psychology The remaining chapters follow the poetic psychology of Browning to its culmination in the great poems of his middle years exemplary readings of selected dramatic lyrics and monologues suggest that the ways of meaning in Browning's mature work variously bear out the sense of endlessness or perpetual initiation that is central to his poetic beginnings Tucker thus contends that the romantic and the Victorian Browning have more in common than is generally supposed and his book should appeal to students of both periods Its discussion of general literary issues poetic influence closure representation and meaning in application to particular texts should further recommend Browning's Beginnings to the nonspecialist reader interested in poetry and poetic theory

Becoming Browning Clyde de L. Ryals, 1983 Genealogy of the Brownings in America from 1621 to 1908 Edward Franklin Browning, 1908 The Brownings; Their Life and Art Lilian Whiting, 1911 The Brownings Their Life and Art Lilian Whiting CHAPTER I 1812 1833 Allons after the Great Companions and to belong to them To know the universe itself as a road as many roads as roads for travelling souls The Most Exquisite Romance of Modern Life Ancestry and Youth of Robert Browning Love of Music Formative Influences The Fascination of Byron A Home Crammed with Books The Spell of Shelley Incondita Poetic Vocation Definitely Chosen Pauline Such a very page de Contes is the life of the wedded poets Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning that it is difficult to realize that this immortal idyl of Poetry Genius and Love was less than fifteen years in duration out of his seventy seven and her fifty five years of life It is a story that has touched the entire world with mystic gleams Like fragments of forgotten dreams this story of beautiful associations and friendships of artistic creation and of the entrance on a wonderful realm of inspiration and loveliness At the time of their marriage he was in his thirty fifth and she in her forty first year although she is described as looking so youthful that she was like a girl in her slender flower like grace and he lived on for twenty eight years after Clouds and darkness Fell upon Camelot with the death of his Lyric Love The story of the most beautiful romance that the world has ever known thus falls into three distinctive periods that of the separate life of each up to the time of their marriage their married life with its scenic setting in the enchantment of Italy and his life after her withdrawal from earthly scenes The story is also of duplex texture for the outer life rich in associations travel impressions is but the visible side of the life of great creative art A delightful journey is made but its record is not limited to the enjoyment of friends and place a poem is written whose charm and power persist through all the years We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

Browning Roy E.
