Bruno Taut:

Bruno Taut, 1880-1938 Kurt Junghanns, 1983 Bruno Taut's Design Inspiration for the Glashaus David Nielsen, 2015-09-16 As a formative exemplar of early architectural modernism Bruno Taut's seminal exhibition pavilion the Glashaus literally translated Glasshouse is logically part of the important debate of rethinking the origins of modernism However the historical record of Bruno Taut's Glashaus has been primarily established by one art historian and critic As a result the historical record of the Glashaus is significantly skewed toward a singular notion of Expressionism and surprisingly excludes Taut's diverse motives for the design of the building In an effort to clarify the problematic historical record of the Glashaus this book exposes Bruno Taut's motives and inspirations for its design The result is that Taut's motives can be found in yet unacknowledged precedents like the botanical inspiration of the Victoria regia lily the commercial interests of Frederick Keppler as the Director of the Deutsche Luxfer Prismen Syndikat and imitation that derived openly from the Gothic The outcome is a substantial contribution to the re-evaluation of the generally accepted histories of the modern movement in architecture Bruno Taut 1880-1938 Bruno Taut (Architekt, Deutschland, Türkei), 1984

Programs and Manifestoes on 20th-Century Architecture Ulrich Conrads, 1975-11-15 The present volume offers eloquent testimony that many of the master builders of this century have held passionate convictions regarding the philosophic and social basis of their art Nearly every important development in the modern architectural movement began with the proclamation of these convictions in the form of a program or manifesto The most influential of these are collected here in chronological order from 1903 to 1963 Taken together they constitute a subjective history of modern architecture compared with one another their great diversity of style reveals in many cases the basic differences of attitude and temperament that produced a corresponding divergence in architectural style In point of view the book covers the aesthetic spectrum from right to left from programs that rigidly generate designs down to the smallest detail to revolutionary manifestoes that call for anarchy in building form and town plan The documents placed in context by the editor are also international in their range among them are the seminal and prophetic statements of Henry van de Velde Adolf Loos and Bruno Taut from the early years of the century Frank Lloyd Wright's 1910 annunciation of Organic Architecture Gropius's original program for the Bauhaus founded in Weimar in 1919 Towards a New Architecture Guiding Principles by Le Corbusier the formulation by Naum Gabo and Antoine Pevsner of the basic principles of Constructivism and articles by R Buckminster Fuller on universal architecture and the architect as world planner Other pronouncements some in flamboyant style including those of Erich Mendelsohn Hannes Meyer Theo van Doesburg Oskar Schlemmer Ludwig Mies van der Rohe El Lissitzky and Louis I Kahn There are also a number of collective or group statements issued in the name of movements such as CIAM De Stijl ABC the Situationists and GEAM Since the dramatic effectiveness of the manifesto form is usually heightened by brevity and conciseness it has been possible to reproduce most of the documents in their entirety only a few

Leuthäuser,2001 After several pages of prologue summing up 18th century highlights especially the rise in importance of geometry some forty pages cover 1784 1916 focusing on the heavily fenestrated high rises of the Chicago School and the iron and glass pavilions of Europe The chapter spanning 1892 1925 concentrates on the many disputes over the trajectory of modernism Nieuwe Kunst Stile Liberty Jugendstil and Art Nouveau all arguing the direction that the boom of prisons hospitals schools town halls and other institutional buildings would take Three more time divisions follow and a concise compendium of architect biographies ends the volume Along with an array of great pictures par for Taschen Gossel and Leuthäuser both active in the private sector add a strong prose style attentive to debates among architects and the socioeconomic stage on which architects act Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Break with the Past Deborah Ascher Barnstone,2017-08-15 Between 1918 and 1933 the German interwar avant garde was a primary force driving European cultural innovation and modernism These innovations continue to influence artistic practice theory and arts education today thus making a comprehensive study of the relationship between individual war experience and the immediate response of avant garde architects after the war all the more important The Break with the Past pursues several important interrelated questions What were the disparate war experiences of German architects and did they have different effects on Weimar cultural production Did political orientation play a part in support for the war In aesthetic choices What changes occurred in avant garde architectural practice after 1918 How do they compare with pre war positions and practices and expectations for post war outcomes In order to address these questions the book uses individual case studies of four leading architects Bruno Taut Walter Gropius Erich Mendelsohn and Hans Scharoun This is a valuable resource for academics and students in the areas of Art and Architecture History German history and Cultural Studies European Culture and Modernism Modern Architecture and the Mediterranean Jean-Francois Lejeune,Michelangelo Sabatino,2009-12-04 Considering the influence of the forms and tectonics of the Mediterranean vernacular on modern architectural practice and discourse from the 1920s to the 1960s The Earth That Modernism Built Kenny Cupers,2024-11-26 An intellectual history of architectural modernism for an age of rising global inequality and environmental crisis The Earth That Modernism Built traces the rise of planetary design to an imperialist discourse about the influence of the earthly environment on humanity Kenny Cupers argues that to understand how the earth became an object of design we need to radically shift the terms of analysis Rather than describing how new design ideas and practices traveled and transformed people and places across the globe this book interrogates the politics of life and earth underpinning this process It demonstrates how approaches to modern housing landscape design and infrastructure planning are indebted to an understanding of planetary and human ecology fueled by settler colonialism and imperial ambition Cupers draws from both canonical and unknown sources and archives in Germany Namibia and Poland to situate Wilhelmine and Weimar design projects in an expansive discourse about the relationship between soil settlement and race This reframing reveals connections between colonial officials planning agricultural hinterlands garden designers proselytizing geopolitical theory soil researchers turning to folklore and Bauhaus architects designing modern communities according to functionalist principles Ultimately The Earth That Modernism Built shows how the conviction that we can design our way out of environmental crisis is bound to exploitative and divisive ways of inhabiting the earth Avant-Garde World Creation

Abigail van Alst, 2025-10-30 This book explores the widespread fascination with world creation among early twentieth century artists and examines those trends within the European avant garde The book reflects on what the world looks and feels like before and after World War One and thus also concerns creativity and destruction alike in the context of modernity Over the course of three chapters the author focusses on works in which avant garde artists combine and experiment with various arts and media to create alternative narratives of the world's creation These works include three canonized total works of art Der Weltbaumeister The World's Master Builder 1920 an illustrated book imagined as an architectural play by the Expressionist architect Bruno Taut the Futurist opera C Victory Over the Sun 1913 by Aleksei Kruchenykh Velimir Khlebnikov Kazimir Malevich and Mikhail Matiushin and the Cubist ballet La Cr ation du monde The Creation of the World 1923 by Blaise Cendrars Fernand L ger Darius Milhaud and Jean B rlin Providing new readings of these classic works that dive deeply into the avant garde's inter artistic search for new modes of mediation as well as its dialogue with science politics and technology Abigail van Alst demonstrates how each of these artworks staged a cosmogony an alternative story of the universe's creation which simultaneously experimentally and critically recounted the story of modernity This new book is ideal for researchers and scholars in History of Art Modernism and Comparative Literature Japanese Culture Paul Varley, 2000-03-01 For nearly three decades Japanese Culture has garnered high praise as an accurate and well written introduction to Japanese history and culture This widely used undergraduate text is now available in a new edition Thoroughly updated the fourth edition includes expanded sections on numerous topics among which are samurai values Zen Buddhism the tea ceremony Confucianism in the Tokugawa period the story of the forty seven ronin Mito scholarship in the early nineteenth century and mass culture and comics in contemporary times Bruno Taut in Japan Bruno Taut, 2013
