

In Response To My Daughter Asking Why I Shave My Legs

Because I choose to.

This is what I have to say.

I like the feel of a blade sharp against my skin,
the time it takes in the shower each day,
the cost of the pleasure.

I'll even pay extra for pretty pink to match the paper thin cuts around my knees where my bones have tried to object and now bleed
swiftly into the water, which rinses the inkling clean away down the sink
clean, as clean as can be.

Which means that you can choose too.

This is what I will say.

Huddle your girlfriends together, gather them close as close as the blade
as it glides not just up your legs.

Nelly Bryer

Stroke the soft hair covering your beautiful bodies, coarse, dark, light, however it may be stare at it straight in the face and all agree to fuck that shit.

Bryce Passage Poems:

Bryce Passage Daniel Morris, Thomas Fink, 2004 Poetry In this book the theme of journeying is predominant as is the idea of coming to know the self in dialogue with others The poems early in this collection tend to focus on art artists or the act of making whether in the elevated sphere of the Jules Olitski Clement Greenberg variety or in the earthier realms of the Beach Boys Porn Queens and Feelies lead singer who is discussed by Linus not the Peanuts character but the failed artist of Greek myth After several poems that concern self portraiture and the act of making art as a form of person construal come poems concerning growing up traveling and work The collection ends with poems that offer signs of homecoming or redemption after a struggle that has involved personal loss and misfortune

Essays and Interviews on Contemporary American Poets, Poetry, and Pedagogy Daniel Morris, 2024-09-10 In sixteen chapters devoted to avant garde contemporary American poets including Kenneth Goldsmith Adeena Karasick Tyrone Williams Hannah Weiner and Barrett Watten prolific scholar and Purdue University professor Daniel Morris engages in a form of cultural repurposing by learning twice about how to attend to writers whose aesthetic contributions were not part of his education as a student in Boston and Chicago in the 1980s and 1990s when new formalism and post confessional modes reigned supreme Morris s study demonstrates his interest in moving beyond formalism to offer what Stephen Fredman calls a wider cultural interpretation of literature that emphasizes the new historicist concerns with hybridity ethnicity power relations material culture politics and religion Essays address from multiple perspectives prophetic diasporic ethical the vexing problems and sublime potential of disseminating lyrics the ancient form of transmission and preservation of the singular private human voice across time and space to an individual reader in an environment in which e poetry and digitalized poetics pose a crisis understood as both opportunity and threat to traditional page poetry

Radical Poetics and Secular Jewish Culture Stephen Paul Miller, Daniel Morris, 2010 This collection of essays is the first to address this often obscured dimension of modern and contemporary poetry the secular Jewish dimension Editors Daniel Morris and Stephen Paul Miller asked their contributors to address what constitutes radical poetry written by Jews defined as secular and whether or not there is a Jewish component or dimension to radical and modernist poetic practice in general

These poets and critics address these questions by exploring the legacy of those poets who preceded and influenced them Stein Zukofsky Reznikoff Oppen and Ginsberg among others Poetry by Heart Andrew Motion, 2014-10-02 Poetry by Heart based on the hugely successful nationwide schools competition 200 magical poems to learn by heart The poems we learn stay with us for the rest of our lives They become personal and invaluable and what's more they are free gifts there for the taking Simon Armitage Two years ago former Poet Laureate Andrew Motion had the idea of setting up Poetry by Heart a nationwide annual competition for secondary schools which asked contestants to learn two or three poems and be judged on their recitations first at school level then regional then in a national final held at London's National Portrait Gallery It's proved a huge success with hundreds of schools participating in the first year and numbers up by 20% in the second Coinciding with the start of the third year of competition and published on National Poetry Day whose theme coincidentally in 2014 is Recitation this Poetry by Heart anthology brings together the pool of poems 200 altogether from which contestants make their choices Specially picked by Motion and his three co editors these poems make up a treasure house of almost unknown poems and familiar poems from the mainstream love poems and war poems funny poems and heartbroken poems poems that recreate the world we know and poems written on the dark side of the moon And all chosen with a view to their being recited out loud From William Wordsworth to Wilfred Owen Emily Brontë to Elizabeth Bishop this wonderfully enjoyable anthology will be enjoyed by all ages and includes the best poets from the past to the present day In a groundbreaking feature the book includes QR codes which allow readers to use their mobile phones to listen to recordings of the poems many of them specially recorded by the poets themselves Sir Andrew Motion was Poet Laureate from 1999 till 2009 and is Professor of Creative Writing at Royal Holloway College London Jean Sprackland sTilt won the Costa Poetry award in 2008 She is a Reader in Poetry at Manchester Metropolitan University Julie Blake is co Founder and Director of The Full English an organization based in Bristol which provides support to teachers of English Literature Mike Dixon is an educational consultant specializing in English in the classroom The Hiram Poetry Review Hiram College. purpose Kavusa begins with a summary of the extant studies and literature reviews on water and water related motifs in the Old Testament He then analyses the books of Job Proverbs Ecclesiastes and the Deutero canonical wisdom examining the various references to water as life giving or life threatening entities and expanding upon the themes of water management and sustainability the intrinsic worth of nature and the unpredictable chaotic state of water This volume concludes with several insights for ecological responsibility and valuable wisdom for an eco theological perspective both in Kavusa s African context and with a more universal application

Post-Agreement Northern Irish Literature Birte Heidemann,2016-06-23 This book uncovers a new genre of post Agreement literature consisting of a body of texts fiction poetry and drama by Northern Irish writers who grew up during the Troubles but published their work in the aftermath of the Good Friday Agreement In an attempt to demarcate the literary aesthetic parameters of the genre the book proposes a selective revision of postcolonial theories on liminality through a subset of concepts such as negative liminality liminal suspension and liminal permanence These conceptual interventions as the readings demonstrate help articulate how the Agreement s rhetorical negation of the sectarian past and its aggressive neoliberal campaign towards a progressive future breed new forms of violence that produce liminally suspended subject positions

A Much Misunderstood Man Ambrose Bierce,2003 The binding thread throughout this edited collection of Ambrose Bierce s letters is the argument that Bierce has too often vilified as a cynical misanthrope Joshi and Schultz believe that Bierce s human side has been ignored by scholars and they work here to rectify this oversight The importance of this collection is underscored by the fact that no collection of Bierce s letters has been published since 1922 This selection represents a sampling of nearly one half million words of Bierce s correspondence which Joshi and Schultz are the first to gather and transcribe The letters reveal many sides of Bierce that he deliberately concealed in his literary work the caring father who keenly felt the deaths of his two sons and took constant interest in the welfare of his only daughter the literary giant of San Francisco who gathered around him a substantial cadre of disciples whose work he encouraged and meticulously criticized the vigorous castigator of chicanery hypocrisy and injustice wherever he saw it and the author of coyly flirtatious letters to a number of female correspondents For the first time a well rounded picture of Bierce the man and writer emerges in his own words The volume ends chillingly with Bierce s last surviving letter written from Chihuahua Mexico on December 26 1913 which concludes As for me I leave here tomorrow for an unknown destination Bierce was never heard from again The letters have been scrupulously edited from manuscript sources and exhaustively annotated to elucidate obscure historical literary and other references BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Literature Henry Duff Traill, 1897
