Bucchero Pottery From Southern Etruria:

Bucchero Pottery from Southern Etruria Tom B. Rasmussen, 2006-03-16 A study of fine pottery made by the Etruscans from the seventh to the fourth century BC Bucchero Pottery from Southern Etruria Tom B. Rasmussen, 1979

Ancient West & East Gocha R. Tsetskhladze, 2005-06 Originally published as Volume 4 2005 of Brill's journal Ancient West East Catalogue of the Etruscan Gallery of the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology Jean MacIntosh Turfa, 2010-11-24

Combining a guide for the Museum visitor with scholarly discussions of all objects on display this catalogue provides background on the society history technology and commerce of the Etruscan and Faliscan cultures from the ninth through the first centuries B C Several groups of material illustrate social historical and technological phenomena currently at the forefront of scholarly debate and study such as the crucial period of the turnover from Iron Age hut villages to the fully urbanized princely Etruscan cities the development and extent of ancient literacy and the position of women and children in ancient societies Many special objects seldom found or generally inaccessible in the United States include Faliscan tomb groups Etruscan inscriptions helmets and trade goods The catalogue presents and analyzes objects of warfare weaving animals religious beliefs architectural and terracotta roofing ornaments Etruscan bronze working for utensils weapons and artwork and fine generic portraiture It discusses the symbolic meaning of such objects deposited in tombs as a chariot buried with a Faliscan lady at Narce a senator's folding stool buried in a later tomb at Chiusi and a pair of horse bits with the teeth of a chariot team still adhering to them where the teeth fell when sacrificed for a funeral in the fifth century necropolis at Tarquinia much later than the horse sacrifice was previously known in Etruria

The Etruscan World Jean MacIntosh Turfa, 2014-11-13 The Etruscans can be shown to have made significant and in some cases perhaps the first technical advances in the central and northern Mediterranean To the Etruscan people we can attribute such developments as the tie beam truss in large wooden structures surveying and engineering drainage and water tunnels the development of the foresail for fast long distance sailing vessels fine techniques of metal production and other pyrotechnology post mortem C sections in medicine and more In art many technical and iconographic developments although they certainly happened first in Greece or the Near East are first seen in extant Etruscan works preserved in the lavish tombs and goods of Etruscan aristocrats These include early portraiture the first full length painted portrait the first perspective view of a human figure in monumental art specialized techniques of bronze casting and reduction fired pottery the bucchero phenomenon Etruscan contacts through trade treaty and intermarriage linked their culture with Sardinia Corsica and Sicily with the Italic tribes of the peninsula and with the Near Eastern kingdoms Greece and the Greek colonial world Iberia Gaul and the Punic network of North Africa and influenced the cultures of northern Europe In the past fifteen years striking advances have been made in scholarship and research techniques for Etruscan Studies Archaeological and scientific discoveries have changed our picture of the Etruscans and furnished us with new specialized information Thanks to the work of dozens of international scholars it is now possible to discuss topics of interest that could never before be researched such as Etruscan mining and metallurgy textile production foods and agriculture In this volume over 60 experts provide insights into all these aspects of Etruscan culture and more with many contributions available in English for the first time to allow the reader access to research that may not otherwise be available to them Lavishly illustrated The Etruscan World brings to life the culture and material past of the Etruscans and highlights key points of development in research making it essential reading for researchers academics and students of this fascinating civilization Cetamura del Chianti Nancy Thomson de Grummond, 2020-01-10 Expanding the study of Etruscan habitation sites to include not only traditional cities but also smaller Etruscan communities Cetamura del Chianti examines a settlement that flourished during an exceptional time period amid wars with the Romans in the fourth to first centuries BCE Situated in an ideal hilltop location that was easy to defend and had access to fresh water clay and timber the community never grew to the size of a city and no known references to it survive in ancient writings its ancient name isn't even known Because no cities were ever built on top of the site excavation is unusually unimpeded Intriguing features described in Cetamura del Chianti include an artisans zone with an adjoining sanctuary which fostered the cult worship of Lur and Leinth two relatively little known Etruscan deities and ancient wells that reveal the cultural development and natural environment including the vineyards and oak forests of Chianti over a period of some six hundred years Deeply enhancing our understanding of an intriguing economic political and cultural environment this is a compelling portrait of a singular society The Origins of the Roman Economy Gabriele Cifani, 2020-12-17 Focuses on the economic history of the community of Rome from the Iron Age to the early Republic

Etruscology Alessandro Naso, 2017-09-25 This handbook has two purposes it is intended 1 as a handbook of Etruscology or Etruscan Studies offering a state of the art and comprehensive overview of the history of the discipline and its development and 2 it serves as an authoritative reference work representing the current state of knowledge on Etruscan civilization The organization of the volume reflects this dual purpose The first part of the volume is dedicated to methodology and leading themes in current research organized thematically whereas the second part offers a diachronic account of Etruscan history culture religion art archaeology and social and political relations and structures as well as a systematic treatment of the topography of the Etruscan civilization and sphere of influence The Cambridge Ancient History John Boardman, Iorwerth Eiddon Stephen Edwards, 1977 This volume complements the publication of the second edition of the text volume of The Cambridge Ancient History Volume IV but can also be used as an independent illustrated account of the period c 525 to 479 BC and of the evidence for the life and arts of Greeks and Persians in the years when they first crossed swords with one another and the freedom of Greece was at stake It presents a full pictorial survey with detailed commentary of the art and archaeology of the Persian empire and its provinces from Thrace to India The section on Greece concentrates on Athens of the late Archaic period immediately before the Persian Wars with consideration of progress in the arts and of the archaeological evidence for various aspects of Greek life and society The fortunes of the Western Greek colonial area and of the Etruscan and Italic peoples are similarly treated and the volume ends with a study of the invention of coinage and its use in Greece and the Persian empire This book should be consulted by ancient historians archaeologists and art historians and also by the general reader interested in the ancient world East and West Tobias Fischer-Hansen,1988 This volume contains fifteen articles dealing with the reciprocity of contacts and influences between East and West in the Ancient world This volume is the publication of an interdisciplinary seminar held at the University of Copenhagen in 1987 with the participation of archaeologists philologists and historians Chianti Classico Bill Nesto,Frances Di Savino,2016-09-20 This book tells the story of the ancient land named Chianti and the modern wine appellation known as Chianti Classico In 1716 Tuscany's penultimate Medici ruler Cosimo III anointed the region of Chianti along with three smaller areas in the Florentine State as the world's first legal appellations of origin for wine In the succeeding centuries this milestone was all but forgotten By the late nineteenth century the name Chianti rather than signifying this historic region and its celebrated wine identified a simple Italian red table wine in a straw covered flask In the twenty first century Chianti Classico emerged as one of Italy's most dynamic and fashionable wine zones Chianti Classico relates the fascinating evolution of Chianti as a wine region and reveals its geographic and cultural complexity Bill Nesto MW and Frances Di Savino explore the townships of Chianti Classico and introduce readers to the modern day winegrowers who are helping to transform the region The secrets of Sangiovese the principal vine variety of Chianti are also revealed as the book unlocks the myths and mysteries of one of Italy's most storied wine regions The publication of Chianti Classico coincides with the three hundredth anniversary of the Medici decree delimiting the region of Chianti on September 24 1716 Case Studies in European Prehistory Peter Bogucki,2023-05-09 This book provides a broad overview of the current research questions facing archaeologists working in Europe The book uses a case study method in which a number of archaeologists discuss their work and reflect on their goals and approaches The emphasis is on the intellectual process of archaeology not just the techniques and results Chronological coverage is provided from the Mesolithic to the Iron Age and over much of the European continent Mediterranean Urbanization 800-600 BC Robin Osborne,Barry Cunliffe,2005-10-27 Urban life as we know it in the Mediterranean began in the early Iron Age settlements of great size and internal diversity appear in the archaeological record This collection of essays offers for the first time a systematic discussion of the beginnings of urbanization across the Mediterranean from Cyprus through Greece and Italy to France and Spain Leading scholars in the field look critically at what is meant by urbanization and analyse the social processes that lead to the development of social complexity and the growth of towns Monumenta graeca et romana: Civil and military architecture David A. Caccioli,2009 The Villanovan and Etruscan collections of the Detroit Institute of Arts not only represent an important source of Classical Antiquity in the United States but also serve as a historical model of how such artifacts were acquired by large American museums from the late nineteenth through mid twentieth centuries These collections provide museum visitors scholars and students with an indepth view into one of antiquity s most fascinating peoples the Etruscans and their predecessors The wide ranging collections contain artifacts from every aspect of Etruscan life such as utilitarian tools and weapons objects for personal adornment votive statuettes and cinerary urns to house the dead One statuette the Detroit Rider is considered to be among the finest surviving examples of Etruscan small sculpture The catalogue brings together all of these pieces for the first time with photographs and relevant bibliographic sources on their cultural and religious functions in antiquity

Sources for Alexander the Great N. G. L. Hammond,1993-03-11 Plutarch and Arrian have contributed more than any other ancient authors to our picture of Alexander the Great but since they wrote four or more centuries after his death the value of what they said depends upon the sources of information on which they themselves drew In this 1993 book the attempt is made to define and to evaluate those sources in a detailed study analysing the historians works section by section and comparing them with other accounts of the same episodes This volume completes Professor Hammond s study of the five Alexander historians begun with Three Historians of Alexander the Great Cambridge University Press 1983 and lays a basis for work in this area

Poetry and Civil War in Lucan's Bellum Civile Jamie Masters,1992-03-12 Lucan is the wild maverick among Latin epic poets Sneered at for over a century for failing to conform to humanist canons of taste and propriety in recent years his work has been gaining in reputation This 1992 book is founded on a genuine admiration for Lucan s unique perverse and spellbinding masterpiece Above all Dr Masters argues the poem is obsessed with civil war not only as the subject of the story it tells but as a metaphor which determines the way that story is told In these pages he discusses in detail a number of selected episodes from the poem which illustrate this principle and on this basis offers challenging perspective on most of the important issues in Lucanian studies such as Lucan s political stance his attitude to Caesar his iconoclastic relation to Virgil and the epic tradition and his distortion of history and geography This book is a major re evaluation provocative and persuasive of a central figure in the history of Latin epic

The Path of the Argo R. J. Clare,2002-05-16 In this innovative study of Apollonius Rhodius influential epic poem from the Hellenistic period the author aims both to offer fresh insights into popular critical issues and consider it from new perspectives The principal unifying concern is the poet s measured and complex use of language and the manipulation of meaning generated therewith The first part presents a detailed analysis of the poem s constantly shifting commentary on the voyage of the Argo as articulated throughout all four books of the poem and the conflicting strategies according to which the epic journey of the Argonauts is presented for interpretation The second part of the book identifies hitherto unexplored descriptive thematic and image related rhythms within the narrative which serve both to bind the poem together and to generate further complexities of meaning Accessible to non specialists with all Greek quotations accompanied by an English translation In the Footsteps of the Etruscans Graeme Barker, Tom Rasmussen, 2023-10-12 In the Footsteps of the Etruscans describes the archaeology of the countryside within a ten km radius of the small town of Tuscania near Rome throwing light on the unrecorded lives of the generations of farmers and shepherds who have lived there What was the character of prehistoric settlement prior to Etruscan urbanization How did urbanization shape the lives of the ordinary Etruscans working the land hardly ever addressed in Etruscan archaeology What was the impact on these people of being absorbed into the expanding Roman empire and its globalised economic structures How did the empire's collapse and the subsequent emergence of the nucleated medieval village affect Tuscania's rural population The project's 7500 year archaeological history from the first farmers to those grappling with globalisation today contributes eloquently to our understanding of how Mediterranean peoples have constantly shaped their landscape and been shaped by it
