Eyes of the Void Adrian Tchaikovsky, 2022-05-03 The Arthur C Clarke award winning author of Children of Time brings us the second novel in an extraordinary space opera trilogy about humanity on the brink of extinction and how one man's discovery will save or destroy us all After eighty years of fragile peace the Architects are back wreaking havoc as they consume entire planets In the past Originator artefacts vestiges of a long vanished civilization could save a world from annihilation This time the Architects have discovered a way to circumvent these protective relics Suddenly no planet is safe Facing impending extinction the Human Colonies are in turmoil While some believe a unified front is the only way to stop the Architects others insist humanity should fight alone And there are those who would seek to benefit from the fractured politics of war even as the Architects loom ever closer Idris who has spent decades running from the horrors of his past finds himself thrust back onto the battlefield As an Intermediary he could be one of the few to turn the tide of war With a handful of allies he searches for a weapon that could push back the Architects and save the galaxy But to do so he must return to the nightmarish unspace where his mind was broken and remade What Idris discovers there will change everything

Finney, 2013-05-13 The European film industry has by now lost most of its audience to American films US productions take around eighty per cent of Europe's box office revenues There are many reasons for this imbalance but one major difference between the European and the US film industries is easily identified the Americans spend far more on development Developing Feature Films in Europe is the first comprehensive study of this critical stage of the film making process Based on extensive research and interviews with more than seventy industry practitioners it examines current funding practices presents training initiatives for writers and producers and highlights the potential for further improvements Angus Finney has also compiled an invaluable directory of contacts addresses and application procedures for public and private funding bodies throughout Europe Screening European Heritage Paul Cooke, Rob Stone, 2016-09-01 This book provides a unique examination of the way Europe's past is represented on contemporary screens and what this says about contemporary cultural attitudes to history How do historical dramas come to TV and cinema screens across Europe How is this shaped by the policies and practices of cultural institutions from media funding boards to tourist agencies and heritage sites Who watches these productions and how are they consumed in cinemas on TV and online are just some of the questions this volume seeks to answer From The Lives of Others to Game of Thrones historical dramas are a particularly visible part of mainstream European film production often generating major national debates on the role of the past in contemporary national identity construction Journal of the Ministry of Agriculture ,1910 The Complete Works of J.M. Perfumes of Araby Harold Fenton Jacob, 2007 First published in 1915 this work is a collection of thirteen vignettes of tribal life in Yemen in the first decades of the twentieth century It covers topics such as alcohol coffee and qat family life warfare religion folklore and superstitions local politics and attitudes towards the British The Playboy of the Western World John Millington Synge, 2014-07-10 Synge who came from a middle class Protestant family near Dublin created a huge scandal at the Abbey Theatre in Dublin where The Playboy was staged in 1907 because its audience did not take kindly to a comedy that seemed to portray the Irish as violent superstitious sots and swaggerers Synge relied on and at the same time mocked the Irish dramatic movement and its ambition to create realistic drama that was also poetically beautiful The play is set near a village on a wild coast of Mayo On the first day a stranger arrives and declares that he is on the run because he has killed his father for this the villagers turn him into a hero On the second day however his father arrives walking wounded and although Christy knocks him down with a spade his father seems impossible to kill The set off together still quarrelling and the villagers are bereft of their excitement
