The Brooklyn Film John B. Manbeck, Robert Singer, 2010-06-28 Brooklyn New York a borough of New York City is known for its distinctive vernacular its communal feel on the fringes of a booming city and its famous bridge a gateway to the unlimited opportunities in Manhattan Of course Coney Island deserves a mention as it garners its own fame independent of Brooklyn its parent locale New York City moviemaking got its start in Brooklyn when Charles E Chinnock shot his silent film in 1894 Since then many films have been made studios opened and stars born in Brooklyn contributing to its undeniable influence in the film industry This work is a collection of essays on the topic of Brooklyn as portrayed in film It includes a discussion of race relations in films dealing with Brooklyn the story of Jackie Robinson as shown on film the changing face of cinematic Brooklyn and some thoughts on a Brooklyn filmgoer's experience The combination of Brooklyn and baseball in the films of Paul Auster is examined as well as the typical portrayal of a Brooklyn native in film Race in American Film Daniel Bernardi, Michael Green, 2017-07-07 This expansive three volume set investigates racial representation in film providing an authoritative cross section of the most racially significant films actors directors and movements in American cinematic history Hollywood has always reflected current American cultural norms and ideas As such film provides a window into attitudes about race and ethnicity over the last century This comprehensive set provides information on hundreds of films chosen based on scholarly consensus of their importance regarding the subject examining aspects of race and ethnicity in American film through the historical context themes and people involved This three volume set highlights the most important films and artists of the era identifying films actors or characterizations that were considered racist were tremendously popular or hugely influential attempted to be progressive or some combination thereof Readers will not only learn basic information about each subject but also be able to contextualize it culturally historically and in terms of its reception to understand what average moviegoers thought about the subject at the time of its popularity and grasp how the subject is perceived now through the lens of history Black Ball: A Negro Leagues Journal, Vol. 5, No. 2 (Fall 2012) Leslie A. Heaphy, 2015-04-22 BACK ISSUE Under the guidance of Leslie Heaphy and an editorial board of leading historians this peer reviewed annual book series offers new authoritative research on all subjects related to black baseball including the Negro major and minor leagues teams and players pre Negro League organization and play barnstorming segregation and integration class gender and ethnicity the business of black baseball and the arts Prior to Volume 9 Black Ball was published as Black Ball A Negro Leagues Journal This is a back issue of that journal Beyond Realism Robert Singer, 2024-04-30 Beyond Realism Naturalist Film in Theory and Practice is the first major critical study of international naturalist cinema Often mistaken for realist film international naturalist cinema has a unique cultural and critical history From its earliest representation in silent films such as Walsh's Regeneration 1915 and Eisenstein's Stachka 1925 to recent productions such as Chukwu's Clemency 2019 and Aronofsky's The Whale 2022 the naturalist film narrative encompasses the whole of film history traversing language movement and genre The naturalist film is predicated on two foundational intersecting paradigms that configure as one ideological system in an overarching scientific and social experimental narrative Either the scientific or social paradigm may be dominant in the film narrative or they may simply co exist but a naturalist film reveals both templates and most significantly suggests an implicit cinematic anthropology that renders the body as an observed spectacle Greater Gotham Mike Wallace,2017-09-04 Volume two of the world famous trilogy on the history of New York

A Coney Island Reader Louis J. Parascandola,John Parascandola,2014-12-09 This literary anthology celebrates the history and romance of Coney Island with works by some of the 19th and 20th centuries greatest authors and poets Featuring a stunning gallery of portraits by the world s finest poets essayists and fiction writers including Walt Whitman Stephen Crane Jos Mart Maxim Gorky Federico Garc a Lorca Isaac Bashevis Singer E E Cummings Djuna Barnes Colson Whitehead Robert Olen Butler and Katie Roiphe this anthology illuminates the unique history and transporting experience of New York City s quintessential beach destination Moody mystical and enchanting Coney Island has thrilled newcomers and soothed native New Yorkers for decades Its fantasy entertainments renowned beach foods world class boardwalk and expansive beach offer a kaleidoscopic panorama of people places and events that have inspired writers of all types and nationalities It becomes as Lawrence Ferlinghetti once wrote a Coney Island of the mind G.K. Hall Bibliographic Guide to Theatre Arts New York Public Library. Research Libraries,2003 Baseball and Social Class Ronald E. Kates,Warren Tormey,2012-11-14 This collection of fresh essays examines the intersection of baseball and social class pointing to the conclusion that America s game infused from its origins with a democratic mythos and founded on high minded principles of meritocracy is nonetheless fraught with problematic class contradictions Each essayist has explored how class standing has influenced some aspect of the game as experienced by those who play it those who watch it those who write about it and those who market it The topic of class is an amorphous one and in tying it to baseball the contributors have considered matters of race education locality integration assimilation and cultural standing These elements are crucial to understanding how baseball creates preserves reinforces and occasionally assails class divisions among those who watch play and own the game American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Movies in American History Philip C. Independent Filmmaking and Digital Convergence Vladan Nikolic, 2016-12-01. Independent Filmmaking and Digital Convergence: Transmedia and Beyond offers a comprehensive analysis of the technological changes of the past few decades in independent film and media making and explores new strategies and practices in media production, exhibition, and distribution for independent producers and content creators. The book examines how independent filmmaking concepts have merged with digital and online technologies to create new hybrid multiplatform content creations. It explores key questions like how to reach an audience at a time when media conglomerates and their products dominate the market and simultaneously there is an overabundance of content competing for viewer time. The book investigates what kind of stories we tell and why, how the audience has changed, and what their expectations are. What the various niche markets are for independent producers and creators in new media and new models for media financing and distribution. The content found in this book bridges the gap between professional media makers and amateurs by focusing on new and emerging media models and practices. Provides a holistic view of the new media landscape and practical advice on producing content in the new multiplatform media environment. Demonstrates how to create financially sustainable models for independent producers and creators in a shifting and unstable environment, providing many challenges but also opportunities for independents. The author's website <http://www.filmconvergence.com> supports this book with case studies, news, and updates.

The Films of Joseph H. Lewis Gary D. Rhodes, 2012. Joseph H. Lewis enjoyed a monumental career in many genres, including film noir and B movies with The East Side Kids, as well as an extensive and often overlooked TV career. In The Films of Joseph H. Lewis, editor Gary D. Rhodes, PhD, gathers notable scholars from around the globe to examine the full range of Lewis's career. While some studies analyze Lewis's work in different areas, others focus on particular films ranging from poverty row fare to westerns and television films. Overall, this collection offers fresh perspectives on Lewis as an auteur, a director responsible for individually unique works as well as a sustained and coherent style Essays in part 1 investigate the texts and contexts that were important to Lewis's film and television career as contributors explore his innovative visual style and themes in both mediums Contributors to part 2 present an array of essays on specific films including Lewis's remarkable and prescient Invisible Ghost and other notable films My Name Is Julia Ross So Dark the Night and The Big Combo Part 3 presents an extended case study of Lewis's most famous and arguably most important work Gun Crazy Contributors take three distinct approaches to the film in the context of its genre as film noir and modernist and postmodernist film in its relationship to masculinity and masochism and in terms of ethos and ethics The Films of Joseph H Lewis offers a thorough assessment of Lewis's career and also provides insight into film and television making in the 1930s 40s and 50s Scholars of film and television studies and fans of Lewis's work will appreciate this comprehensive collection

Zola and Film Anna Gural-Migdal, Robert Singer, 2005-05-10 French novelist Emile Zola noted for his championship of the Naturalist novel has been one of the most adapted authors in world literature There have been approximately 80 film adaptations of his late 19th century novels and short stories many of which occurred during the silent era of international film production 1895-1927 While the aesthetic elements of Zola's fiction continue to appeal to international cinema the author's thematic naturalism and his scientific methodology have provided an ideological framework that incorporates art science and history into the many cinematic adaptations of his work This collection of essays contributed by scholars of French literature and film explores the dynamic relationship between Zola's fiction and its film adaptations examining critically significant cinematic adaptations of Zola's novels from a variety of theoretical and interdisciplinary perspectives The 13 essays discuss the adaptation of Zola's works within the limitations of the silent cinema the challenges posed by film censorship and the notoriety of the author's naturalist text the ideological inflection given to Zola's working class narratives and Zola's representation of women Zola's works are placed within their respective historical contexts as the essays address encoded anti-Nazi sentiment in films produced under the German occupation of France during World War II and the French Communist Party's reception of the filmic adaptation of Germinal Other adapted works addressed in these chapters include La Terre Nana La Bête humaine Au Bonheur des Dames Thérèse Raquin Gervaise and Pot-Bouille
