Brussels' Vertical Horizon Marie-Françoise Plissard, 2008-01-01 Je croyais connaître Bruxelles Mais en prenant de la hauteur la photographie en fait un espace neuf intrigant Dans le chaos elle trace des lignes dessine des figures r v le des structures inattendues Au premier coup d'oeil souvent je ne m'y retrouve pas Les lieux les plus familiers me déconcertent O sommes nous D'où cette vue à telle prise Quelle est donc cette avenue ce parc immense La ville d'abord redevient étrangère Edition Trilingue français anglais néerlandais

Vertical Horizons Douglas M. Grant, 2017-10-07 Looking back over thirty years of flying for Okanagan I see the experience has given me an interesting life I have never really considered flying as work It is more a way of life a way of life that nourishes a free spirit something that not many jobs can give you I just cannot imagine anything I would rather have done or any company I would have rather worked for Jim Reid pilot In 1945 following years as an instructor Carl Agar was honourably discharged from the British and Commonwealth Air Training Plan and moved to Penticton where he began looking for flying opportunities A first attempt to start a flying club never took off but Agar and his partners Barney Bent and Alf Stringer were determined to get off the ground They began looking at commercial ventures and in 1947 Okanagan Air Services OAS was formed to provide instruction and contract work After a rough start while demonstrating fruit spraying Agar crashed a helicopter into power lines the company got a break in May 1948 when the Fraser floods swamped the valley and OAS received a mosquito spraying contract From there the company flourished going on to fly the first unaccompanied commercial helicopter ferry flight from Canada to the UK monitor polar bears in the High Arctic provide offshore oil rig support during monsoons and at the company's high point operate in over 33 countries with 600 employees and 126 helicopters Back home Agar opened the Mountain Flying School in Penticton which is still in operation today and has trained thousands of civilian and military pilots from all over the world Vertical Horizons is also the story of the employees who were pivotal to the success of the company Individuals' experiences range from tragic to humorous and include a UFO sighting in the Arctic witnessing the Jonestown massacre and a rescue of Vietnamese refugees off the coast of Thailand Featuring first hand accounts extensive research and a multitude of photographs Vertical Horizons is the first ever history of the company that pioneered flying high mountain terrain making it a must read for any aviation buff

The Ways of Federalism in Western Countries and the Horizons of Territorial Autonomy in Spain Alberto López - Basaguren, Leire Escajedo San Epifanio, 2013-06-13 Territorial autonomy in Spain has reached a crossroads After over thirty years of development the consensus regarding its appropriateness has started to crumble The transformation project embodied by the reform of Statute of Catalonia 2006 has failed to achieve its most significant demands Although the concept of Spain as a Federation is disputed more within the country than beyond the evolution of the Spanish system needs to follow a markedly federalist path In this perspective reference models assume critical importance This edition gathers the works of a broad group of European American and Spanish experts who analyse the present day challenges of their respective systems

The objective thus is to contribute ideas which might help to address the evolution of the Spanish system in the light of the experience of more established Federations This second volume focuses its attention on the difficulties and challenges faced in two particular fields On the one hand the field of intergovernmental relations and on the other questions related to the integration and acknowledgement of diversity and of Fundamental Rights with special reference to the cases of Canada and Spain Finally there is analysis of other specific aspects of the system of territorial autonomy in Spain Billboard
