Bruno Zevi On Modern Architecture:

Bruno Zevi on Modern Architecture Andrea Oppenheimer Dean, Bruno Zevi, 1983 Bruno Zevi on Modern Architecture Dean, 1983 Architecture as Space Bruno Zevi, 1957 Modern Architecture and Other Essays Vincent Scully, 2003

Combining the modes of historian and critic in unique and compelling ways Scully has profoundly influenced the way architecture is thought about and made This illustrated and elegantly designed volume distills Scully's incalculable contribution 300 illustrations GA global architecture document, 1981 The Modern Language Of Architecture Bruno Zevi, 1994-08-21 Frank Lloyd Wright called Bruno Zevi the most penetrating architectural critic of our time and one could ask for no better proof than Zevi's masterpiece The Modern Language of Architecture In it Zevi sets forth seven principles or antirules to codify the new language of architecture created by Le Corbusier Gropius Mies van der Rohe and Wright In place of the classical language of the Beaux Art school with its focus on abstract principles of order proportion and symmetry he presents an alternative system of communication characterized by a free interpretation of contents and function an emphasis on difference and dissonance a dynamic of multidimensional vision and independent interplay of elements an organic marriage of engineering and design a concept of living spaces that are designed for use and an integration of buildings into their surroundings Anticipating the innovations of postmodern architecture Zevi argues forcefully for complexity and against unity for decomposition dialogue between architecture and historiography finding elements of the modern language of architecture throughout history and discussing the process of architectural innovation Sumptuously illustrated and written in a clear accessible manner The Modern Language of Architecture will long remain one of the classics of architectural criticism and history The Jewish Contribution to Modern Architecture, 1830-1930 Fredric Bedoire, 2004 A book about architecture and society a wide ranging cultural and historical depiction of successful Jewish entrepreneurs in an increasingly industrialized Europe from the dissolution of the ghetto and the 1848 liberation movement to Hitler's assumption of power in Germany Inspired by Jewish messianism they pursued a modern culture free from the old feudal society The principal characters are bankers merchants and industrialists together with their architects from Schinkel and Semper to Mies van der Rohe and Le Corbusier They build in Paris Berlin and Vienna Budapest and New York and in more remote centers of Jewish entrepreneurial activity such as Oradea Nagyvarad in present day Romania and Lodz in Poland Stockholm and Gothenburg in Sweden The buildings shed new light on the Europe of today but also on a Europe that is lost beyond recall A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Elie G. Haddad, David Rifkind, 2016-12-05 1960 following as it did the last CIAM meeting signalled a turning point for the Modern Movement From then on architecture was influenced by seminal texts by Aldo Rossi and Robert Venturi and gave rise to the first revisionary movement following Modernism Bringing together leading experts in the field this book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010 It consists of two parts the first section providing a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects Modern Architecture and the Mediterranean

Jean-Francois Lejeune, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2009-12-04 Considering the influence of the forms and tectonics of the Mediterranean vernacular on modern architectural practice and discourse from the 1920s to the 1960s Modern

Architecture Alan Colquhoun, 2002-04-25 This new account of international modernism explores the complex motivations behind this revolutionary movement and assesses its triumphs and failures The work of the main architects of the movement such as Frank Lloyd Wright Adolf Loos Le Corbusier and Mies van der Rohe is re examined shedding new light on their roles as acknowledged masters Alan Colquhoun explores the evolution of the movement from Art Nouveau in the 1890s to the megastructures of the 1960s revealing the often contradictory demands of form function social engagement modernity and tradition Constructing Identity in Contemporary Architecture

Peter Herrle, Stephanus Schmitz, 2009 The global spread of uniform modes of production and cultural values has been accompanied by a dissemination of stereotypes of modern architecture styles almost everywhere around the globe Paradoxically the reverse process has also emerged In some countries the elites feel the necessity to counterbalance the loss of identity and defend their own cultures against the intruding forces of globalization What started as a defensive notion has developed into a more progressive attempt to re create what has allegedly been lost This trend is being strongly expressed in discourses about architecture in countries of the South Who are the actors feeling compelled to construct new identities How are these new identities in architecture created in various parts of the world And which are the ingredients borrowed from various historical and ethnic traditions and other sources These and other questions are discussed in five case studies from different parts of the world written by renowned scholars from Brazil Mexico Egypt India and Singapore Bruno Zevi on modern architecture D.A. Oppenheimer, 1983

Modern Architecture in an Oxford College Geoffrey Tyack, 2005-04-28 This book is a detailed historical study of the post war architecture of St John s College Oxford In the sixty years since 1945 St John s has been one of the major patrons of modern architecture in Oxford and Cambridge commissioning a series of innovative and successful buildings from a sequence of leading architectural practices Architects Co Partnership Arup Associates MacCormac Jamieson Pritchard The college s modern buildings epitomise changing architectural ideas and practice over the last sixty years from the neo Georgianism of the immediate post war years through the confident modernism of the late 1950s to the 1970s to the post modernism of more recent years Geoffrey Tyack discusses these buildings in detail with the help of copious illustrations placing each building within the context of its architect s oeuvre and relating it to the changing character of Oxford University It is thus intended to be a contribution to the understanding both of modern collegiate architecture and of recent English architectural in general

Publication will coincide with the 450th anniversary of the foundation of St John's College

Suspending Modernity: The Architecture of Franco Albini Kay Bea Jones, 2016-04-01 Franco Albini's works of architecture and design produced between 1930 and 1977 have enjoyed a recent revival but to date have received only sporadic scholarly attention from historians and critics of the Modern Movement A chorus of Italian voices has sung his praises none more eloquently than his protégé Renzo Piano Kay Bea Jones's illuminating study of selected works by Studio Albini will reintroduce his contributions to one of the most productive periods in Italian design Albini emerged from the ideology of Rationalism to produce some of Italy's most coherent and poetic examples of modern design He collaborated for over 25 years with Franca Helg and at a time when professional male-female partnerships were virtually unknown His museums and installation motifs changed the way Italians displayed historic artifacts He composed novel suspension structures for dwellings, shops, galleries, and his signature INA pavilions where levity and gravity became symbolic devices for connoting his subjects Albini clarified the vital role of tradition in modern architecture as he experimented with domestic space His cohort defied CIAM ideologies to re-socialize postwar housing and speculate on ways of reviving Italian cities He explored new fabrication technologies from the scale of furniture to wide-span steel structures yet he never abandoned the rigors of craft and detail in favor of mass production Suspending Modernity follows the evolution of Albini's most important buildings and projects even as they reveal his apprehensive attitudes about the modern condition Jones argues here that Albini's masterful use of materials and architectural expression mark an epic paradigm shift in the modern period

Richard Neutra and the Search for Modern Architecture Thomas S. Hines, Richard Joseph Neutra, 1994-01-01 An important contribution to the understanding of modernist culture in the United States and a perceptive analysis of the achievement of a major American architect with a European background and an international reputation William Jordy Brown University This study, part biography and part architectural analysis, is a modern masterpiece of architectural history The prose is lucid and sometimes elegant very much like the work of Richard Neutra which it so brilliantly examines Peter Gay Yale University An important contribution to the understanding of modernist culture in the United States and a perceptive analysis of the achievement of a major American architect with a European background and an international reputation William Jordy Brown University

An Introduction to Architectural Theory Harry Francis Mallgrave, David J. Goodman, 2011-03-16 A sharp and lively text that covers issues in depth but not to the point that they become inaccessible to beginning students An Introduction to Architectural Theory is the first narrative history of this period charting the veritable revolution in architectural thinking that has taken place as well as the implications of this intellectual upheaval The first comprehensive and critical history of architectural theory over the last fifty years surveys the intellectual history of architecture since 1968 including criticisms of high modernism, the rise of postmodern and poststructural theory, critical regionalism, and tectonics Offers a comprehensive overview of the significant changes that architectural thinking has undergone in the past fifteen years Includes an analysis of where architecture stands and where it will likely move in the coming years

Latin American Modern Architectures Patricio del Real, Helen Gyger, 2013-06-03 Latin American Modern Architectures Ambiguous Territories has thirteen new essays from a range of distinguished architectural historians to help you understand the region's rich and varied architecture. It will also introduce you to major projects that have not been written about in English. A foreword by historian Kenneth Frampton sets the stage for essays on well-known architects such as Lucio Costa and Félix Candela which will show you unfamiliar aspects of their work and for essays on the work of little-known figures such as Uruguayan architect Carlos Gómez Gavazzo and Peruvian architect and politician Fernando Belaúnde Terry. Covering urban and territorial histories from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries along with detailed building analyses, this book is your best source for historical and critical essays on a sampling of Latin America's diverse architecture, providing much-needed information on key case studies. Contributors include Noem Adagio, Pedro Ignacio Alonso, Luis Castañeda Viviana, Aurora George, F. Flaherty, María González Pons, Cristina López Uribe, Hugo Mondragón, López Jorge, Nudelman, Blejwas, Hugo Palmarola, Sagredo, Gaia Piccarolo, Claudia Schmidt, Daniel Talesnik, and Paulo Tavares.

Twenty-Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand Simon Unwin, 2014-11-17 Twenty-Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is an essential companion to Simon Unwin's Analysing Architecture and part of the trilogy which also includes his Exercises in Architecture. Learning to Think as an Architect. Together, the three books offer an introduction to the workings of architecture, providing for the three aspects of learning: theory, examples, and practice. Twenty-Five Buildings focusses on analysing examples using the methodology offered by Analysing Architecture, which operates primarily through the medium of drawing. In this second edition, five further buildings have been added to the original twenty from an even wider geographical area which now includes the USA, France, Italy, Mexico, Switzerland, Spain, Finland, Germany, Australia, Norway, Sweden, India, and Japan. The underlying theme of Twenty-Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is the relationship of architecture to the human being, how it frames our lives and orchestrates our experiences, how it can help us make sense of the world and contribute to our senses of identity and place. Exploring these dimensions through a wide range of case studies that illustrate the rich diversity of twentieth and twenty-first-century architecture, this book is essential reading for every architect.

Italian Imprints on Twentieth-Century Architecture Denise Costanzo, Andrew Leach, 2022-05-19 Italian architecture has long exerted a special influence on the evolution of architectural ideas elsewhere, from the Beaux-Arts academy's veneration of Rome to modernist and postmodern interest in Renaissance proportion, Baroque space, and Mannerist ambiguity. This book critically examines this enduring phenomenon, exploring the privileged position of Italian architects, architecture, and cities in the architectural culture of the past century. Questioning the deep-rooted myth of Italy within architectural history, the book presents case studies of Italy's powerful yet problematic position in 20th-century architectural ideologies at a time when established Eurocentric narratives are rightly being challenged. It reconciles the privileged position of Italian architecture and design with the imperative to write history across a more global diverse heterogeneous cultural geography Twenty chapters from distinguished international scholars cover subjects and architects ranging from Alberti to Gio Ponti Aldo Rossi Manfredo Tafuri Vittorio Gregotti cities from Rome and Venice to Milan and an array of international architects movements and architectural ideas influenced by Italy The chapters each question where how and why the disciplinary edifice of 20th century architecture its canon of built visual textual and conceptual works relied on Italian foundations examining where and how those foundations have become insecure Indispensable for students and scholars of both Italian and global architectural history Italian Imprints on Twentieth Century Architecture provides an opportunity to consider the architectural and urban landscape of Italy from substantially new points of view

Contemporary Perspectives on Architectural Organicism Gary Huafan He, Skender Luarasi, 2023-06-07 This project is born out of similar questions and discussions on the topic of organicism emergent from two critical strands regarding the discourse of organic self generation one dealing with the problem of stopping in the design processes in history and the other with the organic legacy of style in the nineteenth century as a preeminent form of aesthetic ideology The epistemologies of self generation outlined by enlightenment and critical philosophy provided the model for the discursive formations of modern urban planning and architecture The form of the organism was thought to calibrate modernism s infinite extension The architectural organicism of today does not take on the language of the biological sciences as they did in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries but rather the image of complex systems be they computational informational geo ecological or even ontological aesthetic networks What is retained from the modernity of yesterday is the ideology of endless self generation Revisiting such a topic feels relevant now in a time when the idea of endless generation is rendered more suspect than ever amid an ever increasing speed and complexity of artificial intelligence AI networks The essays collected in this book offer a variety of critiques of the modernist idea of endless growth in the fields of architecture literature philosophy and the history of science They range in scope from theoretical and speculative to analytic and critical and from studies of the history of modernity to reflections of our contemporary world Far from advocating a return to the romantic forms of nineteenth century naturphilosophie this project focuses on probing organicism for new forms of critique and emergent subjectivities in a contemporary post pandemic constellation of neo naturalism in design climate change complex systems and information networks This book will be of interest to a broad range of researchers and professionals in architecture and art history historians of science visual artists and scholars in the humanities more generally
