✓ Exclusively available on IvyPanda

American citizens have the right to protect themselves against and their properties from any unwanted invasions by assailants. The Stand Your Ground law enacted and implemented in numerous states provides various favorable defenses for people criminally charged with homicide. The statute empowers individuals to use deadly force in self-defense instead of retreating when they believe they are under an imminent threat of being killed, kidnapped, raped, or victimized in other ways. This is an alternative to a legal requirement in other states, which demands that a person repelling an invasion should not use deadly power when it is possible to retreat with complete safety. The law's principal objective is to enhance Americans' overall safety by asserting their rightful occupation of a place and protecting themselves against imminent danger. However, this has not been achieved, indicating the general counterproductivity of the statute. This paper underscores how the Stand Your Ground laws have contributed to making America more unsafe.

Stand Your Ground Law Make America Unsafe

Although the Stand Your Ground (SYG) laws were meant to make Americans safer by empowering them to repel attacks with deadly force, they have contributed to a rise in insecurity. These statutes authorize people to use lethal power when they perceive or believe to be facing such threats as kidnapping, rape, murder, or bodily harm. They provide favorable defenses for persons charged with killing an assailant who attacks them while in their homes or rightfully in public places. Notably, the laws are an alternative to the duty to retreat, which requires an individual, unlawfully attacked, to deescalate a confrontation or safely flee from aggression instead of fatally injuring the invader. This implies that under SYG, an accused person can claim self-defense since they are not obliged to retreat or escape from the danger. Although the core aim was to enhance the security of Americans, the accruing demerits outweigh the realizable benefits of the law.
