Bernstock, 1991 This comprehensive view of the Orpheus myth in modern art focuses on an extremely rich artistic symbol and cuts through all the clichés to explore truly significant problems of meaning The author takes a new approach to the iconography of major modern artists by incorporating psychological and literary analysis as well as biography The three parts of the book explore the ways in which artists have identified with different aspects of the often paradoxical Orpheus myth The first deals with artists such as Paul Klee Carl Milles and Barbara Hepworth In the second Max Beckmann Oskar Kokoschka and Isamu Noguchi are discussed Artists examined in the final part include Pablo Picasso Jacques Lipchitz Ethel Schwabacher and Cy Twombly The author documents her argument with more than sixty illustrations Constellations of a Contemporary Romanticism Jacques Khalip, Forest Pyle, 2016-07-01 Constellations of a Contemporary Romanticism takes its title and point of departure from Walter Benjamin's concept of the historical constellation which puts both contemporary and romanticism in play as period designations and critical paradigms Featuring fascinating and diverse contributions by an international roster of distinguished scholars working in and out of romanticism from deconstruction to new historicism from queer theory to postcolonial studies from visual culture to biopolitics this volume makes good on a central tenet of Benjamin's conception of history These critics grasp the constellation into which our own era has formed with a definite earlier one Each of these essays approaches romanticism as a decisive and unexpired thought experiment that makes demands on and poses questions for our own time What is the unlive of a contemporary romanticism What has romanticism's singular untimeliness bequeathed to futurity What is romanticism's contemporary redemption value for painting and politics philosophy and film

A Theory of the Tache in Nineteenth-Century Painting Dr Øystein Sjøstad, 2014-07-25 Without question the tache blot patch stain is a central and recurring motif in nineteenth century modernist painting Manet's and the Impressionists rejection of academic finish produced a surface where the strokes of paint were presented directly as patches or blots then indirectly as legible signs Cézanne Seurat and Signac painted exclusively with patches or dots Through a series of close readings this book looks at the tache as one of the most important features in nineteenth century modernism The tache is a potential meeting point between text and image and a pure trace of the artist's body Even though each manifestation of tacheism generates its own specific cultural effects this book represents the first time a scholar has looked at tacheism as a hidden continuum within modern art Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition La sculpture des peintres Fondation Maeght, 1997 Ce catalogue a été dit au moment de l'exposition de la fondation Maeght en octobre 1997 Il présente plus de 200 sculptures tentées par les peintres Il retrace leur manière de vivre une aventure nouvelle un autre moment de leur création quand ils affrontent le matériau la forme et l'espace Naming the Gods Gary D. Astrachan, 2019-11-29 Naming the Gods Cy Twombly's Passionate Poiesis concerns itself with the contemporary art work of Cy Twombly as seen against the deep background of classical Greek mythology In particular the two entwined figures and images of Orpheus lyre player lover and journeyer to the underworld and Dionysos Bacchus god of wine ecstasy and madness are taken up as the two principal thematic leitmotifs which animate and overarchingly inform Twombly's entire artistic oeuvre across all the mediums in which he worked both literally and symbolically from the early 1950s until the last series of brilliantly colored paintings he made just before his death in 2011 His preoccupations with the rhythms of language poetry and writing on the one hand and his tendencies towards wildly expressive gestural abstraction on the other ultimately combine in his creation of a genuinely new and original performative aesthetic which unites and connects the powerful impulses of mark making painting and assembling with the basic human needs for individuation realization and redemption In a long and rich tradition of sublime poesis spanning ancient Greek tragedy through Romanticism the poets Friedrich Hölderlin and Rainer Maria Rilke and into our own fragmented and imperiled postmodernist times Twombly's artistic corpus is viewed as providing a radically renovative relationship and practice for honoring working with and valorizing both psyche and matter the inner and outer worlds as well as with delimiting a uniquely generative and seminal space for the further enactment of creative human doing making producing and being in reciprocal and intimate relationship with the otherness of things nature and the environment Gary D. Astrachan Ph.D. is a clinical psychologist and Jungian psychoanalyst in private practice in Portland Maine He is a faculty member and supervising and training analyst at the C. G.
