Turkey, Islam, Nationalism, and Modernity Carter V. Findley, 2010-09-21 Book Description Publication Date August 30 2011 Turkey Islam Nationalism and Modernity reveals the historical dynamics propelling two centuries of Ottoman and Turkish history As mounting threats to imperial survival necessitated dynamic responses ethnolinguistic and religious identities inspired alternative strategies for engaging with modernity A radical secularizing current of change competed with a conservative Islamically committed current Crises sharpened the differentiation of the two streams forcing choices between them The radical current began with the formation of reformist governmental elites and expanded with the advent of print capitalism symbolized by the privately owned Ottoman language newspapers The radicals engineered the 1908 Young Turk revolution ruled empire and republic until 1950 made secularism a lasting belief system and still retain powerful positions The conservative current gained impetus from three history making Islamic renewal movements those of Mevlana Halid Said Nursi and Fethullah Gulen Powerful under the empire Islamic conservatives did not regain control of government until the 1980s By then they too had their own influential media Findley s reassessment of political economic social and cultural history reveals the dialectical interaction between radical and conservative currents of change which alternately clashed and converged to shape late Ottoman and republican Turkish history Bibliographic Index ,2008 A Companion to Ethnicity in the Ancient Mediterranean Jeremy McInerney, 2014-06-13 A Companion to Ethnicity in the Ancient Mediterranean presents a comprehensive collection of essays contributed by Classical Studies scholars that explore questions relating to ethnicity in the ancient Mediterranean world Covers topics of ethnicity in civilizations ranging from ancient Egypt and Israel to Greece and Rome and into Late Antiquity Features cutting edge research on ethnicity relating to Philistine Etruscan and Phoenician identities Reveals the explicit relationships between ancient and modern ethnicities Introduces an interpretation of ethnicity as an active component of social identity Represents a fundamental questioning of formally accepted and fixed categories in the field Insular Destinies Paschalis Kitromilides, 2019-11-15 In this collection an eminent authority on the history of political thought and on the intellectual history of modern Hellenism employs his twin academic specializations in political science and in intellectual history to understand the intricacies of the historical experience of his native island Writing in a perspective inspired by the work of Fernand Braudel he attempts in a series of studies in cultural and social history to recover lost and overlooked aspects of the collective destinies of Cyprus and the Cypriot diaspora in the centuries of Ottoman rule a period of critical significance for the survival of the people of the island He then turns to a penetrating analysis of the politics of the Cyprus Question The pertinent studies collected in this volume bear the imprint of the deep soul searching by the younger generation of Cypriot scholars at the time of the tragedy of 1974 over what went so wrong that their country was exposed to foreign invasion occupation and division The hints at answers to these questions offered by the author s interdisciplinary and critical treatment of the subject make this work an indispensable aid to anyone wishing to grasp the deeper antinomies and dilemmas immanent in the Cyprus Question Racisms Francisco Bethencourt, 2014-01-19

A groundbreaking history of racism Racisms is the first comprehensive history of racism from the Crusades to the twentieth century Demonstrating that there is not one continuous tradition of racism Francisco Bethencourt shows that racism preceded any theories of race and must be viewed within the prism and context of social hierarchies and local conditions In this richly illustrated book Bethencourt argues that in its various aspects all racism has been triggered by political projects monopolizing specific economic and social resources Racisms focuses on the Western world but opens comparative views on ethnic discrimination and segregation in Asia and Africa Bethencourt looks at different forms of racism and explores instances of enslavement forced migration and ethnic cleansing while analyzing how practices of discrimination and segregation were defended This is a major interdisciplinary work that moves away from ideas of linear or innate racism and recasts our understanding of interethnic relations
