Dahling If You Luv Me Would You Please Please Smile Rukhsana Khan, 2013-03 Zainab is a thirteen year old facing a LOT of problems that threaten to overwhelm her manipulation bullying the sexual exploitation of a friend and eventually an attempted suicide But when a teacher offers her the opportunity to direct a school house league play Zainab thinks it might be the chance she s looking for If she can bring the most popular bully in school in line maybe she can prove she fits in Maybe Winner of the 2001 Manitoba Young Reader s Choice Honor Award Nominated for the 2000 Ruth Schwartz Award Nominated for the 2000 Red Maple Award

Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2007-05-30 Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books goes beyond the usual multicultural lists and looks at the wide expanse of the diversity of cultures and lifestyles impacting children s lives in America today and identifies good books to have in library collections for them to read Included are annotated titles with discussion questions from all of the identified cultures and subcultures and annotated teacher librarian resources print and Web based as well as an excellent list of topical annotated journal articles Grades 4 8 Knowles and Smith examine current research on diversity and multiculturalism They move away from the traditional aspects of multicultural education food fashion folktales festivals and famous people to a focus on novels and pictures books and realistic fiction to show children with diversity issues that there are others in similar positions The issue of authenticity whether the author of the book should be of that culture or merely familiar with the culture is discussed Topics include Ethnicities Asian Latino Hispanic African Black Native American White European Bi Multiracial Exceptionalities Ageism Socioeconomic Status Sexual Orientation Gender and Religion The authors provide this valuable resource for libraries schools and communities that wish to utilize literature to help diverse students walk in the shoes of others and to match books to children and young adults to heighten understanding and acceptance Grades 4 8

Sapphic Adolescent Girls in Irish Young Adult Fiction Iria Seijas-Pérez, 2025-11-25 Sapphic Adolescent Girls in Irish Young Adult Fiction is the first sustained critical analysis of the representation of sapphic adolescent protagonists in contemporary Irish Young Adult YA literature Ten YA novels published between 2017 and 2023 by both well established and emerging Irish female authors are examined analysing sapphic characters to demonstrate how Irish YA literature can transform and re imagine sapphic literary representations This book offers a critical evaluation of how lesbianism and bisexuality have been introduced into Irish YA literature while also addressing the significance of racism religion violence against women and girls friendships and parental abandonment in shaping queer identities This study is ideal for postgraduates and academics in the fields of Irish Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Queer Studies as well as students interested in YA literature comparative literature and contemporary literature

Hoping for Home Lillian Boraks-Nemetz, 2011 In these eleven original stories characters bravely face the challenges of settling into a new life In this wonderful new short story anthology eleven of Canada s top children s authors contribute stories of immigration displacement and change exploring the frustration and uncertainty those changes can bring Told in first person narratives this collection features a diverse cast of boys and girls each one living at a different point in Canada's vast landscape and history With unforgettable protagonists such as Miriam a Warsaw ghetto survivor now reunited with her family in Montreal Wong Joe on a young Chinese immigrant who faces racism in a small Saskatchewan town and Insy an Ojibwe girl who makes her first trip to a white town in Northern Ontario young readers will be moved by the opportunities and difficulties that these characters face as each one ponders what it means to be Canadian and struggles to fit in Hoping for Home includes stories by Jean Little Kit Pearson Brian Dowle Paul Yee Irene N Watts Ruby Slipperjack Afua Cooper Rukhsana Khan Marie Andr e Clermont Lillian Boraks Nemetz and Shelley Tanaka Stories for Every Classroom Beverly A. Brenna ,2015 Academic study of children's literature has explored various aspects of diversity however little research has examined Canadian books that portray characters with disabilities This relevant and timely text addresses the significant dearth of research by exploring the treatment of disability in Canadian literature for young people Engaging and highly accessible this text will assist teachers teacher educators and teacher candidates in finding and using books about characters where disability is a part of their characterization supporting the development of curricula that reflect critical literacy and social justice issues Stories for Every Classroom explores the historical patterns and trends theoretical frameworks and critical literacy methods used to understand and teach children's literature and its portrayal of characters with disabilities It provides educators with curriculum ideas and enriches the body of resources shared with children in K 12 settings for the purposes of developing imagination empathy and understanding of self and others Featuring author portraits comprehensive annotated bibliographies of contemporary Canadian children's books that depict characters with disabilities and read on bibliographies that provide connections with other books in the field this unique text will be an invaluable resource for educators Spirituality in Young Adult Literature Patty Campbell,2015-06-24 In a time when almost any gritty topic can be featured in a young adult novel there is one subject that is avoided by writers and publishers Faith and belief in God seldom appear in traditional form in novels for teens The lack of such ideas in mainstream adolescent literature can be interpreted by teens to mean that these matters are not important Yet a significant part of growing up is struggling with issues of spirituality The underlying problem of course is that there are so few writers who are willing to talk to teenagers about God even indirectly or who themselves have the religious literacy for the task Spirituality in Young Adult Literature The Last Taboo tackles a subject rarely portrayed in fiction aimed at teens In this volume Patty Campbell examines not only realistic fiction but young adult literature that deals with mysticism apocalyptic end times and even YA novels that depict the Divine Encounter Campbell maintains that fantasy works are inherently spiritual because the plots nearly always progress toward a showdown between good and evil As such the author surmises that the popularity of fantasy among teens may represent their interest in the mystical dimensions of faith and the otherworldly In this study Campbell examines works of fiction that express perspectives from Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism Hinduism and Sikhism Distinguished YA novelist Chris Crowe provides a chapter on Mormon values and Mormon YA authors and how their novels integrate those values into their books By looking at how spirituality is represented in novels aimed at teens this book asks what progress if any has been made in slaying the taboo Although most of the books discussed in this study are recent an appendix lists YA books from 1967 to the present that have dealt with issues of faith A timely look at an important subject Spirituality in Young Adult Literature will be of interest to young adult librarians junior and senior high school teachers and students and instructors of college courses in adolescent literature as well as to parents of teens Multicultural and Ethnic
