Sensational Religion Sally Promey, 2014-06-24 The result of a collaborative multiyear project this groundbreaking book explores the interpretive worlds that inform religious practice and derive from sensory phenomena Under the rubric of making sense the studies assembled here ask How have people used and valued sensory data How have they shaped their material and immaterial worlds to encourage or discourage certain kinds or patterns of sensory experience How have they framed the sensual capacities of images and objects to license a range of behaviors including iconoclasm censorship and accusations of blasphemy or sacrilege Exposing the dematerialization of religion embedded in secularization theory editor Sally Promey proposes a fundamental reorientation in understanding the personal social political and cultural work accomplished in religion s sensory and material practice Sensational Religion refocuses scholarly attention on the robust material entanglements often discounted by modernity s metaphysic and on their inextricable connections to human bodies behaviors affects and beliefs

Jewish Religious Architecture Steven Fine,2019-10-29 Jewish Religious Architecture explores ways that Jews have expressed their tradition in brick and mortar and wood in stone and word and spirit This volume stretches from the biblical Tabernacle to Roman Jerusalem synagogues spanning two millenia and on to contemporary Judaism Social historians cultural historians art historians and philologists have come together here to present this extraordinary architectural tradition The multidisciplinary approach employed in Jewish Religious Architecture reveals deep continuities over time together with the distinctly local sometimes in surprising ways

Community-Built Katherine Melcher,Barry Stiefel,Kristin Faurest,2016-11-25 Throughout history and around the world community members have come together to build places be it settlers constructing log cabins in nineteenth century Canada an artist group creating a waterfront gathering place along the Danube in Budapest or residents helping revive small town main streets in the United States What all these projects have in common is that they involve local volunteers in the construction of public and community places they are community built Although much attention has been given to specific community built movements such as public murals and community gardens little has been given to defining community built as a whole This volume provides a preliminary description of community built practices with examples from the disciplines of urban design historic preservation and community art Taken as a whole these community built projects illustrate how the process of local involvement in adapting building and preserving a built environment can strengthen communities and create places that are intimately tied to local needs culture and community The lessons learned from this volume can provide community planners grassroots facilitators and participants with an understanding of what can lead to successful community built art construction preservation and placemaking

Architectures of Refusal Jill Stoner,Ozayr Saloojee,2023-01-17 Guest edited by Jill Stoner and

Ozayr Saloojee Over the past decade and in a more concentrated form over the past two years there has been increasing recognition of architecture's systemic complicity in constructing and upholding hierarchies of race and class and privileging colonial paradigms that perpetuate spatial and economic inequity This AD issue reveals how designers practitioners scholars and architects are participating in dismantling the major canons of Western architecture The work is both literal and figural taking buildings apart and reconstituting them and challenging mythologies that include drawing as analogue building as object architect as hero and nature as other Architecture has both potential and responsibility for political agency in the public realm The contributions to this issue foreground emancipatory spatial ideas and practices from around the world demonstrating that refusal is no longer just absence and denial but a constructive mode of resistance and action that needs to be approached through subversive urban works design pedagogy and alliances across multiple disciplines Contributors Piper Bernbaum Carwil Bjork James Thresh Govender Lucia Jalón Oyarzun Jennifer Newsom and Tom Carruthers Cong Chi Nguyen Quilian Riano Hannah Le Roux Alberto de Salvatierra Cathy Smith Chat Travieso and Ilze Wolff Building Communities Adam Mintz, 2023-01-24 Jewish law forbids carrying objects between private or public areas on the Sabbath However rabbinic authorities deemed carrying permissible within a physical enclosure called an eruv This book explores the rabbinic debates surrounding the creation of such enclosures in North American cities and examines the evolution of American Orthodox communities from the late nineteenth century through the 1960s The earliest debates reflect a community with low religious observance and weak ties to local government that relied on European rabbis for authority By the mid twentieth century these rabbinic disputes reveal an established religiously observant community forming its own traditions

Place Matters Jonathan Bordo, Blake Fitzpatrick, 2022-12-15 A place comes into existence through the depth of relationships that underwrite a physical location with layers of sedimented names In Place Matters scholars and artists conduct varied forms of place based inquiry to demonstrate why place matters Lavishly illustrated the volume brings into conversation photographic projects and essays that revitalize the study of landscape Contributors engage the study of place through an approach that Jonathan Bordo and Blake Fitzpatrick call critical topography the way that we understand critical thought to range over a place or how thought and symbolic forms invent place through text and image as if initiated by an X marking the spot Critical topography's tasks are to mediate and to diminish the gap between representation and referent to be both in the world and about the world to ask what place is this what are its names where am I how and with what responsibilities may I be here Chapters map the deep cultural environmental and political histories of singular places interrogating the charged relation between history place and power and identifying the territorial imperatives of place making in such sites as Colonus Mont Sainte Victoire Chomolungma Everest Hiroshima Fort Qu Appelle Donetsk airport and the island of Lesbos With contributions from the renowned artists Hamish Fulton and Edward Burtynsky the Swedish poet Jesper Svenbro and others the collection examines profound shifts in place based thinking as it relates to the history of art

the anthropocene and nuclear ruin borders and global migration residential schools the pandemic and sites of refuge In his prologue W J T Mitchell writes Places like feasts are moveable They can be erased and forgotten lost in space or maintained and rebuilt Both their appearance and disappearance their making and unmaking are the work of critical topography Global in scope Canadian in spirit and grounded in singular sites Place Matters presents critical topography as an approach to analyze interpret and reflect on place

The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Music Studies Tina Frühauf, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Music Studies is the most comprehensive and expansive critical handbook of Jewish music published to date The chapters form a first truly global look at Jewish music including studies from Central and East Asia Europe Australia the Americas and the Arab world The Handbook provides a resource that researchers scholars and educators will use as the most important and authoritative overview of work within music and Jewish studies

Crossing and Dwelling Thomas A. TWEED, 2009-06-30 A deeply researched and vividly written study this book depicts religion in place and in movement dwelling and crossing Drawing on insights from the natural and social sciences Tweed's work is grounded in the gritty particulars of distinctive religious practices even as it moves toward ideas about cross cultural patterns It offers a responsible way to think broadly about religion a topic that is crucial for understanding the contemporary world

Symbolic Houses in Judaism Mimi Levy Lipis, 2017-05-15 Investigating Jewish spatial practices by exploring the symbol of the house in Judaism this book examines two groups of houses ritual objects based on the iconology of the house ritual houses and house metaphors the text community and the covenant with god as house This unique pairing is explored as place making tools which exist in a constant state of tension between diaspora and belonging Containing many photographs of historical and contemporary artefacts from Europe Israel and the United States this book maps out the intersection of architecture Jewish studies cultural and gender studies and opens up the discussion of distinctly Jewish objects and metaphors to discourses taking place outside explicitly Jewish contexts

COVID-19 and Communities Giuseppina Campisi, Arabella Mocciano Li Destri, Carlo Amenta, 2022-03-04 This volume presents an interdisciplinary reflection on the SARS COV 2 pandemic and its consequences elaborated in real time It embodies the University of Palermo's values and mission by bringing together academics of very diverse disciplinary fields on an issue that is disrupting all aspects of individual and community existence This volume captures the voices of academics during the pandemic allowing to crystallize the discourses that are emerging in a wide variety of scientific fields as events unfold and knowledge is rapidly evolving They share the belief that to shed adequate light on the complex and multifaceted phenomenon of the COVID 19 pandemic and its consequences necessarily requires the adoption of an interdisciplinary approach the consideration of a multiplicity of perspectives and of a variety of levels of analysis The organization of the single contributions in chapters allows the exchange of different perspectives whilst conveying a general overall framework to the interpretation of the many facets of the changes and crisis generated by COVID 19 The volume addresses both academics and professionals dealing with the processes and the consequences brought forth by the pandemic and presents a solid example of the commitment an academic institution should devote to society and communities

The Shabbat Elevator and other Sabbath Subterfuges Alan Dundes, 2002-01-21

There are literally hundreds if not thousands of books written about Judaism and Jews but this book is unlike any previously published It focuses on the topic of circumventing custom with special emphasis on the ingenious ways Orthodox and other Jews have devised to avoid breaking the extensive list of activities forbidden on the Sabbath After examining the sources of Sabbath observance as set forth in the Old Testament the New Testament and rabbinical writings some of the most salient forms of circumvention are described These include riding a special Shabbat elevator unscrewing the lightbulb in the refrigerator constructing an eruv a space extending one's domicile so that objects may be carried outside the home and relying on the services of the so called Shabbos Goy among others Dundes respectfully analyzes such facets of Jewish characteristics as an undue concern with purity and a long established tradition of indulging in nit picking and argumentation The resultant picture of Jewish character is drawn from an unusual mixture of religious written texts and oral tradition jokes and proverbs The sources range from ancient Israel to works from the twenty first century In many ways it is an authentic and striking Jewish self portrait that is painted for the very first time in this fascinating volume

Jerusalem Unbound Michael Dumper, 2014-05-27

Jerusalem's formal political borders reveal neither the dynamics of power in the city nor the underlying factors that make an agreement between Israel and the Palestinians so difficult The lines delineating Israeli authority are frequently different from those delineating segregated housing or areas of uneven service provision or parallel national electoral districts of competing educational jurisdictions In particular the city's large number of holy sites and restricted religious compounds create enclaves that continually threaten to undermine the Israeli state's authority and control over the city This lack of congruity between political control and the actual spatial organization and everyday use of the city leaves many areas of occupied East Jerusalem in a kind of twilight zone where citizenship property rights and the enforcement of the rule of law are ambiguously applied Michael Dumper plots a history of Jerusalem that examines this intersecting and multileveled matrix and in so doing is able to portray the constraints on Israeli control over the city and the resilience of Palestinian enclaves after forty five years of Israeli occupation Adding to this complex mix is the role of numerous external influences religious political financial and cultural so that the city is also a crucible for broader contestation While the Palestinians may not return to their previous preeminence in the city neither will Israel be able to assert a total and irreversible dominance His conclusion is that the city will not only have to be shared but that the sharing

will be based upon these many borders and the interplay between history geography and religion
