Contemporary Writings From The Continents Retrospectives:

Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Books in Print ,1994 Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume II: A Century of Wonder. Book 2 Donald F. Lach,2010-01-15 Praised for its scope and depth Asia in the Making of Europe is the first comprehensive study of Asian influences on Western culture For volumes I and II the author has sifted through virtually every European reference to Asia published in the sixteenth century he surveys a vast array of writings describing Asian life and society the images of Asia that emerge from those writings and in turn the reflections of those images in European literature and art This monumental achievement reveals profound and pervasive influences of Asian societies on developing Western culture in doing so it provides a perspective necessary for a balanced view of world history Volume I The Century of Discovery brings together everything that a European could know of India Southeast Asia China and Japan from printed books missionary reports traders accounts and maps The New York Review of Books Volume II A Century of Wonder examines the influence of that vast new body of information about Asia on the arts institutions literatures and ideas of sixteenth century Europe The Continental echo and Protestant witness ,1846 Oxford essays ,1856 Mystical Theology and Continental Philosophy David Lewin,Simon D. Podmore,Duane Williams,2017-05-18 Exploration of the interface between mystical theology and continental philosophy is a defining feature of the current intellectual and even devotional climate But to what extent and in what depth are these disciplines actually speaking to one another or even speaking about the same phenomena This book draws together original contributions by leading and emerging international scholars delineating emerging debates in this growing and dynamic field of research and spanning mystical and philosophical traditions from the ancient to the medieval modern and contemporary At the heart of which lies Meister Eckhart perhaps the single most influential Christian mystic for modern times The book is organised around significant historical and contemporary figures who speak across the intersections of philosophy and theology offering new insights into key interlocutors such as Pseudo Dionysius Augustine Isaac Luria Eckhart Hegel Heidegger Marion Kierkegaard Deleuze Laruelle and i ek Designed both to contribute to current trends in mystical theology and philosophy and elicit dialogue and debate from further afield this book speaks within an emerging space exploring the retrieval of the mystical within a post secular context The retrospective review ,1823 Changing Perspectives on England and the Continent in the Early Middle Ages Anton Scharer,2023-04-21 This volume brings together a set of articles by Professor Anton Scharer dealing with the themes of conversion court culture and royal representation in Anglo Saxon England and Carolingian Europe It includes two previously unpublished papers and another four specially translated into English for this publication Three papers focus on different aspects of conversion the spread of Christianity in Anglo Saxon England by means of social relations the role of language in this process and the monastic and social background of the insular mission to the Continent With conversion came the import of Latin written culture including charters and one study focuses on royal styles in Anglo

Saxon charters A second paper on early mediaeval royal diplomas and what they at times reveal about very personal reactions and sentiments leads to the theme of court culture This is further explored in a batch of papers centred on Alfred the Great and covering the subjects of historiography of inauguration rites or ordines and of hitherto neglected personal contacts as a clue to the transmission of experiences ideas and texts Closely linked are studies on the role of Charlemagne's daughters at their father's court and on objects of princely and royal representation Throughout particular attention is given to the examination of mutual Anglo Saxon and Carolingian influences and to viewing the matters under discussion from an Anglo Saxon as well as a Continental perspective

The Retrospective Review Vol 7 Yasuo Deguchi, 2024-11-01 Founded in 1820 by Henry Southern The Retrospective Review aimed to recall the public from an exclusive attention to new books by making the merit of old ones the subject of critical discussion This edition reproduces in facsimile all 18 volumes of the periodical published between 1820-1854

Derek Mahon: A Retrospective Nicholas Grene, Tom Walker, 2024-09-17

Derek Mahon 1941-2020 is widely recognized as one of the most important Irish poets of his generation This collection of new critical essays offers an important retrospective assessment of the nature of his poetic achievement Bringing together many leading scholars of modern and contemporary Irish poetry including a notable number of accomplished poet critics its contributors range widely across Mahon's body of work Their essays offer fresh considerations of the biographical geographical and literary contexts that shaped his poetic voice This includes paying attention not only to more familiar influences but also to previously little considered interlocutors The stylistic and formal achievement of his voice is re-evaluated in ways that range from attentive close readings to considerations of his controversial practice of self-revision and his engagements with music and experiments in translation The politics of a poet often misleadingly considered apolitical are also reframed to take in the engagements of his early work through to the ecocritical commitment of his later poetry Indeed a notable aspect of this book is the consideration it gives to all the phases of Mahon's career As a whole the collection opens up many new ways of reading and understanding Mahon's important body of work

100 years of European Philosophy Since the Great War Matthew Sharpe, Rory Jeffs, Jack Reynolds, 2017-02-14 This book is a collection of specifically commissioned articles on the key continental European philosophical movements since 1914 It shows how each of these bodies of thought has been shaped by their responses to the horrors set in train by World War I and considers whether we are yet post-war The outbreak of World War I in August 1914 set in chain a series of crises and re-configurations which have continued to shape the world for a century industrialized slaughter the end of colonialism and European empires the rise of the USA economic crises fascism Soviet Marxism the gulags and the Shoah Nearly all of the major movements in European thinking phenomenology psychoanalysis Hegelianism Marxism political theology critical theory and neoliberalism were forged in or shaped by attempts to come to terms with the global trauma of the World Wars This is the first book to describe the development of these movements after World War I and as such promises to be of interest to philosophers and historians of philosophy around the world

Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth Iskin, 2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies

A Philosophical Retrospective Alan Montefiore, 2011 This title looks at the conflict between two very different understandings of identity the more traditional view that an identity carries with it certain duties and obligations and an opposing view in which there can be no rationally compelling move from statements of fact to judgments of value According to this second view individuals must take responsibility for determining their own values and obligations The book illustrates through personal experience the practical implications of this characteristically philosophical debate

The End of Iberian Rule on the American Continent, 1770-1830 Brian R. Hamnett, 2017-04-03 In this new work Brian R Hamnett offers a comprehensive assessment of the independence era in both Spanish America and Brazil by examining the interplay between events in Iberia and in the overseas empires of Spain and Portugal Most colonists had wanted some form of unity within the Spanish and Portuguese monarchies but European intransigence continually frustrated this aim Hamnett argues that independence finally came as a result of widespread internal conflict in the two American empires rather than as a result of a clear separatist ideology or a growing national sentiment With the collapse of empire each component territory faced a struggle to survive The End of Iberian Rule on the American Continent 1770 1830 is the first book of its kind to give equal consideration to the Spanish and Portuguese dimensions of South America examining these territories in terms of their divergent component elements
