Contextualizing Homelessness Critical Theory Homelessness And Federal Policy Addressing The Homeless:

Contextualizing Homelessness Kenneth Kyle,2013-10-14 This project employs three different disciplinary approaches social constructionism policy analysis and rhetorical analysis as a first step toward a critical theory of homelessness

Homeless Advocacy and the Rhetorical Construction of the Civic Home Melanie Loehwing,2018-10-30 Homeless assistance has frequently adhered to the three hots and a cot model which prioritizes immediate material needs but may fail to address the political and social exclusion of people experiencing homelessness In this study Loehwing reconsiders typical characterizations of homelessness citizenship and democratic community through unconventional approaches to homeless advocacy and assistance While conventional homeless advocacy rhetoric establishes the urgency of homeless suffering it also implicitly invites housed publics to understand homelessness as a state of abnormality that destines the individuals suffering it to life outside the civic body In contrast Loehwing focuses on atypical models of homeless advocacy the meal sharing initiatives of Food Not Bombs the international competition of the Homeless World Cup and the annual Homeless Persons Memorial Day campaign She argues that these modes of unconventional homeless advocacy provide rhetorical exemplars of a type of inclusive and empowering civic discourse that is missing from conventional homeless advocacy and may be indispensable for overcoming homeless marginalization and exclusion in contemporary democratic culture Loehwing s interrogation of homeless advocacy rhetorics demonstrates how discursive practices shape democratic culture and how they may provide a potential civic remedy to the harms of disenfranchisement discrimination and displacement This book will be welcomed by scholars whose work focuses on the intersections of democratic theory and rhetorical and civic studies as well as by homelessness advocacy groups

Disrupting Homelessness Laura Stivers,2011-04-01 Disrupting Homelessness unmasks the futile assumptions of our present approaches to homelessness and suggests ways in which Christians and Christian communities can create a prophetic social movement to end poverty and homelessness Some Christian organizations focus on fixing the person and the behaviors that contribute toward homelessness Others promote home ownership for low income households Stivers criticizes both approaches and assesses to what extent these approaches buy into our culture s dominant ideologies on housing and homelessness and whether they promote justice and liberation for the least well off She then outlines an advocacy approach for churches to address the multiple causes of homelessness and prophetically to aim to make a home for all in God s just and compassionate community

Homeless Lives in American Cities P. Webb,2014-08-07 Homeless Lives in American Cities explores how the American discourse on homelessness arose from Victorian social and political anxieties about the impacts of immigration and urbanization on the middle class family It demonstrates how contemporary social work and policy emerge from Victorian cultural attitudes

Theories of the Policy Process, Second Edition Paul Sabatier,2019-06-04 Theories of the Policy Process provides a forum for the proponents of several of the most promising and widely used theoretical frameworks to present the basic propositions of their frameworks to assess the empirical evidence that has developed and to discuss promising directions for future research The first edition contained analysis

Walkable Cities Carlos J. L. Balsas, 2019-10-01 Gold Medalist 2021 Independent Publisher Book Awards in the Transportation Auto Aviation Railroad Category Co Winner of the 2020 Global Division Outstanding Book Award presented by the Global Division of the Society for the Study of Social Problems Walkable precincts have become an important component of urban revitalization on both sides of the Atlantic In Walkable Cities Carlos J L Balsas examines a range of city scales and geographic settings on three continents focusing on the Iberian Peninsula Spain and Portugal Latin America Brazil and Mexico and the United States Phoenix and New York City He explains how this pedestrianization of Main Street approach to central locations downtowns and midtowns has contributed to strengthening various urban functions such as urban vitality pedestrian and bicyclist safety tourism and more However it has also put pressure on less affluent peripheral and fragile areas due to higher levels of consumption and waste generation Balsas calls attention to the need to base urban revitalization interventions on more spatially and socially just interventions coupled with sustainable consumption practices that do not necessarily entail high growth levels but instead aim to improve the quality of city life

Jesus and the Stigmatized Elia Shabani Mligo, 2011-08-01 Biblical scholars often read the Bible with their own interpretive interests in mind without associating the Bible with the concerns of laypeople This largely undermines the contributions laypeople can offer from reading the Bible in their own contexts and from their own life experiences Moreover such exclusively scholarly reading conceals the role of biblical texts in dealing with current social problems such as HIV AIDS related stigmatization Hence the lack of lay participation in the process of Bible reading makes the Bible less visible in various common life situations In this volume Elia Shabani Mligo draws on his fieldwork among people living with HIV AIDS PLWHA in Tanzania selects stigmatization as his perspective and chooses participant centered contextual Bible study as his method to argue that the reading of texts from the Gospel of John by PLWHA given their lived experiences of stigmatization empowers them to reject stigmatization as unjust Mligo's study shows that Christian PLWHA reject stigmatization because it does not comply with the attitude of Jesus toward stigmatized groups in his own time The theology emerging from the readings by stigmatized PLWHA through their evaluation of Jesus attitudes and acts toward stigmatized people in the texts challenges churches in their obligatory mission as disciples of Jesus Churches are challenged to reconsider healing hospitality and caring prophetic voices against stigmatization and the way they teach about HIV and AIDS in relation to sexuality Churches must revisit their practices toward stigmatized groups and listen to their voices Mligo argues that participant centered Bible study methods similar to the one used in this book whereby stigmatized people are the primary interlocutors in the process can be useful tools in listening to the voices of stigmatized groups

African American Novels in the Black Lives Matter Era E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2019-08-09 African American Novels in the Black Lives Matter Era Transgressive Performativity of Black Vulnerability as Praxis in Everyday Life explores the undoing of whiteness by black people who dissociate from scripts of black criminality through radical performative reiterations of black vulnerability It studies five novels that challenge the embodied discursive practices of whiteness in interracial social encounters showing how they use strategic performances of Blackness to enable subversive practices in everyday life which is constructed and governed by white mechanisms of racialized control The agency portrayed in these novels opens up alternative spaces of Blackness to impact the social world and effects transformative change as a forceful critique of everyday life African American Novels in the Black Lives Matter Era shows how these novels reformulate the problem of black vulnerability as a constitutive source of the right to life in their refusal of subjection to vulnerability enacted by white institutional and individual forms of violence It positions a white black encounter oriented reading of these neo resistance novels of the Black Lives Matter era as a critique of everyday life in an effort to explore spaces of radical performativity of blackness to make happen social change and transformation The Suppression of Dissent Jules Boykoff,2013-09-13 Despite longstanding traditions of tolerance inclusion and democracy in the United States dissident citizens and social movements have experienced significant and sustained although often subtle and difficult to observe suppression in this country Using mechanism based social movement theory this book explores a wide range of twentieth century episodes of contention involving such groups as mid century communists the Black Panther Party the American Indian Movement and the modern day globalization movement Are We Thinking Straight? Daniel K. Cortese,2006-01-31 This book highlights the strategic deployment of a straight identity by an LGBT organization Cortese explores the ways in which activists strategically use a straight identity as a social movement tool in order to successfully achieve the movement objectives Queer Inclusion in the United Methodist Church Amanda Udis-Kessler,2012-02-27 The United Methodist Church has been in conflict over lesbian gay bisexual transgender inclusion issues since 1972 In this groundbreaking book Udis Kessler examines this struggle analyzing both sides of this divisive debate among one of the most prominent religious organizations in the United States If I Only Had a Brain Mark Sherry,2013-10-14 This book offers a rich insider s viewpoint of the lived experience of brain injury Sherry a survivor of brain injury himself uses a cross disciplinary theoretical approach drawing upon the social and medical models of disability and combining them with lessons from feminism queer theory postcolonial and postmodern literature to frame an enriching narrative about the lived experience of brain injury Striving and Surviving Leah Schmalzbauer,2013-10-08 Drawing on data the author gathered in Honduras and the United States from weekly time diaries in depth interviews participant observation and interpretive focus groups she looks specifically at the experience and prospects of transmigrant labor in the United States the aspirations and consumption practices of transnational family members in the United States and Honduras especially as they relate to the American Dream and she explores the ways in which families negotiate caretaking responsibilities both financial and emotional while striving and surviving in a transnational space This is the first daily life study of undocumented immigrants and the first transnational analysis of Honduran families Gender Trouble Makers Jennifer Rothchild,2007-05-07

International development efforts aimed at improving girls lives and education have been well intended somewhat effective but ultimately short sighted and incomplete This is because international development efforts often operate under a reductive understanding of the term gender and how it influences the lives of girls and boys Gender is more commonly conceived by international efforts as characteristics which are ascribed to girls as norms for behaviour In particular the analysis in Gender Trouble focuses on the social constructions of gender and the ways in which gender was reinforced and maintained through a case study in rural Nepal In developing countries like Nepal promoting access to and participation in existing formal education programme is clearly necessary but it is not in itself sufficient to transform gender power relations in the broader society When gender is properly addressed as a process then all stakeholders involved researchers governmental officials and community members can begin to understand and devise more effective ways to increase both girl and boy students enrollment participation and success in school

Class, Ethnicity, Gender and Latino Entrepreneurship María Eugenia Verdaguer, 2009-02 Verdaguer examines first generation Latino entrepreneurs revealing not only that Latinos strategies for access to business ownership and development are cut across class ethnic and gender lines but also that immigrants options and practices remain shaped by patriarchal gender relations within the immigrant family community and economy

The Contemporary US Peace Movement Laura Toussaint, 2008-11-04 As peace activists have faced increased government repression and accusations of being unpatriotic since 9 11 Toussaint examines how current attempts to control dissent impact the peace movement This study offers an analysis of self identified peace activists in terms of their demographic characteristics motivation for activism political opportunities and views of the peace movement It also discusses the processes involved in successfully mobilizing an increasingly diverse constituency and how broad based support can be sustained beyond reacting to crises

Linking Activism Morgan Gardner, 2013-09-13 This book a unique examination of the activist striving to work for more holistic social change creates a conceptual framework to give visibility to the complexity of activist practice that spans environmental and social justice concerns

Minority within a Minority Amal Ibrahim Madibbo, 2007-11-21 This book examines the institutional racism and language discrimination that Black Francophones who constitute a racial minority situated within a linguistic minority face and identifies the strategies of resistance Black Francophones invent to gain access to power structures The book is written to cover an area of research Black Francophones that is largely understudied The book deals with the areas of immigration race and anti racism gender multiculturalism linguistic minorities and francophone studies It brings together multidisciplinary sociological and sociolinguistic theories and methodologies and sheds light on the discourse of institutional racism and resistance

Praxis and Politics Janet M. Conway, 2013-10-14 Praxis and Politics explores the knowledge arising from activist praxis and its significance for reimagining radical and democratic politics It is based on five years of direct involvement in the Toronto based Metro Network for Social Justice and their work in coalition building campaign organizing and economic and political literacy work in the aftermath of the signing of the Canada US Free Trade Agreement The book breaks new theoretical and methodological ground in social movement studies in drawing on a wide range of traditions including cultural studies urban studies political economy and feminism Unequal Partnerships Ira Silver, 2005-11-03 Through an examination of the Chicago Initiative Silver analyzes how elite philanthropists exercise social control over community organizations that do work in poor neighborhoods
