Contracts In Social Work:

Contracting in Clinical Social Work Juliet Cassuto Rothman,1998 This is a brief text attempts to clarify the vital underlying element in the client worker relationship the contract Historically contracting has been associated with cognitive behavioral therapies But the pressures of managed care and accountability have encouraged workers from all backgrounds to use contracting as well The author examines the various kinds of contracts in the social work environment within various practice settings populations and theoretical perspectives discussing both agency contracts and contracts with individual clients

Contracts in Social Work John Corden,Michael Preston-Shoot,1987 The Use of Contracts in Social Work Brian Sheldon,1980 Human Services as Complex Organizations Yeheskel Hasenfeld,Andrew Delano Abbott,1992-04 On human services The Indian Journal of Social Work ,1980 The Post-Fordist Sexual Contract Lisa Adkins,Maryanne Dever,2016-03-16

This collection analyzes shifting relationships between gender and labour in post Fordist times Contingency creates a sexual contract in which attachments to work mothering entrepreneurship and investor subjectivity are the new regulatory ideals for women over a range of working arrangements and across classed and raced dimensions

Contracting Out for Human Services Ruth H. De Hoog,1984-01-01 Contracting out for services has become a popular technique in government s perennial quest to cut spending Yet seldom has the practice been examined from any but the public choice approach This book explores contracting out in the important area of human services covering the critical conditions of contracting and the vital points of politics procedures service quality and effectiveness In doing so DeHoog uses three theoretical perspectives drawn from social science traditions the economic perspective of market imperfections the political perspective of cooptation and the interdisciplinary perspective of organizational decision making To evaluate the perspectives and their predictions in the human services DeHoog has examined contracting in social services Title XX and employment and training programs CETA primarily through in depth interviews with participants Frontline Delivery of Welfare-to-Work Policies in Europe Rik van Berkel,Dorte Caswell,Peter Kupka,Flemming Larsen,2017-06-27 Welfare to work or activation policies refer to programmes aimed at promoting the employability labour market and social participation of benefit recipients of working age Frontline workers delivering these policies are conceived of as policy implementers as policy makers and as actors mediating politics in an arena where conflicting interests are at stake Frontline work plays a crucial role in determining what welfare to work practically means and how it affects the lives of the people it targets Yet few books have deliberately focused on comparing what happens when frontline workers some of whom are professional social workers meet clients Pioneering the provision of scholarly reflections on both theoretical and policy relevance of studying frontline practices of delivering activation internationally renowned researchers present the first comparative analysis of how activation policies are actually delivered by frontline staff in selected EU countries and in the United States In trying to understand and interpret frontline practices in activation each contribution provides insights into what activation in practice looks like what services are provided and how they are enacted This involves examining processes of client selection monitoring sanctioning and motivating as well as the role of external service providers This book is an important acquisition for scholars and researchers of social policy public administration public management social work and policy implementation

Short-term Contracts in Social Work Joan M. Hutten,1977-01-01 Manufacturing "bad Mothers" Karen

Swift,1995-01-01 A complex and punitive child welfare system has emerged based on a view that the children of mothers providing deficient childcare require legally sanctioned rescue by those better suited to care for them Karen Swift challenges both the accepted view of child neglect and the present official response to it Higher Education ,1958 Suicide

Prevention Contracting , Stephen J. Edwards,2013-12-11 In Suicide Prevention Contracting The Pitfalls Perils and Seven Safer Alternatives Edwards and Goj expose one of the biggest myths operating in health care and human services for forty years or more This book will challenge clinicians and their superiors who see Suicide Prevention Contracting SPC as a state of the art standard of care intervention No medical or mental health care professional educator lawyer or health and human services decision maker can afford to ignore what this book presents A family of new clinical terms and interlinked concepts describing virtually every aspect of SPC is clearly articulated and ready for use in the workplace Not until now has a book so simply yet comprehensively explained the widespread troubling practice of SPC Written in an accessible narrative style this landmark book presents vital information about a questionable suicide prevention intervention operating within this era of evidence based practice and personal legal risk protection and in doing so offers seven safer alternative procedures
