Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1989-09 How do Animals Stay Cool? William Sabin,2015-01-20 People sweat to stay cool The water comes out of our skin As it dries it takes the heat from our body with it This helps us to stay cool If the water is not drying fast enough we can sit in front of a fan This takes the water off our bodies faster If that is not enough we can add more water to our skin We do this by running through a sprinkler or going swimming Now that is a lot of water on your body And all of that water is taking away some of the heat That is how we stay cool But many animals do not sweat They also do not have sprinklers they can run through They have to find other ways to stay cool Here is how they do it Ages 7 to 12 and up All measurements in American and metric Reading level 3 4 Educational Versions include exercises designed to meet Common Core Standards LearningIsland com believes in the value of children practicing reading for 15 minutes every day Our 15 Minute Books give children lots of fun exciting choices to read from classic stories to mysteries to books of knowledge Many books are appropriate for hi lo readers Open the world of reading to a child by having them read for 15 minutes a day with the help of local citizens advocating for change at their shelter as well as animal rescue and welfare organizations providing assistance and advocacy Learning more about the practice as well as alternatives will help give readers a fuller picture of what's happening in American animal shelters and what they can do to stem the tide of dealers and brokers sweeping off animals to their almost certain demise

The Land Where I Found It All Buddhadeva Bose, 2021-08-03 Buddhadeva Bose belonged to that generation of Bengali writers of the thirties and forties who fought tooth and nail to escape the all pervading influence of Rabindranath Tagore to establish their personal idioms He succeeded but the fascination admiration and awe of the older poet remained He twice visited Shantiniketan with his family once in 1938 and then in the summer of 1941 invited by the poet himself The younger poet who in youth rebelled against him now worshipped him and truly loved him The title of this memoir Sab Peyechhir Deshe The land where I found it all says it all He intended to give this book personally to Rabindranath as a gift of his deep appreciation but sadly by the time the book came out of the press Rabindranath had passed away And what had been conceived as a gift of gratitude now turned into an elegy a younger poet's homage to his Master This book has been ever a favourite with Bengali readers and constitutes an invaluable addition to the study of Tagore and his life
