Corporate Finance Innovation And Strategic Competition:

Corporate Finance, Innovation, and Strategic Competition Cornelia Neff, 2012-12-06 This book analyzes how corporate finance decisions influence strategic competition and innovation of firms in the product market We consider bank loan financing and venture capital financing Due to asymmetric information firms must sign special contracts with banks or venture capitalists The financial contracts in turn determine the competitive strategies of firms in the product market Firms compete in prices for market shares In addition to that firms invest in R D in order to induce product or process innovation We show that better access to financial resources improves a firm's market position and leads to a higher rate of innovation Cash rich firms may even decide to prey upon financially restricted rivals in order to prevent new market entry or to induce market exit
