A Catholic Humanist Dialogue Humanists And Roman Catholics In A Common World:

A Catholic/humanist Dialogue: Humanists and Roman Catholics in a Common World Paul Kurtz, Albert Dondeyne, 1972 The Humanist Movement in Modern Britain Callum G. Brown, David Nash, Charlie Lynch, 2022-12-15

Humanists have been a major force in British life since the turn of the 20th century Here leading historians of religious non belief Callum Brown David Nash and Charlie Lynch examine how humanist organisations brought ethical reform and rationalism to the nation as it faced the moral issues of the modern world This book provides a long overdue account of this dynamic group Developing through the Ethical Union 1896 the Rationalist Press Association 1899 the British Humanist Association 1963 and Humanists UK 2017 Humanists sought to reduce religious privilege but increase humanitarian compassion and human rights After pioneering legislation on blasphemy laws dignity in dying and abortion rights they went on to help design new laws on gay marriage and sex and moral education Internationally they endeavoured to end war and world hunger And with Humanist marriages and celebration of life through Humanist funerals national ritual and culture have recently been transformed Based on extensive archival and oral history research this is the definitive history of Humanists as an ethical force in modern Britain The Devil and Secular Humanism Howard Radest, 1990-11-30 There is currently much confusion about the nature of humanism and a good deal of interest in its point of view As the object of attack and suspicion by fundamentalists conservatives and traditional religionists Howard B Radest believes that humanism deserves a clear and responsible treatment He accomplishes this in this book by clarifying the nature of humanism in historical and current thought The Enlightenment Radest states gave birth to a number of humanist values that are still being worked out in today s societies He reconstructs how humanist values have been considered dangerous by those who fear a change in the status quo Humanism Radest maintains is the true descendant of the age of reason and freedom In this unique volume humanism is viewed as being misunderstood by both traditionalists and the humanists themselves Radest does not wish to disparage traditional beliefs but he emphasizes that humanism is a legitimate philosophical ideological and religious alternative a party to the current struggle for a postmodern life philosophy The Devil and Secular Humanism examines humanism in a more comprehensive way than most current literature and it includes an assessment of the prospects for humanism in the years ahead It will be of great use to a literate but nontechnical audience who are engaged in philosophy religion law and politics Toward a New Enlightenment Paul Kurtz, 2018-04-17 Paul Kurtz has been the dominant voice of secular humanism over the past thirty years This compilation of his work reveals the scope of his thinking on the basic topics of our time and his many and varied contributions to the cause of free thought It focuses on the central issues that have concerned Kurtz throughout his career ethics politics education religion science and pseudoscience The chapters are linked by a common theme the need for a new enlightenment one committed to the use of rationality and skepticism but also devoted to realizing the highest values of humanist culture Many writings included here were first published in magazines and journals long unavailable Some of the essays have never before been published They now appear as a coherent whole for the first time Also included is an extensive bibliography of Kurtz s writings Toward a New Enlightenment is essential for those who know and admire Paul Kurtz s work It will also be an important resource for students of philosophy political science ethics and religion Among the chapters are Humanist Ethics Eating the Forbidden Fruit Relevance of Science to Ethics Democracy without Theology Misuses of Civil Disobedience The Limits of Tolerance Skepticism about the Paranormal Legitimate and Illegitimate Militant Atheism vs Freedom of Conscience Promethean Love Unbound The Case for Euthanasia and The New Inquisition in the Schools In Search of Foundations for African Catholicism Mika

Vähäkangas,2016-05-18 This study deals with the interaction between neo Thomism and African traditional thinking in Charles Nyamiti s theological methodology The approach of the study is groundbreaking as it is the first monograph published on the theological method of any African theologian The question about the position and relevance of Western philosophical theological systems in a non Western context also has a wider relevance concerning contextual theologies in general Nyamiti s theology is a germane and a fruitful choice for the study of this issue because of his programmatic attempt to build a coherent African Roman Catholic theological system His theology is also well known for its strong African flavor in elaborating theological questions within the framework of orthodox Roman Catholic doctrine Eschatology Hans

Schwarz,2000-09-22 Schwarz guides readers through the range of opinions on the subject of the future telling how readers understanding of eschatology has developed and laying out the factors that must be considered when speaking meaningfully about the Christian hope in the 21st century He surveys the teachings about the future in the Old and New Testaments and addresses the views of Christian and secular thinkers throughout history The Courage to Become Paul

Kurtz,1997-06-30 Does life have meaning if one rejects belief in God This book responds affirmatively to that question Paul Kurtz America s leading secular humanist provides a powerful defense of the humanist alternative rejecting both religious spirituality and nihilism In this inspirational book Kurtz outlines the basic virtues of the secular humanist outlook These virtues include courage not simply to be or to survive but to overcome and become that is to fulfill our highest aspirations and ideals in the face of obstacles The two other virtues Kurtz identifies are cognition reason and science in establishing truth and moral caring compassion and benevolence in our relationships with others Kurtz offers an optimistic appraisal of the human prospect and outlines a philosophy both for the individual and the global community Catalog of Copyright accessible manner 9 key areas where reforms are necessary to ensure we can govern ourselves more effectively

The Human Being Hans Schwarz, 2013-12-20 This overview of Christian anthropology by Hans Schwarz uniquely emphasizes three things 1 the biblical testimony 2 the historical unfolding of Christian anthropology through the centuries and 3 the present affirmation of Christian anthropology in view of rival options and current scientific evidence Schwarz begins by elucidating the special place occupied by human beings in the world then ponders the complex issue of human freedom and concludes by investigating humanity as a community of men and women in this world and in the world beyond While maintaining a strong biblical orientation Schwarz draws on a wide range of resources including philosophy and the natural sciences in order to map out what it means to be human Schwarz's Human Being will interest anyone who is concerned with how in the face of fascinating scientific insights we can intelligently talk today about human sinfulness human freedom and human beings as children of the God who created us

Humanism Harold John Blackham, 1976 Index of Conference Proceedings Received British Library. Lending Division, 1974 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2004 The Theology and Spirituality of Mary Tudor's Church William Wizeman, 2017-09-29 Few areas of early modern English history have roused such passions and interpretations as the rule of Mary Tudor and her efforts to return the country to Catholicism following the reigns of her father and brother In this book Dr Wizeman explores Catholic theology and spirituality according to the religious literature printed during the reign of Mary Tudor 1553-1558 As part of the strategy to renew Catholic religion in England after the reformations under Henry VIII and Edward VI Marian theologians authors and editors produced numerous works of catechesis religious polemic devotion and sermons These writings demonstrate that the Catholicism of Marian England was not a mere insular reaction to the preceding decades of religious change nor a via media polity which eschewed important elements of traditional religion while embracing tenets of the Reformation Rather the theology and spirituality of Mary Tudor's church as well as many of its strategies for religious renewal was intimately connected to and in fact anticipated or paralleled the theology spirituality and strategies for reform embraced by Counter Reformation Catholicism especially after the promulgation of the decrees of the Council of Trent 1545-1563 After considering the recent historiography of Mary Tudor's reign the book contextualises these writings through a brief history of the Marian church and a discussion of the authors and dedicatees It then presents an analysis of the Marian writers and theologians' views on revelation christology soteriology ecclesiology sacramental theology piety and eschatology Finally the study compares the Catholic belief asserted in these works to that found in texts by English theologians printed before 1553 especially John Fisher and by contemporary theologians in Europe particularly Bartolom Carranza as well as the Tridentine catechism and the decrees and official texts of the English Reformation
