A Century of Style N. H. Brewer, 1982-01-01 Music, Society, Agency Nancy November, 2024-02-20 Musicologists have increasingly taken a wide angled lens on the study of music in society to explore how it can be intertwined with issues of politics gender religion race psychology memory and space Recent studies of music in connection with society take in a variety of musical phenomena from diverse periods and genres medieval classical opera rock etc This ten chapter book not only asks how music and society are and have been intertwined and mutually influential but it also examines the agents behind these connections who determines musical cultures in society Which social groups are represented in particular musical contexts Which social groups are silenced or less well represented in music s histories and why Oceania under steam Frances Steel, 2017-02-01 The age of steam was the age of Britain s global maritime dominance the age of enormous ocean liners and human mastery over the seas The world seemed to shrink as timetabled shipping mapped out faster more efficient and more reliable transoceanic networks But what did this transport revolution look like at the other end of the line at the edge of empire in the South Pacific Through the historical example of the largest and most important regional maritime enterprise the Union Steam Ship Company of New Zealand Frances Steel eloquently charts the diverse and often conflicting interests itineraries and experiences of commercial and political elites common seamen and stewardesses and Islander dock workers and passengers Drawing on a variety of sources including shipping company archives imperial conference proceedings diaries newspapers and photographs this book will appeal to cultural historians and geographers of British imperialism scholars of transport and mobility studies and historians of New Zealand and the Pacific Chappy Patricia Grace, 2015-05-27 Spanning several decades and several continents and set against the backdrop of a changing New Zealand Chappy is a compelling story of enduring love Uprooted from his privileged European life and sent to New Zealand to sort himself out twenty one year old Daniel pieces together the history of his Maori family As his relatives revisit their past Daniel learns of a remarkable love story between his Maori grandmother Oriwia and his Japanese grandfather Chappy The more Daniel hears about his deceased grandfather the more intriguing and elusive Chappy becomes In this touching portrayal of family life acclaimed writer Patricia Grace explores racial intolerance cross cultural conflicts and the universal desire to belong Also available as an eBook Ships Monthly , 2005 Cook's Wild Strait David MacIntyre, Michael Field, 1983 Turbulent Times in Mathematics Elaine McKinnon Riehm, Frances Hoffman, 2011-11-03 Despite the renown of the Fields Medals J C Fields has been until now a rather obscure figure and recovering details about his professional activities and personal life was not at all a simple task This work is a triumph of persistence with far flung archival and documentary sources and provides a rich non mathematical portrait of the man in all aspects of his life and career Highly readable and replete with period detail the book sheds useful light on the mathematical and scientific world of Fields time and is sure to remain the definitive biographical study Tom Archibald Simon Fraser University Burnaby BC Canada Drawing on a wide array of archival sources Riehm and Hoffman provide a vivid account of Fields life and his part in the founding of the highest award in mathematics Filled with intriguing detail from a childhood on the shores of Lake Ontario through the mathematics seminars of late 19th century Berlin to the post WW1 years of the fragmented international mathematical community it is a richly textured story engagingly and sympathetically told Read this book and you will understand why Fields never wanted the medal to bear his name and yet why quite rightly it does June Barrow Green Open University Milton Keynes United Kingdom One of the little known effects of World War I was the collapse of international scientific cooperation In mathematics the discord continued after the war s end and after the Treaty of Versailles had been signed in 1919 Many distinguished scientists were involved in the war and its aftermath and from their letters and papers now almost a hundred years old we learn of their anguished wartime views and their struggles afterwards either to prolong the schism in mathematics or to end it J C Fields the foremost Canadian mathematician of his time was educated in Canada the United States and Germany and championed an international spirit of cooperation to further the frontiers of mathematics It was during the awkward post war period that J C Fields established the Fields Medal an international prize for outstanding research which soon became the highest award in mathematics J C Fields intended it to be an international medal and a glance at the varying backgrounds of the fifty two Fields medallists shows it to be so Who was Fields What carried him from Hamilton Canada West where he was born in 1863 into the middle of this turbulent era of international scientific politics A modest mathematician he was an unassuming man This biography outlines Fields life and times and the difficult circumstances in which he created the Fields Medal It is the first such published study The Oxford History of New Zealand Music John Mansfield Thomson,1991 The Maori world of music The frontier explorers sealers whalers and missionaries Music in the first settlements On the voyage Wellington 1840 1870 Auckland 1840 1865 Dunedin 1848 1865 Canterbury 1851 1900 The regions and the West Coast goldfields Themes and variations The colonial ball Military and brass bands Folk music Opera Colonial choral societies and their successors Orchestral patterns from the 19th century to the NZSO Michael Balling at the Nelson Conservatorium The world beyond Visiting artists The Sheffield Choir 1911 Henri Verbrugghen and the New South Wales State Orchestra 1920 and 1922 Musical media Silent film music The rise of the gramophone and player piano The growth of broadcasting Music journals The NZ performer Introduction Singers Instrumentalists Conductors Meeting of 2 cultures Waiata a ringa Maori concert groups and solo artists Recording Maori music The two cultures today Growth of a composing tradition Early colonial composers and their publications Alfred Hill Douglas Lilburn Composers since Lilburn Carr Pruden Tremain and others New influences Music in education Instrument making in New Zealand Streater's Directory R.
