The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV Alex

Bevan, 2019-02-07 The Aesthetics of Nostalgia TV explores the aesthetic politics of nostalgia for 1950s and 60s America on contemporary television Specifically it looks at how nostalgic TV production design shapes and is shaped by larger historical discourses on gender and technological change and America's perceived decline as a global power Alex Bevan argues that the aesthetics of nostalgic TV tell stories of their own about historical decline and progress and the place of the baby boomer television suburb in American national memory She contests theories on nostalgia that see it as stagnating regressive or a reversion to outdated gender and racial politics and the technophobic longing for a bygone era and instead argues nostalgia is an important form of historical memory and vehicle for negotiating periods of historical transition The book addresses how and why the shows construct the boomer era as a placeholder for gender racial technological and declensionist discourses of the present The book uses Mad Men AMC 2007 2015 Ugly Betty ABC 2006 2010 Desperate Housewives ABC 2004 2012 and film remakes of 1950s and 60s family sitcoms as primary case studies

Springsteen Cultural Studies and the Runaway American Dream reflects the significant critical interest in understanding Springsteen's resounding impact upon the ways in which we think and feel about politics religion gender and the pursuit of the American Dream By assembling a host of essays that engage in interdisciplinary commentary regarding one of Western culture's most enduring artistic and socially radicalizing phenomena this book offers a cohesive intellectual and often entertaining introduction to the many ways in which Springsteen continues to impact our lives by challenging our minds through his lyrics and music Longing Tamara S. Wagner, 2004 By revealing the origins of common misunderstandings about nostalgia this book aims moreover to show that it creatively fosters a personal and imaginative memory Jacket

Japanese Media at the Beginning of the 21st Century Katsuyuki Hidaka, 2016-12-01 Hailed by Japanese critics as a milestone in the study of contemporary Japanese media this book explores the contemporary boom in Japanese media representations of the recent past Recent years have seen the production of an unprecedented number of films animation manga and television programmes representing a deeply nostalgic longing for the Japanese heyday of high economic growth in the 1960s and occasionally the 1970s known in Japan as the Shōwa 30s and 40s Hidaka provides a comprehensive account of an under researched contemporary Japanese media phenomenon by exploring why this nostalgia has been sparked at this particular historical juncture and how that period is represented in the Japanese media today The book accomplishes this through a detailed textual and narrative analysis of representative films and television programmes in relation to their social and cultural context While these nostalgic media renderings are seen by many critics as innocuous this study demonstrates that they do not show a simple yearning for the period but reflects a growing discontent with Japanese post war society In this regard this book concludes that the current nostalgia wave is a critical reaction to the recent past as it seeks to revise historiography through a processes of introspection within popular conceptions of the meta narrative of nostalgia Winner of the Japan Communication Association 2015 Outstanding Book Award H. Romanticism and the Biopolitics of Modern War Writing Neil Ramsey,2023-02-23 Military literature was one of the most prevalent forms of writing to appear during the Romantic era yet its genesis in this period is often overlooked Ranging from histories to military policy manuals and a new kind of imaginative war literature in military memoirs and novels modern war writing became a highly influential body of professional writing Drawing on recent research into the entanglements of Romanticism with its wartime trauma and revisiting Michel Foucault s ground breaking work on military discipline and the biopolitics of modern war this book argues that military literature was deeply reliant upon Romantic cultural and literary thought and the era s preoccupations with the body life and writing Simultaneously it shows how military literature runs parallel to other strands of Romantic writing forming a sombre shadow against which Romanticism took shape and offering its own exhortations for how to manage the life and vitality of the nation Flocking Together: An Indigenous

Tolkien's Medievalism in Ruins Nick Katsiadis, Carl Sell, 2025-10-16 The structural and symbolic purposes of ruins in literary texts have a long history yet few scholars explore their importance within J R R Tolkien's legendarium From the ruins of Erebor and the relics of Gondolin appearing in The Hobbit to the various images of Amon S l Moria and Osgiliath in The Lord of the Rings Tolkien constructs a distinct mood one that captures characters awareness of the glories of the past and a desire to emulate them The scholars who do engage Tolkien's relics and ruins tend to limit the scope to Tolkien's debt to the Middle Ages While such scholarship begins important conversations the full story of Tolkien's relics and ruins is left untold Tolkien's Medievalism in Ruins takes corrective action and expands this historical and critical literary scope This collection seeks to promote a more comprehensive approach to Tolkien's legendarium
