A Boy Thirteen Reflections On Death:

A Boy Thirteen Jerry A. Irish, 1975 The Fall and Sin Marguerite Shuster, 2004 The devastating evils of recent history have brought about renewed interest in the Christian doctrine of sin This volume explores with fresh insight and great seriousness the contemporary plausibility meaning and relevance of the biblical understanding of the Fall and its effects Marguerite Shuster argues that certain aspects of the traditional doctrine of the Fall including the belief that it took place in time and space cannot simply be set aside without serious consequences for our doctrine of God and our understanding of human identity dignity and responsibility She explores the nature and extent of sin and examines such problematic issues as degrees of sin and culpability Despite the seriousness with which Shuster treats these topics her discussion is not despairing but instead points to the redemption that God has accomplished in Christ Filled with contemporary allusions and completed with model sermons on the Fall and sin this volume is one of the best available studies of this key Christian doctrine

Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

A Liturgy of Grief Leslie C. Allen, 2011-09 In this commentary on Lamentations a respected Old Testament scholar and volunteer hospital chaplain presents a biblical model for helping those coping with grief

Is God Still at the Bedside? Abigail Rian Evans, 2011 Is God Still at the Bedside by Abigail Rian Evans offers an expert interdisciplinary Christian perspective on the complex web of issues surrounding death and dying Evans here combines first person stories and interviews with research gathered from the medical theological legal ethical and pastoral disciplines Her comprehensive insightful work will not only benefit families struggling with difficult end of life decisions but also inform the doctors nurses and pastors who serve them Publisher Beautiful and Terrible Things Christian M. M. Brady, 2020-09-01 Bible scholar

Christian Brady an expert on Old Testament lament was as prepared as a person could be for the death of a child which is to say not nearly well enough When his eight year old son died suddenly from a fast moving blood infection Brady heard the typical platitudes about accepting God s will and knew that quiet acceptance was not the only godly way to grieve With deep faith knowledge of Scripture and the wisdom that comes only from experience Brady guides readers grieving losses and setbacks of all kinds in voicing their lament to God reflecting on the nature of human existence and persevering in hope Brady finds that rather than an image of God managing every event and action in our lives the biblical account describes the very real world in which we all live a world full of hardship and calamity that often comes unbidden and unmerited Yet it also is a world into which God lovingly intrudes to bring comfort peace and grace
