A Bridge Too Far 1977:

Making A Bridge Too Far Simon Lewis, 2024-05-07 A Bridge Too Far released in 1977 proved to be the last epic WWII movie made in the Hollywood studio system Its ambitious goal to recreate the doomed Allied plan called Operation Market Garden in September 1944 Market Garden s goal was to surprise the Germans with a mammoth parachute drop behind their lines and bring a quick end to the war but the plan became a disaster for the Allies with the battle for the Arnhem bridge vicious as the Red Devils of British First Airborne held out against overwhelming odds Producer Joseph E Levine packed his cast with the top stars of the 1970s including Anthony Hopkins Robert Redford Sean Connery James Caan Michael Caine Elliott Gould Dirk Bogarde and Laurence Olivier and shot the film on location in and around Arnhem Making Dirk Bogarde was a British war veteran who had participated in Market Garden and bore the mental scars to prove it A History of the Guards Armoured Formations 1941-1945 Charles Richard Trumppess, 2025-03-30 Although the Guards armored Division and its sister formation the 6th Guards Tank Brigade shared a common origin they went on to forge quite different operational records One of the units would be tarnished by its failures while the other was applauded for its successes A month after VE Day the two Guards armored formations would be reunited one last time before being officially disbanded During the intervening years the Guards faced criticism public ridicule the threat of disbandment and many other challenges Nevertheless these armored Guardsmen would prevail on the battlefield In response to the threat of a German invasion of the British Isles the Guards armored Division formed in the spring of 1941 But why convert battalions of Foot Guards considered by many to be first class infantry into an armored formation Certainly many people were skeptical that spit and polish Guardsmen could ever adapt to a new armored role As the threat of invasion receded the Guards armored Division and 6th Guards Tank Brigade embarked on years of training while the war raged elsewhere This book examines the decision to form the Guards armored Division and then keep it at home for an extended period Once deployed to Normandy the fighting quickly revealed shortcomings in the Division s training equipment and operational procedures In contrast when the Churchill tanks of the 6th Guards Tank Brigade went into action south of Caumont it was to prove an affirmation of everything they had learnt in training Over the next ten months the Guards armored formations would celebrate victories and lament failures while fighting their way across northwest Europe This book examines how the decision to raise a Guards armored Division came about and why the idea met with such strong opposition It also takes an in depth look at the training equipment and culture of the Brigade of Guards and how that influenced the two formations preparedness for war Once deployed overseas the book explores how the Guards were able to adapt to changing conditions on the battlefield and adopt new operational and tactical procedures Finally the book reveals why the Guards armored formations were hurriedly disbanded in June 1945 Additionally using new archive material the book discloses why it took over a decade to publish the official history of the Guards armored Division The Aircraft-Spotter's Film and Television Companion Simon D.

Making a Bridge Too Far Simon Lewis,2024-04-02 A Bridge Too Far released in 1977 was the last epic WWII movie made in the Hollywood studio system Its ambitious goal to recreate the Allied plan Operation Market Garden in September 1944 The plan was a disaster for the Allies with the battle for the Arnhem bridge vicious as the British First Airborne held out against overwhelming odds Producer Joseph E Levine packed his cast with top stars Anthony Hopkins Robert Redford Sean Connery James Caan Michael Caine Elliott Gould Dirk Bogarde and Laurence Olivier and shot on location in and around Arnhem Making A Bridge Too Far answers WWII buffs questions about the production Author Simon Lewis interviewed many in the cast and crew and uncovered a story about bringing WWII to life in 1976 Holland with vintage tanks and aircraft legions of stunt men and paratroopers all led by director Sir Richard Attenborough Making A Bridge Too Far will prove a delight for armchair generals and lovers of old Hollywood Fun facts Dutch survivors of the war had no patience for actors dressed as German soldiers Dirk Bogarde was a British war veteran who had participated in Market Garden and bore the mental scars to prove it

Music, Collective Memory, Trauma, and Nostalgia in European Cinema after the Second World War Michael Baumgartner,Ewelina Boczkowska,2019-09-23 In the wake of World War II the arts and culture of Europe became a site where the devastating events of the 20th century were remembered and understood Exploring one of the most integral elements of the cinematic experience music the essays in this volume consider the numerous ways in which post war European cinema dealt with memory trauma and nostalgia showing how the music of these films shaped the representation of the past The contributors consider films from the United Kingdom Poland the Soviet Union France Italy Germany Sweden Austria and the Netherlands providing a diverse and well rounded understanding of film music in the context of historical memory Memory is often underrepresented within scholarly musical studies with most of these applications found in the disciplines of ethnomusicology popular music studies music cognition and psychology and music therapy Likewise trauma has mainly been studied in relation to music in only a few historical contexts while nostalgia has attracted even less academic attention In three parts this volume addresses each area of study as it relates to the music of European cinema from 1945 to 1989 applying an interdisciplinary approach to investigate how films use music to negotiate the precarious relationships we maintain with the past Music Collective Memory Trauma and Nostalgia in European Cinema after the Second World War offers compelling arguments as to what makes music such a powerful medium for memory trauma and nostalgia

Projecting Britain at War Jeremy Havardi,2014-03-04 This detailed chronological analysis of British

World War II movies from 1939 until the present explores how films projected recognizable stereotypes of British national character and how the times in which a film was made shaped its perspectives Several chapters look at films made during and immediately after the war In depictions of the Home Front characters display resolve as well as emotional restraint and present an image of an undivided society cooperating to fight evil By contrast duty and service are the paramount virtues of combat films while spy melodramas exemplify the British love of improvisation Fifties war films are examined against the backdrop of alarm and uncertainty caused by the Cold War Such films reflect traditional national character stereotypes though the stiff upper lip begins to be questioned by the end of the decade The book then traces the radical effect of the 1960s revolution revealing how the fondness for skeptical antiwar movies went hand in hand with the questioning of Britain's place in the world The book ends by looking at recent war films and asks whether these reflect the cult of narcissism so prevalent in modern Britain
