bringing the sacraments to a dying God wrote Heinrich Heine in 1834 It took a while but today it is happening Across the Western world the traditional picture of God is dying and institutional religion collapsing Today we are trying something never done before living with no agreed narrative that tells us who we are and with a materialist view of life It isn't enough An idea of God may have died but the mystery of our human life is of an inner depth which is not simply physical or material Marvel mystery wonder beauty love the numinous the mysterium tremendum remain the essence of who we are What I am trying to do is describe this experience in such a way that those who have not had it can get a glimpse of it from inside and understand how it can give a life meaning and purpose This is explored through a liberal Christian tradition committed to social justice and honest exploration Scripture is vital to this but so are art poetry music and beauty When most people are looking the other way we must keep the rumor of God alive

Fatal Flaws Patricia Gosling, 2011-11-19 We have over valued our capacity for thought at the expense of ignoring those deep forces which drive us We have done this at the individual level but also at the social level Our wider society international national local and familial is driven by powerful primitive forces which shape our human community Our artists reflect these forces back to us A weakness of democracy is that politicians too often collude with pathology instead of leading us out of it This book uses psychoanalytical insights into perversion to explain our present crisis and to show that we are at a historic social turning point

Soul City Touré, 2007-09-03 From the wildly popular author of the groundbreaking debut The Portable Promised Land comes an inventive and hilarious first novel about an African American utopia threatened by the darker side of human nature Welcome to Soul City where roses bloom in the cracks of the sidewalk along Cornbread Boulevard musical genres become political platforms and children use their allowance money to buy records from the Vinyl Man Its an unusually peaceful and magical American community with a strong heritage and sense of unity at least thats how journalist Cadillac Jackson first finds it When Jackson visits Soul City on a magazine assignment a mayoral election is imminent and candidates from opposing parties are battling to control the citys soundtrack Amidst the increasingly hostile campaign Cadillac falls for Mahogany Sunflower a beautiful Soul Cityzen and begins a struggle to shed the embattled African American identity hes been taught to adopt in order to exist in a community where the content of his character really does determine a black mans identity What he discovers reveals as much about himself as it does about human nature and the meaning of race in America

Life on Air David Hendy, 2007 Radio Four has been described as the greatest broadcasting channel in the world the heartbeat of the BBC a cultural icon of Britishness and the voice of Middle England Defined by its rich mix encompassing everything from journalism and drama to comedy quizzes and short stories Many of its programs such as Today The Archers Woman's Hour The Hitchhiker's Guide To the Galaxy Gardeners Question Time and The Shipping Forecast have been part of British life for decades Others less successful have caused offence and prompted derision Born as it was in the Swinging Sixties Radio Four's central challenge has been to change with the times while trying not to lose faith with those who see it as a standard bearer for quality authoritativeness or simply old fashioned BBC values In this first major behind the scenes account of the station s history David Hendy a former producer for Radio Four draws on privileged access to the BBC s own archives and new interviews with key personnel to illuminate the arguments and controversies behind the creation of some of its most popular programmes He reveals the station s struggle to justify itself in a television age favouring clear branding and tightly targeted audiences with bitter disputes between the BBC and its fiercely loyal listeners The story of these struggles is about more than the survival of one radio network Radio Four has been a lightning rod for all sorts of wider social anxieties over the past forty years A kaleidoscopic view of the changing nature of the BBC this book provides a gripping insight into the very nature of British life and culture in the last decades of the twentieth century
