Differentiated book It has a historical context with research of the time To Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens in its entirety A Christmas Carol a short novel by Charles Dickens originally published in 1843 The story suddenly conceived and written in a few weeks is one of the most outstanding Christmas stories in modern literature Through a series of spectral visions greed Ebenezer Scrooge can review his life and change his outcome The ghost of the Christmas past reveals vignettes from Scrooge's early life as a schoolboy an apprentice and a young man in love The ghost of the Christmas present reveals to Scrooge that joy has little to do with wealth Together they visit the homes of Bob Cratchit Scrooge's heavily abused employee and his generous nephew Fred who has married for love Finally the Ghost of Christmas yet to come allows Scrooge a glimpse of what his end will be like if he continues on his current course he will die despised and without regret After witnessing these scenes Scrooge is a changed man He immediately begins to repair his customs becomes generous and thoughtful and therefore finds redemption and joy Charles Dickens Charles John Huffam Dickens FRSA February 7 1812 June 9 1870 A Christmas Carol in Prose Charles Dickens,2021-04-14 External heat and cold had little influence on Scrooge No warmth could warm no wintry weather chill him No wind that blew was bitterer than he no falling snow was more intent upon its purpose no pelting rain less open to entreaty Foul weather didn't know where to have him The heaviest rain and snow and hail and sleet could boast of the advantage over him in only one respect They often came down handsomely and Scrooge never did Nobody ever stopped him in the street to say with gladsome looks My dear Scrooge how are you When will you come to see me No beggars implored him to bestow a trifle no children asked him what it was o'clock no man or woman ever once in all his life inquired the way to such and such a place of Scrooge Even the blind men's dogs appeared to know him and when they saw him coming on would tug their owners into doorways and up courts and then would wag their tails as though they said No eye at all is better than an evil eye dark master But what did Scrooge care It was the very thing he liked To edge his way along the crowded paths of life warning all human sympathy to keep its distance was what the knowing ones call nuts to Scrooge Once upon a time of all the good days in the year on Christmas Eve old Scrooge sat busy in his counting house It was cold bleak biting weather foggy withal and he could hear the people in the court outside go wheezing up and down beating their hands upon their breasts and stamping their feet upon the pavement stones to warm them The city clocks had only just gone three but it was quite dark already it had not been light all day and candles were flaring in the windows of the neighbouring offices like ruddy smears upon the palpable brown air The fog came pouring in at every chink and keyhole and was so dense without that although the court was of the narrowest the houses opposite were mere phantoms To see the dingy cloud come drooping down obscuring everything one might have thought that Nature lived hard by and was brewing on a large scale The door of Scrooge s counting house was open that he might keep his eye upon his clerk who in a dismal little cell beyond a sort of tank was copying letters Scrooge had a very small fire but the clerk s fire was so very much smaller that it looked like one coal But he couldn t replenish it for Scrooge kept the coal box in his own room and so surely as the clerk came in with the shovel the master predicted that it would be necessary for them to part Wherefore the clerk put on his white comforter and tried to warm himself at the candle in which effort not being a man of a strong imagination he failed
