Korean "Comfort Women" Pyong Gap Min, 2021-03-26 Arguably the most brutal crime committed by the Japanese military during the Asia Pacific war was the forced mobilization of 50 000 to 200 000 Asian women to military brothels to sexually serve Japanese soldiers The majority of these women died unable to survive the ordeal Those survivors who came back home kept silent about their brutal experiences for about fifty years In the late 1980s the women s movement in South Korea helped start the redress movement for the victims encouraging many survivors to come forward to tell what happened to them With these testimonies the redress movement gained strong support from the UN the United States and other Western countries Korean Comfort Women synthesizes the previous major findings about Japanese military sexual slavery and legal recommendations and provides new findings about the issues comfort women faced for an English language audience It also examines the transnational redress movement revealing that the Japanese government has tried to conceal the crime of sexual slavery and to resolve the women s human rights issue with diplomacy and economic power

The New Domestic Automakers in the United States and Canada A.J. Jacobs, 2015-12-16 Over the past forty years state provincial and local governments in the United States and Canada have provided foreign automakers with approximately 4 80 billion in incentives in order to lure light vehicles assembly plants to their areas This has included tax abatements infrastructure construction land giveaways job training programs and other subsidies As of early 2015 ten foreign vehicle makers operated 20 light vehicles in developed North America Despite the fact that all ten of these automakers have pursued a similar pattern first exporting vehicles into the United States and Canada before launching vehicle plants in developed North America each has followed its own specific historical development path and has created its own unique growth trajectory This book provides a unique historical and qualitative review of these ten vehicle makers from their early beginnings to their export entry into the United States and or Canada through early 2015 In addition it chronicles the histories of more than a dozen former automakers and potential future foreign light motor vehicle assembly plants in the United States and Canada This includes the first foreign automaker to build its cars in the United States De Dion Bouton of France in July 1900 the early 20th Century endeavors of Fiat Mercedes and Rolls Royce and the present day hopes of Chinese and Indian automakers In the process the text also provides an assessment of the top competing states and sites for any future plants the possible incentives packages governments may offer to attract such facilities and an estimated incentive value for each automaker Overall the goal of this book is to expand the knowledge of policymakers at all tiers of government in the United States and Canada and to help them take a more holistic look at the pros and cons of attracting Automobile Manufacturing FDI It is hoped that this will enable them to make more informed decisions when pursuing a new foreign motor vehicle assembly plant Its findings should also prove informative to urban and regional planning political science sociology economics labor and international development scholars and students in North America and worldwide

European Intellectual Property Law Justine Pila,Paul Torremans,2016 European Intellectual Property Law offers a full account of the main areas of substantive European IP law and a discussion of their wider context and effect The amount and reach of European law and decision making in the field of intellectual property has grown exponentially since the 1960 s making it increasingly difficult to treat European law as an adjunct to domestic intellectual property regimes European Intellectual Property Law responds to this reality by presenting a clear and detailed account of each of the main areas of substantive EU intellectual property law situated in the context of both the EU legal system and international IP law including EU constitutional law the law of the European Patent Convention 1973 2000 and private international law It draws selectively on examples from domestic IP regimes to illustrate substantive differences between those regimes and to demonstrate the impact of European law and decision making on EU Member States This unique thoroughly modern approach goes beyond a discussion of the provisions of European legal instruments to consider their wider context and effect European Intellectual Property Law is the ideal guide for any student wishing to gain a full and critical understanding of the substantive European law of intellectual property

Staging Fashion Tiziana Ferrero-Regis,Marissa Lindquist,2020-12-10 The fashion show and its spaces are sites of otherness representing everything from rebellion and excess through to political and social activism This conceptual and stylistic variety is reflected in the spaces they occupy whether they are staged in an industrial warehouse on a city street or out in the open landscape Staging Fashion is the first collection of essays about the presentation and staging of fashion in runway shows in the period from the 1960s to the 2010s It offers a fresh perspective on the many collaborations between artists architects and interior designers to reinforce their interdisciplinary links Fashion architecture and interiors share many elements including design history material culture aesthetics and trends The research and ideas underpinning Staging Fashion address how fashion and the spatial fields have collaborated in the creation of the space of the fashion show The 15 essays are written by fashion interior architecture and design scholars focusing on the presentation of fashion within the runway space from avant garde practices and collaboration with artists to the most spectacular and commercial shows of recent years from Prada to Chanel

External Sector Report, July 2019

International Monetary Fund. Monetary and Capital Markets Department,2019-07-17 The IMF s 2019 External Sector Report shows that global current account balances stand at about 3 percent of global GDP Of this about 35 45 percent are now deemed excessive Meanwhile net credit and debtor positions are at historical peaks and about four times larger than in the early 1990s Short term financing risks from the current configuration of external imbalances are generally contained as debtor positions are concentrated in reserve currency issuing advanced economies An intensification of trade tensions or a disorderly Brexit outcome with further repercussions for global growth and risk aversion could however affect other economies that are highly dependent on foreign demand and external financing With output near potential in most systemic economies a well calibrated macroeconomic and structural policy mix is necessary to support rebalancing Recent trade policy actions are weighing on global trade flows investment and growth including through confidence effects and the disruption of global supply chains with no discernible impact on external imbalances thus far edition of Crafting and Executing Strategy continues to provide a valuable resource for European readers while embracing new and updated core concepts and key theories in strategy. Throughout the text you will find a range of examples that illustrate how strategy works in the real world and encourage the practical application of learning. Complementing the chapters is a section of new cases providing in-depth analysis of the challenges of strategic management at a range of companies. This edition includes a new 6Ds framework allowing readers to structure their approach to strategic management around the fundamental elements of the strategy process: Diagnosis, Direction, Decisions, and Delivery, and the context within which that process is managed. Dynamism and Disorder Opening cases that begin each chapter and feature real-life business scenarios from companies such as Tinder, Ikea, and Victorinox introducing strategic concepts and theories. Illustration Capsules which have been updated to illustrate contemporary business concerns and demonstrate how companies have reacted strategically, increasing understanding of successful strategies. Companies featured include Burberry, TOMS, Aldi, Novo Nordisk, and more. Key Debates that stimulate classroom discussion and encourage critical analysis. Emerging Themes that present contemporary strategic opportunities and issues such as ripple intelligence and technology and new organizational structures. A Different View encouraging readers to appreciate differing viewpoints on strategic concepts and theories. End of chapter cases that capture each chapter's main theories through engaging cases on companies such as Adidas and Nike, Lego, and Uber. New recommended reading at the end of each chapter which helps to further knowledge including classic texts and advanced reading and author notes providing context. Connect is McGraw Hill Education's learning and teaching environment that improves student performance and outcomes while promoting engagement and comprehension of content. New for this edition are interview-style videos featuring author Alex Janes in discussion with business leaders exploring how organizational strategy has developed within companies as diverse as Jeep, Levi Strauss, Novo Nordisk, and a prestigious oil and gas company. The videos are provided in full length or in segments with questions aimed at encouraging classroom discussion or self-testing. This new edition is available with SmartBook, McGraw Hill Education's adaptive digital tool that tests students' knowledge of key concepts and pinpoints the topics on which they need to focus study time. Crafting and Executing Strategy is also available with both The Business Strategy Game and GLO BUS, the world-leading business strategy simulations.

Lost Cedar Rapids Peter D. Looney, 2020 Cedar Rapids is the only city in America to house its government offices on an island. But tons of other iconic structures that defined the city are no longer around. The Little Gallery on First Avenue was created to showcase local artists. Yager's moved up to bring prices down. The area was home to thirty-nine theaters including two from 1928 that are still in operation. From the hotels to the factories, the ethnic districts to the depots, the dance halls to the amusement parks, these are the places that made a difference in the City of Five Seasons. Local author Pete Looney traces the history of the structures.

The Global Novel and Capitalism in Crisis Treasa De Loughry, 2020-04-29 This book examines how contemporary global novels by Salman Rushdie, David Mitchell, Rana Dasgupta, and Rachel Kushner have evolved new aesthetics to represent global economic and ecological crises Paying close attention to the interrelations between postcolonial world and global literatures this book argues that postcolonial literary studies cannot account for global crises that exceed the national and anti colonial Advocating an interdisciplinary framework informed by a synthesis of materialist literary theory with world systems theory combining Fredric Jameson and Georg Luk cs with Giovanni Arrighi and Jason W Moore this book examines how global literatures metabolise not only socioeconomic conditions but also transformations in the world ecology and emergent developmental and epochal crises of capitalism Unified Patent Protection in Europe Winfried Tilmann, Clemens Plassmann, 2018-07-04 The creation of the Unified Patent Court UPC is the most prominent change in the European legal landscape for the last four decades This book explains how the new system works in practice and how to make the best use of its provisions It offers readers an in depth and comprehensive commentary on the legal mechanisms of the upcoming ratified European Patent Law and advice on potential problems that users of the forthcoming regulations may face The book first describes the creation of the Unified European Patent Law and how its four new legislative texts interact The new legislative texts are then explained and commented on in detail rule by rule with diverse approaches and perspectives from a practitioner team comprising patent litigators European patent attorneys law professors and patent judges The Commentary takes into account the practical needs of users of the new system on both the prosecution and enforcement sides addressing substantive and procedural problems This book is the most authoritative text on the Unitary Patent and Unified Patents Court and an invaluable tool for practitioners in this rapidly developing area of law
