50 Favourite Houses By Frank Lloyd Wright:

50 Favorite Houses By Frank Lloyd Wright Diane Maddex,2001-03-01 Wright believed that the home was the center of family life of individual freedom a place of repose As this book shows his ideal home took on an amazing variety of forms but was always built using natural materials and colors and was always a work of art Included here are his Prairie houses revolutionary designs in California built of concrete blocks the famous Fallingwater and Taliesin West his home in the desert

50 Favourite Houses by Frank Lloyd Wright Diane Maddex,2000 Houses not skyscrapers museums or schools remained Frank Lloyd Wright s favourite building type from the beginning to the end of his seventy year career as an architect When he started his practice near the close of the 19th century he saw a house as the embodiment of democracy and individual freedom Your home had more capacity to spread well being he said than any cathedral or palace To him it was the centre of all family life As 50 Favourite Houses by Frank Lloyd Wright shows his ideal home took on an amazing variety of forms From Wright s 300 house designs that were eventually built this book visits fifty that have become world wide favourites Here from the young architect s first period is his own home and studio in Oak Park Illinois an architectural laboratory for him over two decades Wright next ushered in the 20th century with his Prairie House whose sheltering roofs and horizontal lines linked them to the earth classics such as the Willits Dana Thomas and Robie Houses In the 1920s came revolutionary design in California built of textured concrete followed in the 1930s by the internationally renowned Fallingwater and Taliesin West Each of the examples featured grew from Wright s never changing principles that a house should be built with nature use materials and colours be designed from within have the consistency of a finely woven fabric achieve harmony through unity and be a work of art not just a house 50 Favourite Rooms by Frank Lloyd Wright Diane

Maddex,1998 Frank Lloyd Wright is a one man phenomenon between 1887 and 1959 he completed more than 400 commissions in the USA as well as writing numerous books and giving frequent lectures Thousands of visitors annually flock to the fifty Wright buildings in America that are open to the public and he is an inspiration to countless architects and designers everywhere 50 Favourite Rooms by Frank Lloyd Wright showcases his very best work in interior design Here are the most glorious living rooms dining rooms and kitchens public spaces and more from the buildings that Wright designed over his prolific seven decade career Exemplifying the architect s unailing principles of unity simplicity and respect for nature these rooms also present a chronological picture of his stylistic development Fifty Favorite Rooms by Frank

The Robie House of Frank Lloyd Wright Joseph Connors, 1984-05-15 The Robie House in Chicago is one of the world's most famous houses a masterpiece from the end of Frank Lloyd Wright's early period and a classic example of the Prairie House This book is intended as a companion for the visitor to the house but it also probes beneath the surface to see how the design took shape in the mind of the architect Wright's own writings rare working drawings from the period and previously unpublished photographs of the house in construction help the reader look over the shoulder of the architect at work Beautiful new photographs of the Robie House and related Wright houses have been specially taken to illustrate the author's points and a bibliography on Wright is provided Frank Lloyd Wright Quarterly ,2002 America's Favorite Homes Robert Schweitzer, Michael W. R. Davis, 1990 During the first four decades of the twentieth century prefabricated and catalogue homes grew in popularity and number Built and occupied by farmers merchants the new armies of factory workers and other lower and middle class families these are the modest homes that today line American streets Using mail order house catalogues from the time Robert Schweitzer and Michael W R Davis chart the development of catalogue houses and their variations and include floor plans for many models Students of architecture whether amateur or professional preservationists and academics will find in America's Favorite Homes a handy reference to those homes that soon will be eligible for historic designation The Mathematics of the Modernist Villa Michael J. Ostwald, Michael J. Dawes, 2018-04-12 This book presents the first detailed mathematical analysis of the social cognitive and experiential properties of Modernist domestic architecture The Modern Movement in architecture which came to prominence during the first half of the twentieth century may have been famous for its functional forms and machine made aesthetic but it also sought to challenge the way people inhabit understand and experience space Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's buildings were not only minimalist and transparent they were designed to subvert traditional social hierarchies Frank Lloyd Wright's organic Modernism not only attempted to negotiate a more responsive relationship between nature and architecture but also shape the way people experience space Richard Neutra's Californian Modernism is traditionally celebrated for its sleek geometric forms but his intention was to use design to support a heightened understanding of context Glenn Murcutt's pristine pavilions seemingly the epitome of regional Modernism actually raise important questions about the socio spatial structure of architecture Rather than focussing on form or style in Modernism this book examines the spatial social and experiential properties of thirty seven designs by Wright Mies Neutra and Murcutt The computational and mathematical methods used for this purpose are drawn from space syntax isovist geometry and graph theory The specific issues that are examined include the sensory and emotional appeal of space and form shifting social and spatial structures in architectural planning wayfinding and visual understanding and the relationship between form and program Alden B. Dow Diane Maddex, 2007 Alden Dow active 1930s 1970s produced more than five hundred designs often daringly modern structures This book traces Alden Dow's life and work as well as the intensely personal philosophy that governed everything he did houses churches schools business and civic structures and even a new town in Texas Dow changed the face of his hometown of Midland Michigan leaving more than one hundred buildings including his Home and Studio a National Historic Landmark 185 color and 220 black and white illustrations 100 More of the World's Best Houses The Images Publishing Group,2005 Popular demand has led IMAGES team of researchers to scour the world for yet another stunning Frank Lloyd Wright's Monona Terrace David V. Mollenhoff,Mary Jane Hamilton,1999 Mollenhoff and Hamilton provide the definitive history of the building s design the tempestuous relationship of Wright to his hometown of Madison and the support for and opposition to the project Drawing from the Frank Lloyd Wright Archives thousands of newspaper accounts extensive government records and dozens of interviews the book also features more than 300 illustrations in color and black and white including many published here for the first time LIFE ,1953-06-15 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use Dwell ,2001-12 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines Crafting a Modern World Kurt Helfrich,William Whitaker,2006-10-12 Crafting a Modern World examines a missing chapter in the history of mid century modernism the story of husband and wife design team Antonin and Noemi Raymond This is the first comprehensive book in English on the duo that creatively transformed design from 1917 to 1966 BOOK JACKET Women and the Making of the Modern House Alice T. Friedman,2006-01-01 Investigates how women patrons of architecture were essential catalysts for innovation in domestic architectural design This book explores the challenges that unconventional attitudes and ways of life presented to architectural thinking and to the architects themselves Tastemaker Monica Penick,2017-06-13 A riveting and superbly illustrated account of the enigmatic House Beautiful editor s profound influence on mid century American taste From 1941 to 1964 House Beautiful magazine s crusading editor in chief Elizabeth Gordon introduced and promoted her vision of good design and better living to an extensive middle class American readership Her innovative magazine sponsored initiatives including House Beautiful s Pace Setter House Program and the Climate Control Project popularized a livable and decidedly American version of postwar modern architecture Gordon s devotion to what she called the American Style attracted the attention of Frank Lloyd Wright who became her ally and collaborator Gordon s editorial programs reshaped ideas about American living and by extension what consumers bought what designers made and what manufacturers brought to market This incisive assessment of Gordon s influence as an editor critic and arbiter of domestic taste reflects more broadly on the cultures of consumption and identity in postwar America Nearly 200 images are featured including work by Ezra Stoller Maynard Parker and Julius Shulman This important book champions an often neglected source the consumer magazine as a key tool for deepening our understanding of mid century architecture and design Frank Lloyd Wright--the Lost Years, 1910-1922 Anthony Alofsin, 1993 New definition to the little known work Wright produced during this period which he describes as Wright's primitivist phase He traces this influence in his art through Wright's explorations of primitivist sources innovations in sculpture and an intensification of the architect's use of ornament Less tangible but as important was Wright's view of himself his art and society and Alofsin uncovers the European impact on the architect's image of himself as a
