McEwan-Adkins, 2008-07-16 The redoubtable Grandma this book is a sequel to Grandma Drove the Snowplow is at it again After all her hard work collecting the town's garbage and plowing the roads Grandma deserves a day off and what better day than Labor Day All she has to do is sit back and enjoy a nice boat ride with her littlest grandson Billy while her sons catch the lobsters for the town Lobster Bake But what happens when the waves get choppy the fog rolls in and all the boats are in difficulty Can Grandma take the helm and get the lobsters back to shore in time More great fun as our intrepid heroine is again placed at the center of small town life and in the middle of a local celebration Professional and Ethical Consideration for Early Childhood Leaders Cunningham, Denise D., 2020-06-19 Early childhood educators are keenly aware of the importance of a child's transition to real school This transition is occurring earlier in a child's life now that school districts nationwide are moving to pre kindergarten experiences for 3 and 4 year olds Annually more than one million children attend public school pre-k programs overseen by elementary school principals who although veteran educational leaders were not trained to oversee these programs Although pre k classrooms are rapidly growing and deserve special attention school leaders must be reminded that early childhood means more than pre kindergarten it extends through third grade School leadership needs to understand the principles of early childhood education to effectively support all children age three to grade three Professional and Ethical Consideration for Early Childhood Leaders is a collection of innovative research that crafts an overall understanding of the importance of early childhood leadership in today s schools The book employs strategies to improve support for children in early childhood years examines the different roles of early childhood leadership analyzes best practices for implementation in early childhood contexts and explores improvements for leadership preparation for schools with pre k through third grade children While highlighting a wide range of topics including advocacy cultural responses and professional development this publication is ideally designed for educators administrators principals early childhood development teachers daycare instructors curriculum developers advocates researchers academicians and students

Leadership Süleyman Göker,2018-09-19 This book when compared to other books on leadership is expected to present a new understanding of the essential features of leadership and it varies from the wealth of literature in the following ways firstly this book attempts to include leaders at all management levels within an organization and across various sectors This book also aims to provide experiences and reflections across a variety of sectors and organizational structures rather than focusing on one set of definitions as is the case in current leadership sources Finally this book is expected to offer a new perspective addressing and inspiring actual leaders today and potential ones and contributing to the existing debate on leadership

Educational Leadership Hülya Şenol,2020-03-18 There is a growing realization that the role of educational leaders has been undergoing many changes in the era of globalization due to the diverse needs and expectations of the stakeholders of education Schools have different specific needs due to their demographical structure the academic achievement level of students the experience of teachers and parental involvement and they need educational leaders who can transform and develop schools This book intends to provide the reader with a comprehensive overview of the expected responsibilities and features of school leaders in the context of the different models of educational leadership Scholars from different countries share their opinions about the challenges faced by the school leaders as principals teachers students school committees and boards in schools the importance of leader preparation and the need for the professional development of educational leaders

The journal is focused on articles on administrative leadership in schools and school districts and also in articles that inquire about teacher, student, parent, and community leadership. Qualities of Effective Principals James H. Stronge, Holly B. Richard, Nancy Catano, 2008. Shows principals how to successfully balance the needs and priorities of their school and continuously develop and refine their leadership skills. Raising Reading Achievement in Middle and High Schools Elaine K. McEwan, Elaine K. McEwan-Adkins, 2006-09-26. Strengthen student literacy achievement in middle and high schools. In response to the No Child Left Behind Act, NCLB raising literacy levels in secondary schools has taken on a new urgency. Recognized literacy author Elaine K. McEwan focuses her revised second edition on enhancing the five big ideas for raising reading achievement with seven cognitive strategies of highly effective readers and more than twenty research based teaching for learning tips to infuse into daily content instruction. Featuring reflection and discussion questions for reinforcement, this indispensable guide demonstrates how to improve students' literacy with these five teacher friendly strategies: Focus on changing what you can change. Teach the students who can't read how to read. Teach every student how to read to learn. Motivate all students to read more to read increasingly more challenging books and to be accountable for what they read. Create a reading culture in your school. With new programs designed for adolescent learners, this update provides suggestions and developmental tools to effectively strengthen reading curriculum and instruction. Reading specialists, special education teachers, literacy coaches, intervention specialists, and central office administrators can also use this essential tool for evaluating middle and high school reading programs and formulating school and district improvement goals. How to Deal With Parents Who Are Angry, Troubled, Afraid, or Just Plain Crazy Elaine K. McEwan, 2004-11-17. How do you deal with high maintenance parents who never seem happy with the job you are doing? Emotionally charged, often disgruntled, and occasionally abusive parents sound familiar. The second edition of McEwan's best selling classic will help you manage your most difficult audience, adding several features and examples that will give you the confidence and skills you need to handle such situations, including: Over two dozen strategies enhanced and updated to defuse emotionally charged parents. An updated easy to administer healthy school checklist. Fifty ways to build parental support for your school. Ten goals at a glance to help keep your school community relations on target. A built in facilitator's guide. How to Survive and Thrive in the First Three Weeks of School Elaine K. McEwan, 2006-03-13. Best selling author Elaine K. McEwan demonstrates how teaching routines, rubrics, and rules during the first three weeks of school leads to higher achievement through the rest of the year. Resources in Education, 1998. 4 CORE Factors for School Success
