Contemporary Techniques of Poetry Robert Graves,1971 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

Brill's Companion to Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry ,2022-12-28 Brill's Companion to Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry explores the relations between antiquity and modernity from the angle of the reception of Graeco Roman antiquity in modern world poetry In an innovative combination of the fields of Classical Reception and World Literature it tackles ever challenging questions which are central to both fields such as the questions of literature and identity specificity and universality Eurocentrism poetics and translation Leading experts from both Classics and Modern Languages contribute 11 chapters on modern poetry and poets from different linguistic and cultural traditions from around the world The Condition of Music and Anglophone Influences in the Poetry of Shao Xunmei Tian Jin,2020-10-06 This book examines the unique poetics of Shao Xunmei 1906 1968 a Chinese poet who has long been marginalized by contemporary criticism Shao aspires to reach the condition of music in poetry which bears a resemblance to three Anglophone writers whom he applauds Algernon Charles Swinburne Edith Sitwell and George Augustus Moore The Condition of Music and Anglophone Influences in the Poetry of Shao Xunmei investigates how these three writers influenced Shao and how this inspiration helped shape his idea of the condition of music in poetry In the scope of world literature this book aims to fill a small but important puzzle piece in the global network of literary influence In a world where cultural exchanges have become increasingly frequent and convenient and at a time when counter globalization seems to burgeon into a hazardous trend it is beneficial to look back to the 1920s 1930s a time that is as equally tumultuous as today to examine the global influence network that has taken us where we are and to understand that in the dynamic of literary influence no single piece of literature can have its significance alone This groundbreaking book will benefit the scholarship of Shao and contribute to the relevant research in Chinese studies and word and music studies Therefore it will be of great use and interest to researchers of comparative literature Chinese literature and world literature as well as scholars of word and music studies

Contemporary British Literature John Matthews Manly, Edith Rickert, 1928 Contemporary Literary Critics NA, 2015-12-25 A reference guide to the work of 115 modern British and American critics Robert Graves Jean Moorcroft Wilson, 2018-08-09 Robert Graves From Great War Poet to Good bye to All That casts new light on the life prose and poetry of Graves without which the story of Great War poetry is incomplete The writer and poet Robert Graves suppressed virtually all of the poems he had published during and just after the First World War Until his son William Graves reprinted almost all the Poems About War in 1988 Graves's status as a war poet seems to have depended mainly on his prose memoir and bestseller Good bye to All That None of the previous biographies written on Graves however excellent attempt to deal with this paradox in any depth Robert Graves the war poet and the suppressed poems themselves have been largely neglected until now Jean Moorcroft Wilson celebrated biographer of poets Siegfried Sassoon Isaac Rosenberg and Edward Thomas relates Graves's fascinating life during this period his experiences in the war his being left for dead at the Battle of the Somme his leap from a third storey window after his lover Laura Riding's even more dramatic jump from the fourth storey his move to Spain and his final goodbye to all that In this deeply researched new book containing startling material never before brought to light Dr Moorcroft Wilson traces not only Graves's compelling life but also the development of his poetry during the First World War his thinking about the conflict and his shifting attitude towards it The Waste Land After One Hundred Years Steven Matthews, 2022 An exploration of the legacy of The Waste Land on the centenary of its original publication looking at the impact it had had upon criticism and new poetries across one hundred years T S Eliot first published his long poem The Waste Land in 1922 The revolutionary nature of the work was immediately recognised and it has subsequently been acknowledged as one of the most influential poems of the twentieth century and as crucial for the understanding of modernism The essays in this collection variously reflect on The Waste Land one hundred years after its original publication At this centenary moment the contributors both celebrate the richness of the work its sounds and rare use of language and also consider the poem's legacy in Britain Ireland and India The work here by an international team of writers from the UK North America and India deploys a range of approaches Some contributors seek to re-read the poem itself in fresh and original ways others resist the established drift of previous scholarship on the poem and present new understandings of the process of its development through its drafts or as an orchestration on the page Several contributors question received wisdom about the poem's immediate legacy in the decade after publication and about the impact that it has had upon criticism and new poetries across the first century of its existence An Introduction to the volume contextualises the poem itself and the background to the essays All pieces set out to review the nature of our understanding of the poem and to bring fresh eyes to its brilliance one hundred years on Contributors Rebecca Beasley Rosinka Chaudhuri William Davies Hugh Haughton Marjorie Perloff Andrew Michael Roberts Peter Robinson Michael Wood Poetry, Modernism, and an Imperfect World Sean Pryor, 2017-03-06 Diverse modernist poems far from advertising a capacity to prefigure utopia or save society understand themselves to be complicit in the unhappiness and injustice of an imperfect or fallen world

Combining analysis of technical devices and aesthetic values with broader accounts of contemporary critical debates social contexts and political history this book offers a formalist argument about how these poems understand themselves and their situation and a historicist argument about the meanings of their forms The poetry of the canonical modernists T S Eliot Mina Loy and Wallace Stevens is placed alongside the poetry of Ford Madox Ford better known for his novels and his criticism and the poetry of Joseph Macleod whose work has been largely forgotten Focusing on the years from 1914 to 1930 the book offers a new account of a crucial moment in the history of British and American modernism The Letters of T. S. Eliot T. S. Eliot, 2011-01-01 The first volume of Eliot's correspondence covers his childhood in St Louis Missouri through 1922 when he married and settled in England Volume two covers the time period of Eliot's publication of The Hollow Men and his developing ideas about poetry Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years ..., 1927

Form and Modernity in Women's Poetry, 1895-1922 Sarah Parker, 2024-02-29 While W B Yeats's influential account of the Tragic Generation claims that most fin de siècle poets died or at least stopped writing shortly after 1900 this book explodes this narrative by attending to the twentieth century poetry produced by women poets Alice Meynell Michael Field Katharine Bradley and Edith Cooper Dollie Radford and Katharine Tynan While primarily associated with the late nineteenth century these poets were active in the twentieth century but their later writing is overlooked in modernist dominated studies partly due to this poetry's adherence to traditional form This book reveals that these poets far from being irrelevant to modernity used these established forms to address contemporary concerns including suffrage sexuality motherhood and the First World War The chapters focus on Meynell's manipulations of metre to contemplate temporality and literary tradition Michael Field's use of blank verse to portray the conflicted modern woman Radford's adaptation of the aesthetic song like lyric to tackle the experience of the city urban crime and suffrage and Tynan's employment of the ballad to soothe bereaved mothers during the First World War This book ultimately shows that traditional forms played a vital role in shaping mature women poets responses to modernity illuminating debates about form tradition and gender in twentieth century poetry A takes us around the world of the Jewish diaspora comparing the changes in Hebrew verse as it came into contact with the Canaanite Greek Arabic Italian German Russian Yiddish and English poetic forms Harshav explores the types and constraints of free rhythms the meanings of sound patterns the historical and linguistic frameworks that produced the first accentual iambs in English German Russian and Hebrew and the first discovery of these iambs in a Yiddish romance written in Venice in 1508 09 In each chapter the author presents an innovative analytical theory on a particular poetic domain drawing on his close study of thousands of Hebrew poems
