Continuity And Discontinuity Early Christianity In Its Jewish Setting:

Continuity and Discontinuity Morna D. Hooker, 2018-04-06 In the course of time the antagonism between Jew and Christian became so bitter that Christians began to behave like cuckoos or like tycoons who had taken over the company So concerned were they with their own position in God s scheme of salvation that they ceased to ask fundamental questions about God s purpose for Israel according to the flesh They forgot that poignant verse in Romans in which Paul declares I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers my kinsmen by race For by the time that the church had become a predominantly Gentile community it had been cut off not from Christ but from Paul s kinsmen I have been attempting in these lectures to understand the situation of those who wrestled with the problem of relating old and new in the first years of the Christian era if we wish to understand the origins of our faith then clearly it is essential to explore the context in which it was first formulated It may well be that the way in which these men and women related old and new may be of help to Christians today who experience the tension between past tradition and present experience It may be that a better understanding of what was going on as the Christian community sought to establish its own identity could affect our attitudes to questions concerning Jewish Christian relationships today

Early Christian Thought in Its Jewish Context John M. G. Barclay, Morna Dorothy Hooker, John Philip McMurdo Sweet, 1996-06-28 The theme of this volume is that of continuity and discontinuity between early Christianity and its Jewish parent The formation of Christian thought in the context of its Jewish beginnings is the focus of much debate and controversy These essays cover the historical and social background of Palestine and the Diaspora the main components of the New Testament canon and early non canonical writings examining their relationship to the Jewish tradition and central themes including monotheism and Christology apocalypticism ethics and martyrdom The concise treatments with their helpful bibliographies by an international team of experts will be of interest and value to teachers and undergraduate students of the New Testament and Christian origins It puts an alternative complexion on the relationship between Judaism and the convictions of the early Christians and will stimulate discussion

Jesus and Paul in the Context of Judaism and Early Christianity Donald A. Hagner, 2025-03-27 In the late nineteenth century Jewish scholars began to be interested in Jesus and eventually Paul as important figures in the history of the Jewish people Rightly understood they argued Jesus and Paul belonged more to Judaism than to Christianity as even radical critical Christian scholars were concluding The earliest believers in Jesus were exclusively Jews forming something like a new sect within Judaism The emergence of the Christianity of the New Testament soon became a focus of attention for Jewish scholars and with this a host of questions arose such as about the influence of Hellenism the parting of the ways the widespread Christian misperception of Judaism the tragedy of anti-Semitism and the identity of Jesus as Messiah and Lord The present essays address these and other issues maintaining throughout the tension of continuity and discontinuity and stressing the underappreciated radical newness of the New Testament

Building on the Ruins of the Temple Adam Gregerman, 2016-06-28 In the immediate centuries after the Romans' destruction of Jerusalem and its Temple in 70 CE Jews and Christians offered contrasting religious explanations for the razing of the locus of God's presence on earth Adam Gregerman analyzes the views found in three early Christian texts Justin's Dialogue with Trypho Origen's Contra Celsum and Eusebius' Proof of the Gospel and one rabbinic text the Midrash on Lamentations all of which emerged in the same place the land of Israel and around the same time the first few centuries after 70 The author explores the ways they interpret the destruction in order to prove in the case of Christians or make it impossible to disprove in the case of the Jews that their community is the people of God He demonstrates the apologetic and polemical functions of selected explanations for claims to the covenant made by one community excluded those made by the other

Christ the Center Tomas Bokedal, 2023-08-23 Scripture is a beautiful mosaic of Christ The earliest Christians expressed their faith with creativity through symbols and summaries In Christ the Center Tomas Bokedal explores the relationship of the rule of faith nomina sacra and numerical patterns with Scripture The nomina sacra scribal reverence for divine names within Scripture display remarkable intentionality and theological reflection The nomina sacra in turn directed the emerging rule of faith These scribal practices reveal early devotional and theological preoccupation and guided the text's shape and interpretation in the early centuries after Christ Christ the Center showcases early Christian reverence for Scripture and especially for the One of whom Scripture speaks

Vanua Ilaitia S. Tuwere, 2002 A theological reflection on the links between the Fijian vanua and theology Dr Tuwere former principal of Pacific Theological College takes us on a journey of reconciliation with Fiji's multiculturalism as he searches to define contemporary Fijian identity This voyage through different myths of migration and into the trinity of vanua lotu and matanitu compels the reader to question assumptions about Fijian Society and Affirms the truth of the Gospel while challenging reigning falsehood This book is seminal and proactive it is an awakening Matthew and Mark Across Perspectives Kristian A. Bendoraitis, Nijay K. Gupta, 2016-02-11 The essays in this volume present a state of the discipline snapshot of current and recent research into the Gospels of Matthew and Mark The contributions showcase wide range of methods and perspectives on Gospels study The Gospels are viewed from a traditional historical perspective and with an eye on history of interpretation Literary and social scientific analysis of the Gospels as well as theological and spiritual readings are also presented The collection presents chapters by experts in the field of Matthean Markan and Jesus studies that freshly examine the core texts The list of highly distinguished contributors includes James D G Dunn Francis Watson and Donald Hagner Deliver Us from Evil Richard H. Bell, 2007 My initial goal was to write a book on the defeat of Satan in New Testament theology covering all the witnesses of the New Testament using a title such as falling like lightning But it became evident that although the defeat of Satan is central to the exorcisms of the synoptic gospels many authors of the New Testament simply do not speak explicitly about a defeat of Satan For example Paul Ephesians and Colossians if they explicitly speak of the devil or allude to him speak instead of being redeemed from the dominion of Satan I therefore moved more in the direction of considering how the human being is redeemed from the effects of Satan Preface Table and Temple David L. Stubbs, 2020-09-17 In most modern discussions of the Eucharist the Jewish temple and its services of worship do not play a large role They are often mentioned in passing but little work is done in grounding organizing or explicating the connections between these things and the Eucharistic celebration In Table and Temple David Stubbs sheds light on the reasons for this neglect and shows the important role the temple and its worship played in the imagination of Jesus and his disciples about what was to become a central Christian practice He then explores the five central meanings of the temple and its main services of worship demonstrating their relationship to the five central meanings of the Christian Eucharist These central meanings of the temple itself the daily weekly and monthly sacrifices and the three pilgrim feasts are linked to the history of salvation Stubbs distills them to 1 the real presence of God and God's Kingdom among God's people 2 thanksgiving for creation and providence 3 remembrance of past deliverance 4 covenant renewal in the present and 5 a hopeful celebration of the feast to come They provide a solid ground upon which to organize contemporary Christian Eucharistic imagination and practice Such a solid ground not only expands our theology and enriches contemporary practice it can also bring greater ecumenical unity to this central Christian rite Revelation (Understanding the Bible Commentary Series) Robert W. Wall, 2011-08-01 The Understanding the Bible Commentary Series helps readers navigate the strange and sometimes intimidating literary terrain of the Bible These accessible volumes break down the barriers between the ancient and modern worlds so that the power and meaning of the biblical texts become transparent to contemporary readers The contributors tackle the task of interpretation using the full range of critical methodologies and practices yet they do so as people of faith who hold the text in the highest regard Pastors teachers and lay people alike will cherish the truth found in this commentary series The Formation of Hell Alan E. Bernstein, 2020-06-30 What becomes of the wicked Hell exile from God subjection to fire worms and darkness for centuries the idea has shaped the dread of malefactors the solace of victims and the deterrence of believers Although we may associate the notion of hell with Christian beliefs its gradual emergence depended on conflicting notions that pervaded the Mediterranean world more than a millennium before the birth of Christ Asking just why and how belief in hell arose Alan E Bernstein takes us back to those times and offers us a comparative view of the philosophy poetry folklore myth and theology of that formative age Bernstein draws on sources from ancient Egypt Mesopotamia Greece Rome and Israel as well as early Christian writings through Augustine in order to reconstruct the story of the prophets priests poets and charismatic leaders who fashioned concepts of hell from an array of perspectives on death and justice The author traces hell s formation through close readings of works including the epics of Homer and Vergil the satires of Lucian the dialogues of Plato and Plutarch the legends of Enoch the confessions of the Psalms the prophecies of Isaiah Ezechiel and Daniel and the parables of Jesus Reenacting lively debates about the nature of hell among the common people and the elites of diverse religious traditions he provides new insight into the social implications and the psychological consequences of different visions of the afterlife This superb account of a central image in Western culture will captivate readers interested in history mythology literature psychology philosophy and religion Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies, Volume 19, Number 2 Dave Johnson, 2017-09-13 THE JOURNAL SEEKS TO PROVIDE A FORUM To encourage serious theological thinking and articulation by Pentecostals Charismatics in Asia to promote interaction among Asian Pentecostals Charismatics and dialogue with other Christian traditions to stimulate creative contextualization of the Christian faith and to provide a means for Pentecostals Charismatics to share their theological reflections Church, Book, And Bishop Peter Iver Kaufman, 2018-10-08 This book narrates a number of stories from the early clerical history of the church to illustrate how authority came to be shared among the institutions of church book and bishop It is intended for a wide range of readers including scholars students The Western Time of Ancient History Alexandra Lianeri, 2011-03-31 This book examines the conceptual and temporal frames through which modern Western historiography has linked itself to classical antiquity In doing so it articulates a genealogical problematic of what history is and a more strictly focused reappraisal of Greek and Roman historical thought Ancient ideas of history have played a key role in modern debates about history writing from Kant through Hegel to Nietzsche and Heidegger and from Friedrich Creuzer through George Grote and Theodor Mommsen to Momigliano and Moses Finley yet scholarship has paid little attention to the theoretical implications of the reception of these ideas The essays in this collection cover a wide range of relevant topics and approaches and boast distinguished authors from across Europe in the fields of classics ancient and modern history and the theory of historiography Paul and the Creation of Christian Identity William S. Campbell, 2008-06-03 An examination of how the church eventually became a gentile movement exploring how this was as the result of various historical social and cultural factors in which the earliest vision of diversity within the church was lost contrary to Paul's vision in which subgroup identities of Jew and gentile in Christ were recognized

The Matthean Parables Ivor H. Jones, 2014-04-09 The Matthean Parables offers a fresh approach to the origin of Matthew's Gospel. It builds on current historical literary rhetorical and sociological studies of Matthew's Gospel to show how the Matthean parables illuminate the structure purpose and theology of that gospel. The first part of the book establishes the need for a new attempt to define the genre of Matthew's Gospel examines what is meant by a parable and summarises the contribution made by the parables to that new attempt. The second part is a thorough exegetical historical critical and literary study of all the Matthean parables in the context of the whole gospel and in the light of all the Matthean figurative material. An appendix illustrates the use of syntactical material in defining the character and style of a biblical text.

Knowing God Through the Old Testament Christopher J.H. Wright, 2019-02-05 Combining three volumes into one Knowing God Through the Old Testament brings together three of Christopher J H Wright's best loved books Knowing God the Father Through the Old Testament Knowing Jesus Through the Old Testament and Knowing the Holy Spirit Through the Old Testament.

Christology From Within and Ahead Mark Chan, 2021-10-01 Troeltsch's struggle with historicism sets the stage for a proposal that Christology be done from within and from ahead. Gadamer's philosophical hermeneutics and Schleiermacher's experiential theology inform a Christology from within that is rooted in tradition and experience while Pannenberg's notion of proleptic eschatological fulfilment serves as resource for a Christology from ahead. This volume develops a hermeneutical Christology that takes into account the historical contingency of knowledge and seeks a Christology beyond the objectivism of timeless truth and the relativism of absolutised contextuality. The book is concluded with an examination of the convergence of critical traditionality experiential appropriation and eschatological prolepsis in the Christology of the apostle Paul. The author explores how Christology might respond to the scandal of universality in postmodernity without defaulting on its claim to transcontextual referentiality.
